Wagon Cavalcade Arrives Tuesday In Home State

BOISE (UPI) - The On-to-Ore on wagon train left here today for a trip to Caldwell about 20 miles away. The train camped here over the weekend.

Hundreds of Boiseans went out to the train's campground about 10 miles from the city Sunday, creating a traffic jam and forcing state police and sheriff's officers to send extra cars to direct congested traffic.

The wagon train, which is mak-ing the 2,020-mile trip during the Oregon Centennial year, will end journey at Independence, Ore . after stops at cities along the Oregon trail. The wagon train is due in its home state at Nyssa about noon Tuesday. It will be met there by state officials, including Secretary of State Howell Appling and Centennial Commission Chairman Anthony Brandenthaler.
