DID THEY GOOF AT THE ACADEMY?

Air Force Handled Project Just Like They Always Do

UPI Staff Writer WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Air Force says it's not true somebody

That, apparently, was just what the congressmen feared.

Take, for example, the fine new hospital in the countryside of Normandy, France. Melvin R. Laird (R-Wis.) recalled that in 1955 this 1,000-bed hospital turned up among top priority projects for the Air Force.

Congress put up the necessary millions, and about a year ago the hospital was finished. They built a nurses' home, barracks, and service clubs. They brought
