Will Be Seen How Kassem himself will be judged still remained to be seen. That he remained alive and in office after a year of plots and counter-plots was in itself no mean accomplishment. More time against him.

Reply For Hecklers

Now he was commemorating his revolution and he had his standwith the end result that "the people will be governed by them selves."

He announced a step in that direction when he said political life in Iraq would be restored within the next year and a newly elected parliament established by July 14.

Dated and first published July 9, by the now-dead King Faisal and his premier, Nuri-Es-Said.

It was a scheme which called for new, broad boulevards, for village projects to augment peasant incomes, for factories, dams and irrigation.
