

Stan Musial Added To All-Star Game

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI) — Manager Fred Haney chose Stan (The Man) Musial for Auld Lang Syne today in selecting the reserves and pitchers to round out the National League All-Star team.

Although the 38-year-old St. Louis Cardinals star received only three votes in the major leaguers' balloting for the starting positions, Haney felt "old pro" Musial would be a handy man to have on the bench for the July 7 All-Star game at Pittsburgh.

And if there were any sentiment involved, who could begrudge the honor to Stan-The-Man, who has been a prominent fixture in 16 consecutive All-Star classics. No other player has participated in as many. In those 16 games, Musial compiled a .315 batting average and holds the All-Star records for home runs (five), hits (17) and total bases (34).

Cepeda, Robinson Ahead
With a .259 batting average that includes seven homers and 29 runs batted in this season, Musial finished far back of starting first baseman Orlando Cepeda of the San Francisco Giants and runner-up Frank Robinson of the Cincinnati Reds, when the players, managers and coaches voted for the first team.

In picking the seven NL pitchers, Haney tapped Lew Burdette (11-6) and Warren Spahn (10-8), the two aces from his own Milwaukee staff; Elroy Face of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who has won 12 games in relief without a loss;

Jim Bailey Added To 880 Field For Oregon AAU Meet

EUGENE (UPI) — Sub-four minute miler Jim Bailey informed officials of the Oregon AAU championships to be held here July 4 that he would compete in the 880-yard run.

Bailey, an ex-University of Oregon miler, was the first man in the United States to run the mile in less than four minutes and also held the NCAA championship in the mile for coach Bill Bowerman's Webfoots.

Another addition to the performers slated to be on hand for the meet is George Mattos who will enter the pole vault. Mattos competed in the 1956 Olympics and is an ex-San Jose State star. His entry in the pole vault competition boosts the number of contestants to four who cleared 15 feet.

Don Drysdale (8-5) of the Los Angeles Dodgers, Johnny Antonelli (11-4) of the Giants, Vinegar Bend Mizell (9-3) of the Cards, and Gene Conley (5-4) of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Haney picked the staff after studying recommendations from the seven other league managers. The seven pitchers have a combined record of 66 victories and 30 defeats.

Favored Pool Leaders
For reserves, Haney generally favored those players who finished second in the major leaguers' poll. The only exceptions were Musial and shortstop Dick Groat of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who was chosen over voting runnerup Roy McMillan of the Reds.

In addition to Musial and Groat, the infield reserves are Robinson, Ken Boyer of the Cardinals and Bill Mazeroski of the Pirates. The starting infield will be Cepeda at first, Johnny Temple of Cincinnati at second, Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs at short and Ed Mathews of the Braves at third.

The three outfield standbys picked by Haney were Joe Cunningham and Bill White of the Cards and Vada Pinson of the Reds. The NL's starting outfield will be Hank Aaron of the Braves, Willie Mays of the Giants and Wally Moon of the Dodgers.

Catchers Smokey Burgess of the Pirates and Hal Smith of the Cards were chosen as reserves for starter Del Crandall of Milwaukee.

The Cards thus had the biggest representation on the team, with six players. The Braves placed five men, the Pirates four, the Giants and Reds three each, the Dodgers two, and the Cubs, and Philis one each.

OCE Picks Texan Athlete For Year

MONMOUTH (UPI) — The outstanding athlete of the 1958-59 year as voted by members of the Oregon College of Education teams is Charlie Harris of Plainview, Texas, who was a four-year-lettermen football back.

Those named most valuable to Wolf teams in individual sports were Herb Hermann of Salem in football, Albany basketballer Dave Ward in the cage sport, Kevin Morse of Salem in wrestling, Ray Derrah of Albany in baseball, Salemite Roy Van Horn in tennis, Monmouth's George Ross in golf and Ralph Kilham from Lebanon in track.
