

Bees Stop Beavers; PCL Pitchers Star

By United Press International
 Chuck Harmon's triple in the top of the 12th inning scored Ken Toothman from first base to give the Salt Lake City Bees a 3-2 Pacific Coast League win over Portland Tuesday night. The win evened the current series in Portland at a win apiece and was Salt Lake's ninth win in 11 games with the Beavers this season. Portland remained tied for fourth place.

Winning pitcher was Jim Umbricht of the Bees, who registered his fifth win against three losses. Umbricht relieved starter Ernie Francis. Loser was Glenn McMin of the Beavers, who lost his first game since joining Portland Monday. McMin relieved starter Marty Kutyna in the seventh frame and is now 0-3 for the season.

Portland grabbed a 1-0 lead in the second inning when Clarence Moore reached first on a single and went all the way to second on a wild throw. Moore stole third and scored on Jim Westlake's sacrifice fly.

The Beavers picked up another run in the sixth to move into a 2-0 lead when Russ Snyder singled to left, stole second, went to third on an infield out and stole home.

Bees Tie Score
 The Bees tied the score in the seventh on Jim Baumer's two-run home run into the left field stands. It was Baumer's fourth round tripper of the season.

The rabbit ball played dead in the Pacific Coast League last night, with only the San Diego Padres spoiling an otherwise excellent night for PCL moundmen. The Padres racked four Seattle hurlers for 15 hits while coasting to a 9-1 victory, but elsewhere it was a different story. Roger Osenbaugh stopped Spokane on two hits for a 2-1 Sacramento victory, Curt Barclay of Phoenix four-hit Vancouever in a 5-0 shutout, and a pair of Salt Lake pitchers scattered 10 safeties in a 3-2, 12-inning win over Portland.

San Diego's R. W. Smith also came up with an excellent hurling performance, limiting the last-place Rainiers to four hits. Spokane scored its only run off Osenbaugh in the ninth inning when Fred Hatfield reached second base on an error, then came home on Tommy Davis' double. Davis singled in the first frame for the only other Spokane hit. Osenbaugh, who picked up his third win against the same number of losses, struck out six and walked four.

The Sacs collected only five hits off three Indian hurlers, three by Milt Smith, including a solo homer in the sixth.

The win, which halted a five-game Spokane winning streak sent the Solons into a 2½ game lead over second-place Vancouver. Barclay allowed just one runner past first base to pick up his sixth win for Phoenix. Charlie White led off the third inning with a triple for the Mounties, but he was left stranded when the Giant right-hander shut the door.

Losing pitcher Chuck Estrada also turned in an estimable hurling performance, striking out 10 batters in the eight innings he worked. But he gave up two runs in the fourth when Willie McCovey homered with one aboard and that was all the lead Barclay needed. The Giants added three runs in the ninth off reliever Dick Luebke. Two came home on Bobby Prescott's pinch-hit homer.

Red Graber belted two doubles and a single in four trips to pace San Diego's batting attack. The Rainiers got their only run off Smith on two hits and a sacrifice fly in the first.

At Portland, Chuck Harmon tripled after Ken Toothman led off the top of the 12th with a single to give Salt Lake its ninth win in 11 games with the Beavers this season. The Bees managed to collect only seven hits, but one of them was a two-run homer by Jim Baumer.

Six La Grande Golfers Win In Junior Tourney

Six local golfers won their first round matches in the Oregon Junior golf tournaments in Portland yesterday.

Maureen DeVaney and Wendy Moberly, who both qualified for the championship flight, set the pace for La Grande's feminine golfers. Miss DeVaney defeated her opponent 5 and 3. Wendy Moberly, only two over par when she closed, defeated the opponent 7 and 6.

Denise Wagner won her 2nd flight match on the 20th hole. The only girl from La Grande to drop a match was Susan Schriver who lost 2 and 1. Miss Schriver will drop into the third flight for today's action after qualifying for 2nd flight matches Monday.

Bob Lyman, Elgin, who qualified for 10th flight in boys action was defeated 2 and 1. He will continue in action today after being dropped to the 11th flight. Lyman was the only boy from the area to lose in yesterday's matches.

Gordon DeVore, a 12th flight qualifier, won 7 and 6 and Murph Karns won 3 and 1 in the 10th flight.

Loren Fihn, in the 18th flight drew a bye for yesterday but goes to the post in the 18th flight today.

Ravid Munro of Beaverton lost to Dick Wagner 2 and 1 in an upset. Munro was a pretourney favorite.

Girls medalist Pam Stacy gained a 3 and 1 win over Gretchen Heddeman of Oswego Lake Country Club.

Casey, Yanks Move; Mantle, Ford Help

By MILTON RICHMAN
 UPI Staff Writer

Casey's finally making his move — just as he said he would — and it must delight the old boy that he even called the turn on the two men who would help him do the moving.

The two, of course, are Mickey Mantle and Whitey Ford. "We'll be all right," Casey Stengel told the worried Yankee brass when the club hit rock-bottom a month ago. "We'll be all right as soon as Mantle starts hitting again and I can get Ford to go nine."

So it certainly comes as no surprise to Stengel that his Yankees are back in the first division again, only two games away from the top, now that Mantle and Ford are beginning to click again. Mantle cracked out his third homer in two days Tuesday night and Ford turned in a nifty five-hitter to pace the Yanks to a 10-2 victory over the Athletics.

White Sox Climb
 The White Sox climbed to within a game of first place with a 4-1 victory over the Senators; the Orioles moved to within a game-and-a-half of the top by beating the league-leading Indians, 5-1, and the Red Sox knocked the Tigers out of the first division with a 10-4 win.

