

Bevos Move To Salt Lake With Firm Grip On Third

By United Press International
The Portland Beavers move into Salt Lake City to open a three-game series tonight with their hold on third place just as firm as it was when they moved into Phoenix last Friday.

Portland pounded out a 13-7 victory over Phoenix Sunday to remain a game and a half ahead of the Arizona club. The Beavers are two and one-half games back of second place San Diego and four and one-half behind league-leading Sacramento.

Jim Greengrass led the Portland attack against Phoenix Sunday with a home, double and a single. In the four game series, which the teams split, Greengrass drove in 12 runs. He had 11 hits in 18 times at bat, including three doubles, a triple and two home runs.

Portland hung Sunday night's loss on Giant Ace Eddie Fisher who failed for the second straight time in his quest for his 10th victory. Howie Reed went the distance for Portland for his sixth win.

Russ Snyder also homered for the Beavers.
Bud Watkins hurled Vancouver to a 5-1 win over Sacramento to become the only pitcher besides Reed to go the distance in some wild Sunday action which saw 35 hurlers used in seven games.
A pair of fours, which doesn't mean much in poker, wrecked the front-running Solons twice Sunday night and cut their margin over San Diego to 2½ games. In this case, the "fours" consisted of a four-run rally by the Mounties in the third inning of the opener which boosted Watkins to his 5-1 win and a similar eruption in the second inning of the nightcap that cinched a 6-1 triumph.

Incidentally, Ed Basinski accounted for the quartet of Vancouver tallies in the second game with a bases-loaded homer.

But those short bursts in Sacramento were peanuts compared to explosions heard elsewhere. Portland unleashed for seven runs in the seventh inning to crush Phoenix in their solo tilt. Seattle and Salt Lake took turns sandbagging each other with six-run outbursts to split a twin bill. The Rainiers had their big moment in the eighth inning of the first game to win, 13-7, after the Bees had tallied five in the seventh. Then Salt Lake countered with a half-dozen during the same frame to insure a 10-5 win.

After San Diego downed Spokane, 4-2, in a conservative opener, the Indians cinched the finale with a four-run jolt in the second inning and went on to a 5-4 decision.

The Solons traded Watkins to Vancouver earlier this season and sure enough, he got back at his old mates with a seven hitter in the first game. Winston Brown had the loss and then Basinski's crasher dropped Carl Greene to his first defeat after six wins. Chuck Estrada, a right-handed flame thrower, was the winner.

Oriole Hopes Depend On Pitching Strength

By FRED DOWN
UPI Staff Writer

Hoyt Wilhelm already has made believers of American League hitters and now the Baltimore Orioles are trying to do the same with the experts.

Wilhelm's 9-0 record and astounding 0.99 earned run average speak for themselves and manager Paul Richards insists the Orioles' second-place standing ought to do the same.

"We can go all the way," Richards has been preaching since the start of the season. "We'll go as far as our pitching will take us." Well, Sunday Wilhelm's pitching took the Orioles into second place via a 3-0 victory over the Kansas City Athletics. The erstwhile ragmuffins of the league are only one game behind the first-place Chicago White Sox and are a half-game ahead of the third-place Cleveland Indians both of whom split their Sunday double-headers.

White Sox Split
The White Sox scored a 9-4 victory in their opener but lost the nightcap to the Boston Red Sox, 4-2 and the Yankees bounced back from a 7-5 setback to beat the Indians, 4-3, before 59,823 at Cleveland.

The Detroit Tigers made it 23 out of 23 under Jimmy Dykes with a 5-1 win over the Washington Senators.

In the National League, the Milwaukee Braves increased their first-place margin to two games by beating the Los Angeles Dodgers, 6-2. The Chicago Cubs beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-2 and the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-0, after an 11-0 defeat and the Cincinnati Reds defeated the San Francisco Giants, 7-1, after a 5-3 setback.

Gas Triandos hit a two-run homer and Billy Klaus singled home Baltimore's other run as Wilhelm scored his third shutout.

The White Sox routed Ike DeLoach with six runs in the second inning and went on to win the opener with a 12-hit attack that gave Dick Donovan his third victory. The Red Sox, however, tagged Billy Pierce for three runs in the first inning of the nightcap and Frank Sullivan held the White Sox scoreless until the ninth when Leo Kiley and Mike Fornieles felled him out.

Record Tribe Crowd
The largest crowd of the big league season saw Herb Score fan seven and pitch a six-hitter that ended the Indians' seven-game losing streak. Homers by Yogi Berra and Marv Throneberry plus Ryne Duren's 2-2-3 innings of shutout relief enabled the Yankees to gain an even break. The split left the Yankees in sixth place, 3½ games behind the White Sox.

Eddie Yost clouted two homers and Charlie Maxwell hit a two-run homer for the Tigers who dealt Pedro Ramos his sixth defeat.

The Braves sent 13 men to bat and scored eight runs in the seventh inning to salvage the last game of a three-game series with Los Angeles. Bob Buhl, although tagged for homers by Gil Hodges and Don Demeter, went the distance and allowed only four hits in registering his fifth win.

Ernie Banks and Bobby Thomson drove in two runs each for the Cubs in their opener and then Elmer Singleton, Bill Henry and Don Elston collaborated in a three-hit shutout in the nightcap. Bob Friend struck out 10 batters in the second game but lost it.

Dave Philley and Harry Anderson had three hits each to pace a 16-hit Philadelphia attack that netted Jack Meyer his fourth win but then Vinegar Bend Mizell pitched a five-hitter for St. Louis in the nightcap.

Woods and Rifles

Catches of channel catfish are being made on the Snake river below Oxbow dam. Unity reservoir has produced some nice catches of rainbow for boat anglers and fair for bank anglers.

Higgins reservoir remains good for both boat and bank anglers. Murray reservoir is fair to good. Ponds in Baker county are poor to fair. The Baldock pond remains good for bass. Brownlee reservoir is excellent for bass to three-fourths of a pound.

Rainbow 10 and 12 inches in length are being caught at Strawberry lake. Some eastern brook trout to 15 inches are entering the creek at Strawberry lake. Snow remains on the south end of the lake and a few small drifts remain on the trail before reaching the lake. Magone lake is giving up some nice brook trout and an occasional rainbow to 15 inches. Best success at Magone lake is by still fishing.
