Centennial Play Will Open July 8

When Joe Meek, early pioneer, as a cousin of the president's wife. first came to Oregon, Mt. Hood was just a hole in the ground! Sarah Polk, he mixed in Washington society, rode in parades with the President, and generally and other fabulous inventions of Joe's, are part of the special made-to-order, Oregon Centennial play, "Go Ahead, Joe Meek," by Oregon by Alberto Cereghino, Oregon's playwright, Jane Erickson, open-outstanding actor, with other accounts of the president's wife.

Community Theatre. Waggish and fun-loving Joe has sometimes been called Oregon's "man of firsts." He was Oregon's first sheriff; a member of its first legislature; the first man to In Parents Home Here bring a wagon into the Willamette Valley; appointed by President Polk as Oregon's first U. S. marshal-yes, wherever there was action, Joe wasn't bashful-he was out front all the way. Even in our nation's capitol, where he was sent to plead the cause of Oregon, Nor did he stop when the mowing was done. He manicured the edges with a clipper until they were perfect. The sun was high by the time he finished and was seated in the kitchen with a nice thing for you to do," I suggested. But as he munched on a chocolate chip cupcake, he replied, "Oh, no, Mrs. Morgan, that'd take the fun out of it!" And do you know what? He was absolutely right. For one of the greatest joys we find in life is doing for some one else just because we want to — not because we're being paid.

I'm glad I made those cupcakes yesterday, for Mike ate five of them — the last one while he pushed his mower back up the street. And in his pocket was stuffed the recipe. He said if his mother doesn't have time to make them, then he'll try them himself. So I gave him a little advice about the importance of using Morning Milk to be sure of the best results for Morning Milk is a superior ingredient in any recipe! Actually Morning Milk gives the cupcakes a better browned crust and a light tender eating quality.
