

Dodgers Dump Giants 3-2 For Money And Revenge

United Press International
The Dodgers are looking to louse up the Giants again and this time they have two of the strongest motives in the world—money and revenge.

Like all ball players, the Dodgers can count and most of them already have done some mental arithmetic as to how much a single share would come to if the World Series is played in Los Angeles' mammoth Coliseum this fall.

There's little question that a World Series involving the Dodgers would set an all-time record for players' share, eclipsing the current mark established during the 1954 World Series between the Giants and Indians in which a winning share came to $11,147.90 and a losing share was worth $6,712.50.

The North drew first blood in the opening stanza on a solo home run by George Freese of Portland. The South overcame lead in their half of the inning on singles by Carlos Bernier and Willie McCreary, a wild pitch and a rib single by Krsnich.

The Southers drew ahead to stay in the third off Roger Fred Besana of Vancouver. Salt Lake City outfielder Sam Miley added an insurance run in the eighth with a home run.

The South collected 12 hits off four pitchers, while using four hurlers and allowing only eight safeties.

Matter of Revenge

Then there's a little matter of revenge, too. Last year, the Giants contributed most to the Dodgers' sorry seventh place finish by beating them 16 out of 22 times. This year, though, things are a bit different.

The Dodgers scored their eighth victory in 15 games with the Giants so far when they defeated them, 3-2, Monday to climb within 1 1/2 games of the pace-setting San Franciscans.

The Cardinals blanked the Cubs, 2-0, in the only other National League game scheduled. All teams in the American League were idle.

Drysdale Wins 12th

Don Drysdale yielded only four hits — the same number as Antonelli — in posting his 12th victory against six losses. The big Los Angeles right-hander also struck out seven to increase his major league-leading total to 154.

Hookie Ernie Broglio pitched St. Louis into a fifth-place tie with Chicago by shutting out the Cubs on nine hits. Broglio struck out seven men and walked only two while registering his fourth victory and the fourth in a row for the upcoming Cardinals.

Glen Hobbie, who lost his eighth game against 10 victories, held the Cards scoreless until the seventh inning when they tallied both their runs on an error by Tony Taylor and successive singles by Bill White, Ken Boyer and Gino Cimoli.

NINE IS WINNING NUMBER IN LITTLE LEAGUE ACTION

Monday's Results:
Van Petten's 9 Jr. Old Timers 7
Bohnenkamp's 9 Laurence's 8
Dodgers 1 Tigers 0 (forfeit)

Nine was the lucky number in little league action last night as both Van Petten's and Bohnenkamp's captured close games.

Dave Cash and Dan Young put on the season's best pitching exhibition before the Lumberjacks squeezed out the win.

Cash, who got the win, struck out 14 batters and walked only two while Young was picking up 13 strikeouts and walking four.

Van Petten's jumped into a one run lead in the first inning after Cash had walked, stolen second, went to third on a passed ball and scored on Lyle Master's fly ball to first.

The Jr. Old Timers came back with two runs of their own in the first. Steve Malone walked and Young picked on one of Cash's pitches and parked it way out in right field.

The Lumberjacks tied the game in the third after Steve Wendel was safe on an error. Cash doubled to drive in the run. Another run in the fourth put Van Petten's ahead 3-2. Ward was hit by the pitcher and went to second on an error. Rich Borine's single drove in the run.

The Jr. Old Timers went back into the lead in the fourth when three singles produced two runs. Young singled, Craig Leonard singled and went to second when the right fielder made an error. Miller's single then scored two runs.

Van Petten's cinched the game in the fifth with a six run burst. Five errors, two walks, a hit batter and a single by Cash accounted for all the runs.

The Jr. Old Timers, down but not out, responded with a three run inning. Malone led off with a home run. Young was safe on an error and Gary Gurrard was hit by the pitcher. Two errors by the Lumberjack shortstop accounted for the other two runs.

Dean Draper was safe on an error as the first man up for Bohnenkamp's in the first. Joey Talbott walked and Clark was hit by the pitcher to load the bases. Ingerson was safe on a fielder's choice with the run scoring. Dave Beckel's ground ball was bobbled by the third baseman and two runs came across for a 3-0 lead.

With two outs in the second the Grims tied the game on Mark Vaughn's homer. Don Marx and Gene Lovely both walked before Vaughn poked his blast far into the outfield.

Bohenkamp's picked up five more runs in the third. 'Inky' Ingerson walked and Snyder also drew a base on balls. Beckel then unleashed a two run producing triple. Beckel scored the third run of the inning when Miller was safe on an error. Draper, Talbott and Elder then put together three singles for two more runs.

