Robert F. Kennedy, chief counsel to the Senate Rackets Committee, appearing on NBC's Meet The Press immediately following Hoffa's appearance, said he believed the CBS panel had agreed not to ask Hoffa any personal questions. This brought from Ted Ayres, producer of the CBS-TV show, the following resigned: "Ridiculous; there was no such agreement" Kennedy also was asked how he felt about Hoffa's threat to sue for libel because of Kennedy's comments on
