

Moyer, Jordan Set For Title Battle

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — The biggest crowd in Oregon fight history will join the Portland Meadows race track this afternoon to see home-town hero Denney Moyer, a 19-year-old baby-faced slasher, attempt to wrest the world welterweight crown from Don Jordan.

With Floyd Patterson losing his heavyweight title to Ingemar Johansson and Alphonse Halimi shown of the bantamweight title by Jose Beccara, local hero-worshippers believe that maybe good things run in a series of three and that Moyer can make the grade against Jordan.

One Hitter Top Action In League

Cardinals 8, Dodgers 8.
(called because of darkness)

Two little league teams pounced on lopsided victories in last night's action and the third game ended in a deadlock. The Cardinal-Dodger game was called in the bottom of the sixth with the score tied at 8-8. The game will be completed this afternoon.

The Jr. Old Timers started off like they were going to walk away with an easy victory with three runs in the first inning. Steve Malone was hit by the pitcher, Dave Knight followed with a single and Steve Fredericks singled Malone home. John Smurthwaite walked and Dan Young unleashed a two run producing double for a 3-0 lead.

Van Patten's roared back and never stopped with a four run burst of their own in the bottom of the inning. Barton walked as the first batter and Dave Cash followed with a single. Lyle Masters singled and Jim Lilly also got a base hit to make the score 3-8.

Losing pitcher Dave Knight struck out the next two batters, David Bingham then singled home two more runs before Knight could retire the side.

The Lumberjacks picked up two more runs in the second when after Barton had walked Lyle Masters blasted one of Knight's pitches for a home run.

In the fourth inning for the Lumberjacks Tommy Harris walked, Jeff Better walked and Cash was safe on an error to load the bases. Lyle Masters then unloaded the bases with his third hit of the night. Fred Leach singled home the fourth run of the inning.

In the fifth the Jr. Old Timers picked up a pair of runs to end the scoring. Knight was safe on an error. Steve Fredericks singled, McClay walked and a base hit by Gary Girard scored the runs.

Glass Drug made short work scoring 10 runs in the first inning six walks and five hits, two apiece by John McClay and Sam Kimer, accounted for all the runs.

In the second inning Bobby Baker singled and scored later on a hit by Jimmy Shaw. Glass picked up two more runs in the third inning on five straight walks to Mike Chandler, Ron Fuller, McKay, Dave Baker and Rod Feik.

Bohnenkamp's got their only run and only hit off winning pitcher Ron Fuller in the fifth inning. Ferguson doubled to start the inning and went to third on Sam Miller's grounder to the pitcher. He scored on Joey Talbot's fly ball to the second baseman.

Mike Elder was charged with the loss.

The Cards and the Dodgers battled to a deadlock in a game that saw the lead change hands almost every inning. The Dodgers went ahead in the bottom of the fifth 6-5 on a four run burst.

The Cards got three in the top of the sixth two on doubles by Jim Cash and Tom Kemp, Randy Dooven and Bob Ketchner singled between the two base hits to provide the tie making runs.

The 15-round bout will be televised nationally.

Promoter Tommy Moyer, Denney's uncle, predicts a crowd of at least 8,000 will pay upwards of $50,000. Biggest gate in the history of the state was $60,581 for a battle between Harry (Kid) Matthews and Rex Layne, then both heavyweight contenders, a few years back.

While Moyer is unbeaten in 29 professional fights, the belief is that he can win only if the battle goes the distance. While Denney never has gone more than 10 rounds before he is a tip-top shape, but he lacks the punch to get it over with fast. His record shows only four knockouts.

Jordan, a surprise champion who was anything but a tiger until he got champion Virgil Atkins in the ring, has gone 15 rounds in two of his last three outings with Atkins. He is six years older than the challenger.

Jordan never could put a win streak together before he became the champ. He has a record of 45 wins and 10 losses. He has scored 11 knockouts, which indicates he carries a slightly more powerful punch.

No matter how it turns out, Jordan will have a good pay-day. He'll receive a cash guarantee of $25,000. Moyer is supposed to get 15% per cent of the gate, this would leave the promoter in the hole — except that he will get $35,000 from radio and TV rights.

Bevos Down Seattle 3-1; Bragan Gets Booted (Again) For 'Act'

By United Press International
Portland scored two runs in the first inning and another in the seventh to defeat Seattle, 3-1, in their Pacific Coast League baseball game Thursday night in the Puget Sound city. The win left Portland in third place, only 4 1/2 games behind league leading Sacramento.

