FRED DANZIG SAYS: Someday The Cops Will Tell Her To Stay Out. There is the inevitable fight-in that square circle, as we say—between Calhoun and Dante. Of course, Calhoun could kante the lad but, like a good manager, whispers advice and carries him to a decision. After winning, Calhoun again reverts to the manager and patches up the cuts he inflicted upon Dante's outside while Miss Rule floats into the locker room from her neutral corner to smile benignly upon both men and heal their internal wounds.
