

Farnam's Grab 7-6 Little League Win In Only Action

Wednesday's Results
Farnam's 7 Hand Ford 6
Eldridge-VFW (game will be made up later)
Tigers 1 Dodgers 0 (forefeit)
 Farnam's edged by the Hand Ford little league team in the night's only action. The Tigers won their second straight game by forfeit from the Dodgers and Eldridge's and VFW will make up their game later in the season.

 Farnam's jumped into a three run lead in the bottom of the first inning and led all the way in dumping the Hand Ford 7-6. Eckel walked and went to third on Joe Jackman's single. Hunter walked to load the bases and Gary Sims' single drove in two runs.

 Sidon walked to load the bases again and Sims scored on the error when the second baseman booted Roger Worriell's ground ball.
 The Fordmen made the score 3-1 in the top of the second. Hal Carman was safe on an error at third. He stole second and went to second on a ground out. Carman came home when W. Berry booted out pitcher to first.
 Farnam's and Hand swapped four run fourths. Hand went ahead in the top of the inning on Carman's home run with the bases full.
 Dave Shrum was safe on an error and Terry Bickel beat out a bunt. John Piper walked to fill the bases and Carman unloaded a roundtripper.
 Farnam's came back to make it a 7-5 game in the bottom of the inning. Tim Craig walked and Sims and Cal Scott were both safe on errors.
 Worriell matched Carman's home run with a blast of his own that scored four runs.
 Hand scored a single run in the fifth. After Carman had singled and stole second and third he scored on Worriell's single to left.
 Winning pitcher Craig struck out 10 batters while loser Piper fanned 13 batters.
 Vacations and work have forced postponement of the Eldridge-VFW game and caused the Dodgers to forfeit their game to the Tigers. It was the Tigers second straight forfeit win and moved them into first place in the Elk's league.

TOP AFTERNOON KEGLERS
 Lois Ferguson, Rosemary Teuscher, and Echo Stegrist, known in bowling alleys as the Gutter Gang topped the Wednesday afternoon bowling league during summer action. Trophies will be awarded to the winning team and individual trophies presented at a banquet Wednesday night. (Observer photo)

LA Climbs To Top; Stop Pirates 2-0

United Press International
 It was a tough fight, but the Dodgers finally made it to the top of the heap with the aid of Roger (Skinny) Craig, who has put them in line for the fattest World Series payoff ever.
 Craig, a sore-armed case no one would've given a plugged nickel for three months ago, pitched the Dodgers into first place for the first time since May 12th by beating the Pirates, 2-0, Wednesday night.
 The victory had the Dodgers rubbing their hands on a number of counts.

Primarily, of course, it brought them visions of a World Series which could mean as much perhaps as $15,000 per man. Then, too, it meant that the six-foot-four, 189-pound Craig could be counted on as a key man in the stretch run.
Craig Fans Seven
 Craig, whose combined won-lost total with Los Angeles and St. Paul was 7-18 last year, struck out seven Pittsburgh batters and allowed only six hits in fashioning his sixth victory last night against only two losses.
 Until the eighth inning, Craig and Vern Law both pitched scoreless ball. Then the Dodgers scored both their runs on two singles, a walk and Don Zimmerman's double. That rally dealt the Pirates their ninth straight loss and knocked the Giants out of first place.
 The Phillies defeated the Giants, 3-1; the Braves topped the Cubs, 8-5; and the Reds routed the Cardinals, 9-2, in other National League games.
 Kansas City's suddenly awakened Athletics made it 10 in a row with a 5-4 victory over Washington in the American League. Boston beat Cleveland, 4-1; Baltimore downed Detroit, 5-1; and Chicago and New York played to a 4-4 tie in a game called after five hours because of rain.
Homers Fell Giants
 Home runs by Ed Baer and Gene Freese of the Phils proved the downfall of the Giants. Southpaw Johnny Antonelli yielded both homers in the fourth inning.
 Hank Aaron led Milwaukee to within a game of first place when he slammed a pair of homers against the Cubs. Aaron drove in three runs with his 25th and 26th homers and helped Lew Burdette to his 14th victory.
 Cincinnati came up with six runs in the eighth to clinch its victory over St. Louis. The Reds' eighth-inning rally was composed of five hits and three walks.
Senators Drop To Cellar
 The Athletics tightened their hold on fourth place and handed the Senators their 11th straight setback, thus dumping them into the AL cellar.
 Rookie Al Schroll out-pitched Cal McLish in the Red Sox triumph over the Indians. Schroll walked off a six-hitter and didn't reek of a man in gaining his first triumph.
 The Orioles converted two errors by Tiger shortstop Cool Veal into three early runs and youngsters Jerry Walker and Milt Pappas did the rest with a combined six-hit victory.
 Yogi Berra's 18th home run of the season with one on in the sixth earned the Yankees their rain-soaked stalemate with the White Sox. The tie game, coupled with Boston's victory over Cleveland, increased the White Sox' lead to a full game over the second-place Indians.