The Beavers move on today to Vancouver to open a four-game series against the second place Vancouver Mounties.

Top Seeded Players Move To Semi-Finals

PORTLAND (UPI)—Mike Crane of Berkeley, California and Jack Neer of Portland advanced to the semifinals Thursday in the 61st annual state tennis tournament at the Irvington Club here.

Crane, who is seeded number three, and number two seeded Neer won quarterfinal matches to advance into the semifinals action.

Crane defeated Don Stensaaas of Sacramento, 6-2, 6-2 and Dale Rohland of Los Angeles, 2-6, 6-2 and 6-1. Neer gained 6-1 and 6-2 wins over Tom Clark of Portland and defeated Jim Jackson, also of Portland 6-2, 7-5.

Crane tangled with Neer today to gain a position in the Sunday finals.

Top-seeded Doyle Perkins of Seattle, Bill Rose and Clyde Knox both of Portland and Bill Hoogs, Berkeley, gained quarterfinal positions.

Rose, seeded number four, moved into the quarter final round by defeating Jim Flynn of Portland, 6-2, 6-2. Hoogs scored a win over Laury Hunt of Bellevue, Washington with 6-3 and 6-4 decisions. Knox remained in title contention by downing Ellis Williamson of Eureka, California 6-2 and 6-3. Perkins defeated Dave Reed of Los Angeles 3-6, 5-7, 6-3 to keep his title hopes alive.

Perkins met Knox and Rose went against Hoogs in quarterfinal action. The two winners will then tangle in semifinal action on Saturday.

INDIANS BUY "RIVERBOAT"
CLEVELAND (UPI) — The Cleveland Indians have purchased the contract of pitcher Robert "Riverboat" Smith to fill the vacancy left open by the sale of reliever Dick Brodowski to Toronto Wednesday. Smith had a 4-2 record with San Diego of the Pacific Coast League.

After Churn was ejected, Ben Wade came in to pitch and he hit Ray Barker to fill the bases after retiring one batsman. Joe Durham singled to right to drive in two runs. Then more fun began. Joe Frazier walked to load the bases and Phil Paine came in to pitch. Paine got mad when his first pitch to Jim Finigan was called a ball.

Drops Return Throw
He showed his irritation by dropping the return throw from catcher Norm Sherry. Barker raced across the plate with the tying run. The Indians protested the game at that point saying time had been called. Finigan then tripled and the two deciding runs came across.

Bob Perry, who had already homered and singled in a run, drove across the deciding tally of Sacramento's game with San Diego in the 11th inning. Terry Fox was the winner. He's now 6-1, all in relief.

Bob Speake drove in four runs and Willie McCovey, the PCL's leading hitter (.350 plus), got three hits, to pace Phoenix to its blast of Salt Lake. Jose Pagan chipped in with his 16th homer of the year.

Tom Gorman, the first of two Portland pitchers was credited with the win while Bob Mabe was handed the loss.

Bragan took the umpires to task in the seventh inning. Going into that frame, Spokane held a 5-2 lead. Indian pitcher Chuck Churn got the first batter out, but then pinch hitter Wayne Causey singled. When the fourth ball was called on the next batter, Barry Shetrowe, Bragan and Churn moved in for a discussion.

23 Minutes Later
Well, it was 23 minutes before that half inning was completed. Part of the time was devoted to giving Bragan the boot and then it took awhile for the roof to crash in on the Indians.

Churn took over for Bragan in the heckling department after Bobby was tossed and he himself shortly got the boot. After the dust had cleared, Vancouver had five runs and the wherewithal for a 7-5 win.

In other games, Sacramento nipped San Diego 4-3 in 11 innings; Phoenix crushed Salt Lake, 12-6 and Portland defeated Seattle 3-1.

LA Drops Braves To 3rd; Giants Lead

United Press International
Elroy Face is still flyin' high—and Willie Mays is flyin' low again.

Take these facts and toss in a brilliant 11-inning relief performance by Los Angeles' Roger Craig and you have the big reasons teams in the National League first division feel like college kids in a telephone booth.

San Francisco is the new "top dog" with a 47-35 record followed by Los Angeles a half game "down." Milwaukee third one full game behind and Pittsburgh fourth only 3 1/2 games from the leader.

The latest shuffle occurred Thursday when the Giants spoiled Fred Hutchinson's debut with a 3-2 victory over the Cincinnati Reds and the Dodgers knocked the Braves from first to third place with a 4-3 win in 13 innings. The Pirates, coming from behind for the 27th time this season, edged out the Chicago Cubs, 4-3, in 10 innings.

