Tuesday's Results
Van Petten's 19
Hi Way Cafe 3
Bohnenkamp's 12 Falk's 5
Tigers 1 Cardinals 0 (Forfeit)

Van Petten's and Bohnenkamp's pounded out lopsided wins in Tuesday's little league action while the Cardinals were forfeiting their second game of the season to the Tigers.

Hi-way Cafe jumped into a one run lead in the first that lasted only till the bottom of the inning. Wes Allen and Jeff Kachau walked for the Chowhounds before Dave Huntsman poked a single to score Allen.

The lumberjacks came back in the bottom of the inning to score 10 runs and easily capture the game.

Bill DeLashmatt opened for Van Petten's with a single, the first of three hits he was to get during the night. Dave Cash and Larry Masters were safe on errors with DeLashmatt scoring. Jim Lilly cracked out a single to score Cash before Frank Thomas was safe on an error. Larry Magauson punched a single into the outfield and Doug Ward and John Bartron walked. DeLashmatt, with the bases loaded, smacked a ball out of the park to account for four of the 10 runs.

Van Petten's scored twice in the third. After Allen walked, Dave Huntsman picked on a pitch and rode it out of the park.

Six more runs crossed the plate in the fourth. Four straight walks capped by Master's home run did most of the damage.

Huntsman picked up the loss with 10 strikeouts while Cash got the win while fanning five.

Bohenkamp's had to come from behind to catch Falk's before they won 12-5. Both teams went scoreless in the first inning.

Falk's came to bat in the second and two home runs accounted for three runs. Billy Spence smacked a solo blast off winning pitcher Ron Loveless. Mike McShane was safe on an error at first and Frizzell blasted another pitch out of the park.

Bohenkamp's came back in the bottom of the inning to pick up a pair of runs. Joey Talbot doubled and Roban doubled to score Talbot. Roban advanced to third and scored when Loveless's ground ball was bobbled at second.

Falk's got the two runs back in the top of the third. Miller and Spence scoring to make it 5-2.

Draper opened Bohnenkamp's five run third with a single. Clark was safe on an error and Hyde's single scored Draper. Roban and Beckel were safe on errors and both scored to send Bohnenkamp's ahead 7-5.

Bohenkamp's picked up five more runs in the fifth on hits by Talbot, Beckel, Lovelace, Ingerson and Clark.

Talbot got the win fanning five Falk batters and Spence was the loser with seven strikeouts.

The Tigers got a 1-0 win from the Cardinals in a game that was forfeited.

Archers At Halfway In Tournament

BEND (UPI) — Carl Heinrich, Richmond, Mich., was first in the men's instinctive division with 1,360 points at the halfway mark Tuesday in the National Field Archery Tournament at Fall River Lodge near here.

Defending champion Lon Stanton of Lake Ozark, Mo., had 1,327. The Tourney finals are Thursday.

Other midway leaders included James Casper in the men's free style. The Racine, Wis., shooter had 1,550. Oregon State titlist Bill DeSalles, Portland, was in sixth place with 1,426.

Women Leaders

Faye Sconyers, Modesto, Calif., led the women's instinctive division with 1,092. Defending champion Jo McCubbins of Santa Ana, Calif., was third with 999.

In the women's free style Cleo Roberson of Sanaria, Mich., was leading with 1,273.

Field round winners Tuesday morning included eight record-breakers. They included: Men's instinctive, Heinrich, 938; men's free style, Robert J. Kadlec, Rochester, Minn., 992; women's instinctive, Sconyers, 729; women's free style, Roberson, 844; men's heavy tackle, James Palmer, Dansville, N. Y., 869; women's heavy tackle, Anna Van Dolson, Vallejo, Calif., 524.

Junior Leaders

Intermediate boy's instinctive, Jim Mittler, St. Louis, Mo., 825; Intermediate boys' free style, Lee Schultz, Niagara Falls, N.Y., 576; intermediate girls' free style, Sheryl Baxter, Klamath Falls, 544; intermediate girls' instinctive, Peggy Jean Schroder, Tucson, Ariz., 596.

Junior boys' instinctive, Larry Mann, Brockway, Pa., 963; junior boys' free style, Walter Barr, Astoria, 573; junior girls' instinctive, Kitty Neve, Renton, Wash., 490; junior girls' free style, Nyla Mullins, Portland, 530.

The hunters' round started Tuesday afternoon and was scheduled to be concluded today.

Musial, Williams To Start Second All-Star Game

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Stan Musial and Ted Williams, almost fixtures in All-Star play, will be the starting lineups for Monday's second All-Star game.

Rival managers Casey Stengel and Fred Haney Tuesday bowed to the wishes of Southern California sports editors in naming the two perennial favorites to starting roles.

