

Kids Parade Entrants Are All Ages, Variety Of Floats For Special Elgin Stampede

With some entrants so small they "even have to be helped up small inclines on their trikes," according to Stub Krause, chairman of the event, the annual Kid parade will get underway from the City hall grounds in Elgin at 10 a.m. Saturday morning.

Krause, who has been the chairman of the parade ever since it was inaugurated about six years ago, said that they have even had entries under a year old.

The event that started as an added attraction to the Saturday rodeo can now call itself a "featured Event" rather than an added attraction since there has been over 100 entrants in the parade for the past several years.

No age limit is ever set and contestants range in age from toddlers to sub-teens.

Of course, prize ribbons are the order of the day and awards are given for the best decorated bicycle, best float, best comics, best pets, and best tricycles which include everything small.

Under the general heading of Best Entry, an award is given out to the all-around best contestant. The winner of this prize may have been the winner in another lower division, but this is not necessary to win the big prize.

There are usually several young girls and grown-ups on hand to give the kids a helping hand along the parade route. Carl Long, Carol Crozier, and Donna Follett have helped for several years in this capacity.

Entrants are usually from the Elgin area, and there are occasionally a few entries from Summerville and Imbler.

Floats and other entries are judged both before and during the parade. They are judged on general appearance alone.

River Lowering To Find Body Is Unsuccessful

UMATILLA (UPI) — An all-out search including the lowering of the Columbia river for Janie Campbell, 4, Umatilla, who drowned here Tuesday with an older sister, was unsuccessful late Wednesday.

The Umatilla county sheriff's office called off the general hunt that included 16 boats, four airplanes, and three skindivers but a foot search including a number of volunteers continued.

The Army Corps of Engineers lowered the level of the Columbia about three feet by cutting off the flow at McNary dam but restored the river to its regular level Wednesday evening.

Janie's sister, Frances, 9 drowned trying to save the younger girl who had waded into deep water. Both were swept away.

David Niven Stars In Film At Granada

Shirley MacLaine co-stars with Academy Award - winner David Niven and Gig Young in MGM's "Ask Any Girl" playing tonight through Saturday at the Granada Theatre.

Shirley is so much in demand by producers and major studios that she has been reading as many as twelve scripts a week in order to decide what her future movie roles will be.

"Ask Any Girl" is the perfect follow-up to "Some Came Running", Shirley says. "I play an innocent girl from Wilkes-Barre who comes to New York in search of a career or a husband—or both. Although the picture is played for humor, it does tell the story of the many young working girls in New York and the problems they face with the lack of eligible males in a big city."

"The most important thing to me, career-wise is that I hope I have proven that I can play a variety of types. Versatility spells durability in this business and I hope to be around long enough to play grandmother roles."

Murder Case Goes To Jury

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—The first degree murder case of an Illinois couple accused of killing two small boys because they were "a bother" goes to a jury of six men and six women today.

Mrs. Wanda Brogdon, 33, mother of the slain boys, and her lover, Kenneth Merriam, 36, face mandatory sentences of death in the gas chamber or life imprisonment if convicted.

"We have overwhelming proof proved first degree murder," Deputy District Attorney Mac Lovett told the jury in closing arguments Wednesday. "If you compromise you will be compromising one of the most vicious murders in the county."

Mrs. Brogdon's attorney appealed for leniency for his client, claiming she was unaware Merriam intended to strangle her sons, Virgil Jr., 5, and David, 3, last May 2. Merriam's attorney made the same appeal, but charged that Merriam was merely "a tool in the hands of his mistress, Mrs. Brogdon."

"GRAMMY" AWARDS
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences announced Sunday that its hour-long "Grammy" awards program honoring members of the recording industry will be televised in color Nov. 29 from Hollywood and New York.