Laurence's picked up a single run in the fourth before their four-run game-tying burst in the sixth. Lovely doubled before successive walks to Vaughn, Wayne Kaen and Mark Deatheridge produced one run. Bever walked to force another run across and Herkie Maldonado singled for a pair of RBIs.

Both teams went scoreless in the seventh but Talbott opened the Bohnenkamp eighth with a single. He advanced to second as Elder grounded out to second. Vaughn then made an error on

Rocky Graziano Hit In Literary World

By OSCAR FRALEY
UPI Staff Writer

NEW YORK (UPI) — The hot news in the literary world today is that Rocky Graziano — ex-middleweight champion, actor, performer in teevie "commo-shals," golf hacker and bum vivant — has turned author.

There was a rumor awhile back that Rocky had written a book which eventually wound up in a movie called "Somebody Up There Likes Me." The fallacy was that words crept in which they never taught in the Rock's type of finishing school.

Archie Moore Rushes To Stricken Wife

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI) — Boxer Archie Moore sped to the bedside of his stricken wife today, interrupting training again for his return match with Yvon Durelle.

Mrs. Joan Moore underwent a four-hour operation Monday night for a mastoid infection. No details were available on her condition or the success of the operation.

But earlier, the hospital said she was in serious condition.

Dr. Kenneth Cales called Moore home from Montreal, telling him his wife's life "is at stake."

Cales has been treating Mrs. Moore for the past 10 days and had tentatively set surgery for Tuesday. But early Monday, she took a turn for the worse, and he ordered her to surgery immediately.

"This is the worst thing that could happen," Moore told friends here by telephone before he flew from Montreal. "This is terrible. I've got to do right by my wife. It's no tough decision for me. I must be at my wife's side. If necessary, they'll have to set the fight back, there's no alternative but another postponement."

A decision on whether to set the rematch back is expected today. Manager Jack Kearns said he would talk to Archie before making any decision.

Mrs. Moore was admitted to the hospital early Monday morning. She was taken to surgery at 9:30 p.m. e.d.t. following a series of X rays.

Moore, the patriarch of boxing and light-heavyweight champion, asked for a two-week delay in the rematch with the young French Canadian.

Gomes Win World Title

EAST PROVIDENCE, R.I. (UPI) — "I just had more eagerness than Jorgensen."

That was the way 25-year-old Harold Gomes of Providence explained his phenomenal victory over Paul Jorgensen of Fort Arthur, Tex., Monday night in winning the world's junior lightweight championship.

Gomes, who was decked four times by the 24-year-old Jorgensen, was declared the winner by unanimous decision after a rough and tough brawl in which Jorgensen was cautioned repeatedly for throwing low blows.

"I'll meet him anywhere," said Gomes in his dressing room after the 15-round bout at Pierce Memorial Stadium. "And as far as those three knockdowns in the 11th round go, I think my head was pretty clear. As soon as I came back to my corner, I was ok."

Gomes, who forced the fight throughout, with good use of a right-left combination, had beaten Jorgensen previously at Miami, Fla. He termed the battle "the fight of all fights." He also glossed over his knockdown in the 15th round, saying that "I wanted to knock Jorgensen out."

Jorgensen said that he "never was tired but I ran out of gas in the 11th," the round in which he decked Gomes three times for eight counts.

He said he thought he "had Gomes in the 11th, but I guess he was much faster than me tonight." He said he'd "like to try Gomes in Texas."

The highly partisan crowd of 3,437 witnessed its first championship bout in Rhode Island since 1943. The fight marked the renewal of activity in the junior lightweight class.

Australia Nets Davis Cup Win

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—Victory over Mexico means that Australia has a "good chance to recover the Davis Cup," non-playing captain Harry Hopman of the Aussies said today.

Australia, starting its drive to regain the cup it lost to the United States last December, wrapped up a 4-1 triumph over Mexico in the first round of American Zone eliminations Monday on a pair of five-set singles wins by Rod Laver and Roy Emerson.

The red-haired Laver, surprise finalist at Wimbledon this year, supplied the clincher for the Aussies but had to come from behind to notch a 6-3, 6-8, 4-6, 7-5, 6-3 victory over Mexican champion Antonio Palafox.

That gave the Aussies an unbeatable 3-1 lead in the best-of-five series so Emerson, making his singles debut in cup play, was given the final singles assignment instead of southpaw ace Neale Fraser. Emerson made good by downing Mexican veteran Mario Llamas, 6-4, 6-2, 4-6, 4-6, 6-0.

"I said before that Mexico was our big obstacle," said Hopman, guiding genius of Aussie cup teams for many years. "Now that they have been eliminated, I believe we have a good chance to recover the Davis Cup."