The sports writers wired the managers: "Being well aware of your full knowledge of the Southern California sports public, we suggest that those two great showmen, Fred Haney and Casey Stengel, make every effort to use Stan Musial and Ted Williams in their respective starting lineups for the All-Star game here Aug. 3. Musial has appeared in 16 All-Star games and Williams in 15 and they have started against each other six times."

"This may be their last chance to start against each other."

In the first All-Star game this year in Pittsburgh, Musial appeared as a pinch hitter and popped out. Williams, also appearing as a pinch hitter, drew a walk.

The network will continue its policy of blacking out the game in the city where it is being played. There will be as many as six league contests televised simultaneously on regional networks throughout the nation.

Hitless White Sox Make One Run Go A Long Way; Back To First

United Press International
 The White Sox aren't the hitless wonders of long ago but they still make one run go a long way.

They've scored fewer runs than any other American League team in first place by a half-game today because their pitching and defense won the close ones.

They're streaking now with six wins in their last seven games—and five of the victories were by one run. What's more they've compiled a 24-5 mark in one-run games and are only 14 shy of the AL record for one-run victories in a single season.

Indians Drop To Second
 The Cleveland Indians slipped back into second place when they lost, 6-4, after beating the Boston

Red Sox, 5-2, the Kansas City A's stretched their winning streak to a major league season high of nine by beating the Washington Senators, 6-1, and the Detroit Tigers defeated the Orioles, 8-3, in other AL games.

The Los Angeles Dodgers climbed within a half-game of the National League lead when they beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 9-4, and the Philadelphia Phillies shamed the San Francisco Giants, 3-2. The Chicago Cubs nipped the Milwaukee Braves, 5-4, and the Cincinnati Reds defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-4.

Gary Bell pitched a six-hitter and Jim Baxes hit his 13th homer for the Indians in their opener but then homers by Frank Malone and Pete Runnels led the Red Sox to their nightcap victory.

Kucks Throws 5-Hitter
 The Athletics went past the Yankees into fourth place only a half game behind the Orioles behind the five-hit pitching of Johnny Kucks.

Don Mossi pitched a three-hitter to win his ninth game for the Tigers who racked up Hoyt Wilhelm for six runs in 2 1/3 innings. Neil Chrisley homered for Detroit.

The Dodgers dealt the Pirates their eighth straight setback with an 11-hit attack that featured a homer and double by Wally Moon in addition to doubles by Norm Larker and Don Demeter.

Gene Freese's eighth-inning homer produced the Phillies' seventh win in eight games as Jim Owens pitched a four-hitter and struck out seven Giants.

George Altman singled home the winning run in the sixth inning as the Cubs snapped the Braves' five-game winning streak.

Roy McMillan, back in the starting lineup for the first time since June 14, singled home the winning run in the eighth inning after the Red's overcame St. Louis' early lead by scoring four runs in the seventh.

Pro Golfers Blast Hogan For Not Playing In PGA

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI)—His fellow pros were throwing rocks at Ben Hogan again today.

They feel he should be playing in his own organization's tournament now that the 41st annual PGA championship starting here Thursday is a one-round-a-day event. They argue, loudly, that he owes the PGA a debt of gratitude for giving him the chance to become famous in golf.

And they are extremely bitter that he turned down a personal appeal to lend the magic of his name to help rebuild the prestige of a tournament which for several years has been hanging on the financial ropes.

"We asked him to play here as a matter of business," commented one PGA official. "Sure, we need his name at the gate. But he told us he doesn't play from the U.S. Open until January and also that he was busy re-styling his clubs."

Too Busy for Debt?
 "How busy can you be?" he asked heatedly. "Too busy to pay off a debt of gratitude? Too busy, when you're in the business of selling clubs to golf pros only, to come here for the profession's financial ropes?"

Three Titles Since Accident
 Since his accident, Hogan has come on to win three more U.S. Open championships for a total of four which ties the record held by Willie Anderson and Bobby Jones. Now he plays not only in the Open — shooting for a record fifth — but also in the Masters and the Colonial Invitational.

"I can understand him wanting and trying for a record fifth in the Open," says Wally Mundt, former PGA vice president. "But if he can play in the Masters and the Colonial, I, for one, can't understand why he passes up the PGA. We are hoping that he would come here. We need him."

"And he shouldn't forget," Mundt added grimly, "that he needs us. He sells his clubs through the pro shops only. Well, there is such a thing as reciprocity — and it works two ways."

The PGA championship does need Hogan as an attraction. There are all too few colorful pros today, primarily because for years the PGA has failed to build up its players.

In the old days, Fred Corcoran, now tournament manager of the International Golf Assn., made a career of publicizing and building up the players. After he left, the PGA coasted publicity-wise and a faded old guard is passing on — leaving good players but most of them "unknowns" without attraction value.

NFL Games Return To TV In Sept.

NEW YORK (UPI)—The regular season games of the 12 National Football League clubs again will be televised this fall by the Columbia Broadcasting System.

