Jerry Lewis Signs Movie Contract For Over 10 Million

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Comedian Jerry Lewis has signed a seven-year contract with Paramount Pictures for a "minimum sum in excess of 10 million dollars," it has been announced.

Paramount called the deal the "biggest single talent transaction in Hollywood history for the exclusive services of one star."

Under the contract, Paramount will have exclusive rights to all of the comedian's motion picture ventures during the next seven years, said Jack Karp, Paramount head.

Karp said the pact calls for Lewis to star in seven Paramount-York films during the contract period in addition to seven pictures starring Lewis that will be produced by Jerry Lewis Productions Inc.

Wagon Train Stops At Casper

CASPER, Wyo. (UPI) — This city turned out 10,000 strong to welcome the Oregon Centennial wagon train Saturday. Crowds lined the 2 1-2 mile parade route to watch the covered wagons rumble on to a weekend camp site at old Fort Casper.

A unit of the Army Reserve 461st Engineering Company led the five - block long parade, the first major out of town event to hit Casper in three years.

Following the Army unit was the 1st Governor's Guard from Cheyenne. Twenty mounted soldiers from Casper flanked the wagons as scouts and guards and the troopers' drum and bugle corps provided cadence to the tune of "She Wore a Yellow Ribbon."

A parade of seven antique automobiles trailed the seven wagons through the streets of the city.

Gov. J. J. Hickey met the wagon train on Highway 26 near the city limits and personally greeted each member of the caravan.

Independence, Mo., was the starting point of the Santa Fe Trail in 1831 and of the Old Oregon Trail in 1843.