In the National League, the Braves stretched their lead to two games by clipping the Cardinals, 9-5, while the Pirates licked the second-place Giants, 5-1. The Dodgers edged the Phillies, 4-3, and the Cubs topped the Reds, 3-1.

Early Wynn of the White Sox became the first AL pitcher to win 10 games when he halted the Senators on eight hits, one of which was Bob Allison's 19th homer.

Young Milt Pappas of the Orioles picked up his seventh victory by holding the Indians to five hits. Pappas blanked the Tribe until Woodie Held hit his 12th homer in the eighth.

Williams Back in Lineup
 Ted Williams, Jackie Jensen and Frank Malone each hit homers for the Red Sox against the Tigers. Jensen drove in four runs with three hits that included his 14th homer with two on in the ninth. Williams returned to the lineup after nine days on the bench because of weak hitting and had a homer and a single in three official trips.

Del Crandall was the big gun in Milwaukee's win over St. Louis, driving in four runs to help Carlton Willey to his third victory. Crandall doubled home two runs in a three-run first inning and broke a 3-3 tie with a two-run homer in the fifth.

Big Dick Stuart lashed out three singles and a home run in helping Vern Law of the Pirates beat the Giants. The victory was Law's eighth against four defeats and he achieved it with a six-hit effort.

The Dodgers mustered only five hits off Gene Conley of the Phillies but three of them were home runs by Junior Gilliam, Gil Hodges and Don Demeter. Hodges' homer, his 11th of the season, was the 331st of his career and moved him to an 11th place tie with Hank Greenberg on the all-time home run list.

Glen Hobbie of the Cubs scored his seventh victory in beating the Reds. He yielded eight hits, four of them to Frank Robinson, Tony Taylor, with two doubles and a single, paced Chicago's 10-hit attack.

Portland Gets Hockey League

CALGARY, Alta. (UPI)—Portland was granted a franchise to operate a Western Hockey League entry during the 1960-61 season Tuesday by league directors at their annual meeting here.

Portland will replace New Westminster, B. C., in the league.

The unanimous vote of the directors will give Portland its first professional hockey since the 1950-51 season.

Harry Glickman, secretary-treasurer of the Portland group backing the new team said Portland operators will decide, probably within the next few days, what will be done about the New Westminster team next season. He said the team either can be operated jointly with Fred Hume, the present owner of the Royals, or operations can be suspended for a year.

The new Memorial coliseum, slated for completion in the fall of 1960, will be the home of the Portland club.

C. Howard Lane, Portland television executive, is president of the Portland Hockey Club. Glickman will be general manager of the club.

LONGDEN SUSPENDED

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI)—Veteran jockey Johnny Longden was notified Tuesday he had been suspended by stewards of Baltimore for 10 days. Stewards charged Longden with cutting across the field too sharply during his winning ride aboard Honorey's Gem in the $50,000 Beverly Handicap last Saturday.

DUFFERS GET 'ROUGH' BREAK

HIGHLAND PARK, Ill. (UPI)—The Sunset Valley Golf Course opened today with girl "caddyettes" as well as boy caddies. They also set some rules: The caddyettes may not wear short shorts or halters; no girl may caddy for a lone male golfer.

Houston Wins Team Title; Oregon Fourth

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI)—Five members of University of Houston's six-man golf team led a field of 64 players today as match play opened in the NCAA Golf Tournament.

Houston won an unprecedented fourth straight team title Tuesday with Bob Pratt and Jack Cupit both tying the NCAA medalist record of 136 for 36 holes. Houston also set a new team mark of 561, nine strokes under the record it set last year and seven strokes under par.

Match play will run through Saturday, with today's field slated to be cut to 16 after two 18-hole match rounds.

Purdue finished 10 strokes back of Houston Tuesday to take second place in the team standings. Stanford was third with 573, Oregon fourth with 579 and Seattle sixth with 581.

Twelve players matched or broke par out of the field of 140. Tom Jakobsen, fifth ranking player on the Oregon squad, shot a 68-69-137 yesterday to finish one stroke behind Pratt and Cupit. Leighton Tuttle of Oregon State, whose 67 tied Cupit's second round for the best 18 of the day, and Ron Royer of Indiana shot 1388. Pratt had a 66-70, and Cupit a 69-67.

Jon Konek of Purdue, last year's finalist behind Houston's Phil Rodgers, shot a 71 along with Bob Snelling and Ron Preston of Stanford. Gene Francis of Purdue and Bill Warner of Seattle matched par at 142.

Other teams scoring included: Florida and Texas Tech 596, Rawlins 587, Duke 592, Oregon State 593, Iowa 595, Yale 600, Idaho 603, North Texas State 607, Tulsa 608, Princeton and San Jose State 609, Washington 613 and Portland 618.

RACE DRIVER RECOVERED

9 Survive Wimbledon First Round

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI)—Top-seeded Alex Olmedo led nine American survivors into second-round matches in men's singles in the Wimbledon tennis championships today and at least five of them appeared headed for a rough time.

Olmedo, the Peruvian who paced the United States to victory in last year's Davis Cup challenge round, was expected to win under wraps in his match against Rodney Mandelstam of South Africa.

But fellow Davis Cupper Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, was up against a potentially dangerous foe in Wladislaw Skonecki, Poland's ace and a tourney-wise veteran. Jack Frost of Monterey, Calif., was pitted against Giuseppe Merlo, a key man on Italy's strong Davis Cup squad.

Earl Buchholz Jr., the St. Louis, Mo., youngster who scored the biggest upset of the first round, faced South African ace Gordon Forbes, while aging Gardner Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., met a rapidly-improving newcomer, Lew Douglas of Santa Monica, Calif., who was pitted against a strong Australian squad member, Bob Hewitt.