The New York Giants-Los Angeles Rams night game of Sept. 26 at Los Angeles inaugurates the network's fourth straight year of telecasting pro football games.

The 1959 schedule includes 66 games—62 Sunday afternoon contests, two Saturday afternoon clashes, the traditional Detroit Lions-Green Bay Packers Thanksgiving Day and the opening Saturday night encounter between the Giants and Rams.

The network will continue its policy of blacking out the game in the city where it is being played. There will be as many as six league contests televised simultaneously on regional networks throughout the nation.

Collegiate Loop OK's Oregon Tech

ASHLAND (UPI) — Presidents of member schools in the Oregon Collegiate Conference have okayed a report submitted by Oregon Technical Institute dealing with the school's elimination of athletic eligibility possibilities in the future.

Last fall the conference voted to censure OTI after player ineligibility was reported.

A resolution was adopted unanimously by the presidents commending Dr. Winston Purvine, OTI president, for progress since the difficulty last fall.

HARTACK STRETCHES LEAD

OCEANPORT, N. J. (UPI) — Jockey Willie Hartack increased his Monmouth Park riding lead to 52 Tuesday when he booted home four winners. Hartack's victories were aboard Wes Proud, Good Broom, Steve W. and Wing Again.

Bevos Down Solons; Mounties Take Lead Spokane

United Press International
 Portland exploded for six hits and six runs in the second inning Tuesday night as the Beavers belted the Sacramento Solons 7-3 behind the six-hit pitching of Art Houtteman. Portland continued in third place, only 2 games out of first place.

The second inning rally was highlighted by a two-run homer off the bat of George Freese.

Jim Greengrass socked his 18th homer of the year and Bob DiPietro hit his 10th with no one aboard in the same frame.

Portland got 14 hits off four Sacramento flingers. The loss went to Winston Brown, his 11th of the season against nine wins.

Houtteman, in gaining his fifth win in nine decisions, was making his first start since June 27. He has lately ben used mainly in relief.

The Phoenix Giants may be roaring to a new home run record in the Pacific Coast League but they are fast learning it is not by homers alone that you win ball games.

The Giants cracked five four-masters Tuesday night. It hardly did them any good. They got beat 9-8 by Vancouver, which didn't get a one out of the park.

The win moved Vancouver back into first place by a full game over Sacramento, which was beaten by Portland, 7-1. Spokane defeated Salt Lake, 6-2 and San Diego nipped Seattle, 2-1, in other games.

The Giants have now hit 11 homers in their last three games, one of which they've won.

Johnson Wins Own Game
 Vancouver clipped five Phoenix hurlers for 15 hits in the fray. A three-run rally in the top of the ninth won it for the Mounties and gave Connie Johnson, the third of five Vancouver pitchers, the win. Johnson singled home the winning run.

Bob Speake hit a pair of homers for the Giants while Owen Friend, Sal Taormina and Roger McCordell also hit for the circuit.

Bill Werle, who veteran PCL fans will remember fogging them up for San Francisco back in 1942, pitched San Diego to its 2-1 win over Seattle. He got brilliant fielding support and Russ Heman tossed the final two frames for the Padres. It was Werle's third win against two losses. Bill Renna doubled home one run for the Pads in the second inning and scored the other in the same frame.

Indians Ruin Pitching Duel
 Spokane dropped Salt Lake three games behind Vancouver as it erupted for five runs in the eighth inning to break up a fine pitching duel between Salt Lake's George Perez and Spokane's Chuck Churn. Winner Churn, a 27-year-old righthander, is now 10-2. Frank Howard hit his eighth homer for Spokane.

Flyweights To Tangle On TV

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—Unheralded young Solomon Boysaw could prove a real "spoiler" tonight when he meets third-ranked flyweight Flash Elorde in a nationally televised 10-round bout at the Cleveland Arena.

Elorde, who is in line for a flyweight championship fight, will be going out of his weight class to meet the undefeated Cleveland lightweight.

Boysaw, 26, son of a Cleveland preacher, has never been on the canvas in his budding ring career. He has a record of 20 victories and one draw since turning pro in 1956.

Boysaw's list of victims includes Lulu Perez and Eddie Perkins. Elorde, 24, is the lightweight and featherweight king of the Orient. He has beaten several top ranked fighters in compiling a slate of 46 victories, 15 defeats and two draws.

The bout was hastily scheduled as a substitute for the postponed Archie Moore-Yvon Durelle light heavyweight championship fight. That bout was rescheduled for Aug. 12.

BOSSOX JUGGLE ROSTER

CLEVELAND (UPI)—The Boston Red Sox shipped utility infielder Herb Plews to Minneapolis of the American Assn. and released pitcher Murray Wall today to make room for two newcomers. In an attempt to strengthen their lineup, the Red Sox have called up pitcher Earl Wilson and shortstop Jim Mahoney from Minneapolis.
