

Sen. O'Mahoney Following Stroke

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) remained in the U.S. naval hospital at nearby Bethesda, Md., today for treatment of a mild stroke.

The 74 year old Senator suffered the stroke Friday morning after the tense Senate vote rejecting the confirmation of Commerce Secretary Lewis L. Strauss.

He was reported by his doctor to be "reacting very well" to treatment. Chances of recovery were said to be "encouraging."

O'Mahoney talked to his Senate office by telephone Monday and affected his left side but had not affected his left side but had not limited his speech.

DIOR TOO EXPENSIVE MOSCOW (UPI) — A Soviet magazine said today that many men in the West have been saying for years about French fashions—they're too expensive and the styles change too often.

The evening gowns in the Dior shows here earlier this month were pretty, the magazine "Ogonyok" said. But it asked: "Who can afford such expensive things?"

TWO TOP TWIRLERS OXFORD, Miss. (UPI) — Karen Sechr, 16, of Bonfield, Ill., and Billy Stewart, 17, of Tylertown, Miss., won the two top prizes Friday in the Dixie National Open hatbox twirling contest.