The Chicago White Sox moved to within a game of first place in the American League when they defeated the front-running Cleveland Indians, 4-3, and the Boston Red Sox walloped the New York Yankees, 14-3, to drop the world champions back into fourth place.

Three Twi-Nighters
There also were three twi-night doubleheaders — St. Louis downing Philadelphia, 6-2, after an 11-0 defeat, in the National League and Baltimore beating Washington, 8-0 and 5-0, and Kansas City defeating Detroit, 5-0 and 4-0, in the American League.

Face, Pittsburgh's sensational relief ace, tied a 49-year-old club record when he received credit for his 13th straight victory of the season. The 155-pound right-hander, near goat of Tuesday's All-Star game, yielded a score-tying single to Sam Taylor in the Cubs' ninth but became the winner when pinch-hitter Harry Bright singled home the decisive run in the 10th.

Face's 13-game winning streak is six short of the NL and major league mark set by Rube Marquard in 1912 and his two-year string of 18 straight victories also is six shy of the mark set by Carl Hubbell in 1936-37.

Mays, hero of the All-Star game, opened the ninth inning of a 2-2 tie game with a single and then took off like a guy on a motorcycle. San Francisco's "golden boy" promptly stole second on relief pitcher Tom Acker of the Reds and then scored on Daryl Spencer's infield hit.

Dodgers Tag Spahn
Wally Moon doubled and Rip Repulski singled to give the Dodgers the run that tagged Milwaukee's Warren Spahn with his ninth loss and dumped the Braves into third place. Roger Craig, taking over in the third inning, shut out the Braves on three hits for the last 11 innings.

Jim Landis drove in three runs with a two-run single and a sacrifice fly and Bubba Phillips, homered for the White Sox who beat the Indians for the ninth time in 13 meetings.

Bobby Avila knocked in four runs with two homers and a single and Ted Williams drove in three with a homer and a double to lead a 14-hit Boston attack that totaled 30 bases.

Gene Conley pitched a seven-hitter for his third shutout and Gene Freese hit his third grand slam of the season to lead the Phillies' 17-hit attack in their first game but the Cardinals earned a split on the seven-hit hurling of Larry Jackson.

Milt Pappas pitched a seven-hitter and Jerry Walker a four-hitter as the 20-year-old right-handers gave the Orioles a sweep of the Senators and undisputed possession of third place in the American League.

Arcaro Returns To Riding After Injury
NEW YORK (UPI) — Veteran jockey Eddie Arcaro, completely recovered from injuries suffered in a near-fatal fall during the running of the Belmont Stakes, was scheduled to return to the saddle today with four mounts at Belmont Park.

Arcaro, 43, was hospitalized for a week with a concussion and back bruising when Black Hills fell while making a bid for the big money.

The Rockville Center, N.Y., master stakes rider will pilot Elliott's Jewel in the third race as a starter. Arcaro will also be aboard Check Artist in the fourth, Warhead in the featured $7,500 Plum Island purse and Victory II in the seventh race.

Arcaro, elected to the National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame last year, will ride the Irishman in the $25,000 Saranack Handicap Saturday, windup feature of the current Belmont Park meeting.

BOULMETIS SCORES TRIPLE
OCEANPORT, N. J. (UPI) — Sammy Boulmetis scored a triple at Monmouth Park Thursday that included Isendu ($40) in the feature race. His other victories were aboard Turan ($15.00) and Mommy Dear ($6.00).

Americans Are Defeated In Doubles Match

BAASTAD, Sweden (UPI) — American concern about defense of Tennis' Davis Cup increased today as a result of another loss pinned on the top U.S. doubles team of Alex Olmedo and Barry MacKay.

Olmedo and MacKay, who bowed in an early round during the recent Wimbledon championships, fell again in the semi-final round of men's doubles in the Baastad international tennis tournament Thursday when they lost to the Swedish team of Sven Davidson and Torsten Jonasson, 1-6, 13-12, 9-7, 6-3.

The match required two hours and 40 minutes but the Swedes gained the upper hand when they finally took the marathon second set after six times reaching set point in the 28th game. MacKay, off his game here after going to the men's singles semi-finals at Wimbledon, once again was erratic.

Olmedo, obviously cruising easily to save his energy on one of the hottest days of the year here, won his men's singles quarter-final Thursday over 19-year-old Thomas Hallberg of Sweden, 5-7, 6-2, 6-1, 6-1.
