Local Lodge Votes Change In Meetings

Members of the Loyal Star Lodge met in regular session Monday evening with president, Eva Magden presiding. In addition to regular lodge business, it was decided to dispense with the second meetings of the month for July and August. These meetings will probably be in the form of picnic suppers, with definite plans to be announced later.

The attendance award was presented to Lois Moore.

At the close of lodge, the social hour was held in the home of Jeanne Ball, with hostesses Anna Bradley and Eva Magden serving shortcake and coffee for refreshments. Several colorful bouquets of spring flowers were placed about the home.

Hostesses for the social hour following the next regular meeting on July 6 will be Erma Davis and Edna Franklin.
