FRED DANZIG SAYS:

Andy Williams Show Best Of Current Summer TV

By FRED DANZIG
UPI Staff Writer

NEW YORK (UPI)—Summer TV has shown us just about all it has to offer, I guess, so this is as good a time as any to vote for "best" of the season.

My vote goes to the Andy Williams Show on CBS-TV. With two shows gone, it is clear that Andy has a show that is as informal as Brigitte Bardot's last beach party. Also, it is fresh. It swings. It experiments.

Tuesday night, for example, a successful experiment involved an Americanized version of a Japanese kabuki dance, in which Miyoshi Umeki sang, "They Can't Take That Away From Me."

Not experimental but charming nonetheless was Andy's duet with Miss Umeki in "Getting To Know You." The comedy highlight, to my mind, was the brief bit by mimic Frank Gorshin in the role of Boris Karloff playing opposite a recording of Sir Cedric Hardwicke in Ibsen's "Enemy of the People."

Actually, the show is two shows in one. Andy features "The World

CO-STARS—Rock Hudson and Jean Simmons are in Universal-International's production of "This Earth Is Mine."

Rock Hudson Stars In Film At Granada

Lovers of antique cars will have a rare time watching them in "This Earth of Mine," saga of a California dynasty, which opens at the Granada Wednesday.

In Cinemascope and Technicolor, the picture stars Rock Hudson, Jean Simmons, Dorothy McGuire and Claude Rains.

Among the vintage cars which will be seen rolling over the dirt roads of the lush grape country are a 1930 Packard Phaeton, scores of model A Fords, a Durant, an Auburn, a Studebaker "Dietator", and a 1925 Rolls Royce.

There's also the famous Horch sports car which Rock Hudson drives that was once owned by Adolph Hitler and is now the property of King-of-the-Road Museum.

Henry King, director of "This Earth Is Mine," drove locomotives, then Stanley Steamers.

Ronald Colman favored a chauffeur-driven Pierce Arrow limousine, Charles Chaplin a maroon Harmon with white wire wheels, and Gloria Swanson an aircooled Franklin.

500,000 Visitors For Centennial

PORTLAND (UPI)—The Oregon Centennial Exposition had its 500,000th visitor Tuesday.

A 3-year-old blonde from Salt Lake City, Cristine Wangsgard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd E. Wangsgard, passed through the turnstiles at the half-million mark.

The family passed through the main gate at 6:30 p.m. with two other daughters, Diane, 1, and Lynda, 3.

The Wangsgards were given a special reception that included a free dinner at the Centennial restaurant, tickets to the Roy Rogers show, Frontier town and rides on the Gaway.

Wangsgard is a tax specialist with Pacific Northwest Pipeline Company. Said Mrs. Wangsgard: "It's the first time we ever got anything free in our lives."

McKay Reported In Fair Condition

SALEM (UPI)—Former Oregon governor Douglas McKay today was reported in "fairly good condition" at Salem General Hospital. He is recovering from a recurrence of a heart ailment suffered earlier this week.

Attendants said the 66-year-old former secretary of the interior spent a good night. He is still confined to an oxygen tent most of the time.

McKay is chairman of the U.S. section of the International Joint Commission which deals with water problems between Canada and the U.S.

Cottage Grove Movie Theatres Purchased

Jones Enterprises Incorporated, a firm that owns a chain of movie theatres in Oregon, and who are associated with Francis Gruelich and the La Grande theatres, have purchased the Arcade theater and Argo drive-in at Cottage Grove.

Stanley Daugherty, who owned the two movie houses and another, the Diane, made the announcement.

The Jones firm also owns theaters in Eugene, Coos Bay, Bend, and other cities.

ORBITING MISSILES

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (UPI)—The Army Ballistic Missile Agency said today Explorer I, the United States' first earth satellite, would continue to orbit until August, 1962. The agency said latest estimates also show Explorer IV, the second Army satellite still orbiting, will re-enter the earth's atmosphere in September and burn up.
