WILLIAM EWALT SAYS:

It Looked A Little Like A Bumbling 'B' Movie

NEW YORK (UPI) — Thursday night Playhouse 90 got mixed up with the push set and turned out a tosh play.

For the first time this season, the CBS-TV drama showcase deflected to film, reeling out 90 minutes of a movie which had been shot in England for theatre consumption. "Dark as the Night" it was called and a dark and murky piece of dramaturgy it was—stodgy at the start, muddy around the center, oozy at its close. It all looked a little like a bumbling "B" movie, which is rather fitting, because it was.

The story was one of those beddy British things about a wealthy chap who was running for Parliament, but whose wife was threatening to leave him, a bit of a fix, wot? Just to complicate matters, his chauffeur was trying to kidnap his wife, his chauffeur's girl friend was trying to rob his safe, a gossip columnist was trying to blackmail him, and his housemaid was hysterical.

"What a situation," said the chap midway, "just... about... as dark... as... the... night!" Which summed it up all rather neatly, I thought.

Pile Drivers Settle Strike

PORTLAND (UPI) — The six-week-old Oregon Pile Driver strike was settled here Wednesday about 6:30 p.m. at a meeting between the Associated General Contractors, an executive committee of the Carpenters International Union from Washington, D.C., and the Federal Mediation Service.

Federal Mediator George Walker said members of the Pile Drivers, a Carpenters' affiliate union, were expected to return to their jobs today.

The strike was launched May 6 by two dissenting Pile Driver locals after the Oregon District and Southwest Washington District Councils of the Carpenters approved the AGC three-year contract.

The national union committee, which arrived here the first of the week, overruled the two locals—Portland and Astoria—to end the dispute.

The AGC had threatened a shutdown of all of its 400 million dollars worth of construction projects in Oregon and Southern Washington if the Pile Drivers walked out continued.

About 1,200 men were affected by the strike and some 15 million dollars in projects were tied up.

WHALE TOWS CHAIN

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (UPI) — A 30-ton sperm whale was swimming about the sea between the north and south islands of New Zealand to-day with a heavy cable wound around its tail. The 40-foot whale had become stranded on a beach. When a trawler tried to drag it to sea, the whale caused such a fuss that the trawler's skipper cut the cable to avoid a sinking.

THE CHANNEL SWIM

The Channel Swims: A soft drink sponsor (Canada Dry) has placed a verbal order with NBC-TV for 10 Sunday one hour specials next season — there's a good chance that Mitch Miller will emcee the musical shows. CBS-TV's Twentieth Century will shoot two of its offerings in Poland and Japan this summer — the tentative titles: "Poland Today" and "The Changing Face of Japan."

CBS-TV has reshuffled its fall schedule: Dennis the Menace will lead into the Ed Sullivan Show on Sundays; a Western, Hotel de Paree, will follow Rawhide on Fridays; another Western, Johnny Ringo, will lead into Zane Grey Theatre on Thursdays; the Dennis O'Keefe show now is set for Tuesdays replacing The Lawbreakers, the debut of which will be held back until January.

ABC-TV is trying to set a Three Stooges special for next season. Pat Weaver, former president of NBC, has moved in as head of the international division of an ad agency, McCann Erickson. Hope Emerson, of NBC-TV's Peter Gunn series, will be a regular in the cast of the new CBS-TV Dennis O'Keefe series next fall.

Ethnologists estimate that Polynesians arrived on the Island of Oahu, in the Hawaiian group, about 1004 A.D.

Klamath Indian Killed By Truck

KLAMATH FALLS (UPI) — A 36-year-old Klamath Indian was killed Thursday afternoon under the wheels of a truck owned by Harry Allen, Beatty, Ore. Sheriff Murray Britton identified the victim as Andrew Foster.

Britton said that Foster left the Beatty tavern at 2:30 p.m. "quite intoxicated." Allen said he saw Foster get into the cab of his dual truck and ran after him for about 500 yards.

Allen said he managed to get on the truck and slow it down. He grabbed Foster while the truck was still in motion and pulled him out of the cab, he said. Foster fell to the ground and was crushed under the left front wheel.

Britton said Foster died 30 minutes later. James Holloway, deputy sheriff, brought Allen into the District Attorney's office late Thursday afternoon. The sheriff said no charges would be filed.