Beavers Split Two With Sacs

United Press International
 George Freese's 18th home run of the year paced Portland to a second game victory over Sacramento here Wednesday night, 6-5. The Solons took the opener 6-0. The split left Portland in third place.
 Freese's blow was a three-run blast in the seventh with Portland trailing 4-3. It came off Terry Fox, dealing him his first Pacific Coast League loss of the season. He had won seven straight.
 Glen McMin, who relieved starter Ken Johnson in the sixth, stayed on to take the win.
 In the first game Roger Bowman of the Solons fashioned an eight-inning, five-hit shutout. The game was a continuation of a suspended tilt June 11 and began in the second inning with the score 0-0.
 Bob Perry was Sacramento's big gun, batting his 14th home run of the season and doubling home another run.
 Despite a dust storm, thunderstorms and the shaggiest team in the loop, Vancouver's Mounties edged just a little closer to the Pacific Coast League pennant Wednesday night.
 The Mounties had to go 10 innings to do it, but they nipped the Phoenix Giants, 3-2. It was the seventh straight win for the Mounties in the Phoenix park, where the Giants usually play havoc with other teams in the PCL.
 In other action, San Diego won its fourth in a row, pushing Seattle farther into the cellar, 4-1. Spokane ran roughshod over Salt Lake City in the other game, 10-4.
 Wednesday night's Vancouver-Phoenix game was delayed 21 minutes because of a desert dust storm and thunderstorm. The game finally began in a drizzle and was witnessed by only 384 fans.
 The usually-potent Phoenix bats, good for five home runs two nights ago, were held in check Wednesday night by four Vancouver hurlers who allowed nine hits but no home runs.
 Winning pitcher Chuck Estrada began the winning rally, singling and getting forced at second by Marv Breeding. Breeding then raced home with the winning tally on Jim Finigan's double. Marcelino Solis, who went all the way for Phoenix, took the loss.
 Spokane made it two straight with its 10-4 win at Salt Lake, pounding out 16 base hits in the process.
 Tom Davis and Al Norris belted home runs while Chuck Essagian and Bob Lillis gathered three hits apiece for the Indians.
 Phil Ortega squared his record at 5-5 with the victory. Bee starter Hugh Pepper, now 7-9, took the defeat.
 Seattle's Rainiers, already sinking fast in the cellar, found more troubles in the oil kit bag Wednesday night. Along with their 4-1 loss to San Diego, the Rainiers lost the services of Carroll Hardy. The ex-Cleveland Indian and San Francisco Forty Niner performer sprained his ankle rounding second base in the first inning.
 John Briggs went all the way for the Padres, scattering eight hits. It was Briggs' seventh win of the year against three losses.

Blackouts May End Baseball TV

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A broadcasting industry spokesman said today television networks would be forced to end their telecasts of major league baseball games under a proposal to black out stations within 75 miles of minor league communities.
 Harold E. Fellows, president of the National Assn. of Broadcasters, filed a statement with the Senate Anti-Trust and Monopoly Committee which is considering bills to give professional team sports exemptions from the anti-trust laws.
 The subcommittee today called Paul Richards, manager of the Baltimore Orioles, to hear his views on how the "have-nots" can compete with the "haves" in baseball.
 Richards is the author of a recent magazine article in which he blamed many of baseball's ills on the bonus system used to acquire promising young players. He contended an unrestricted draft of minor league players would do much to cure such troubles.
 Earl Mann, president of the Atlanta Crackers, one of the many minor league clubs which have run into financial difficulties, was to follow Richards to the witness stand. Owner Frank Lawrence of the defunct Portsmouth, Va., team, also was scheduled to testify.
 Fellows, in presenting the radio-TV views, noted that a bill by Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.) would enable major league clubs to extend broadcast restrictions to all stations within a 75-mile radius of a minor league community.
 If approved by Congress, Fellows said, this proposal would remove a major share of the potential audience for such telecasts and it would not be economically feasible for an advertiser to sponsor the programs.
