

Baseball 'Rerun' Offers Good Idea For Summer TV

By WILLIAM EWALD UPI Staff Writer

WILLIAM EWALD SAYS

NEW YORK (UPI) - It is only logical, in a summer freighted with TV reruns, that NBC-TV

Monday, a group of generous time schedule — it is replace one from the National and American Leagues reenacted an exercise originally presented on July 7. The cast was changed somewhat The cast was changed somewhat or County Fair. -notably missing on the National side were two skilled performers. Orlando Cepeda and William White. And the point of originafitting since almost all network Knows Best episode next fall ti-television is moving to the West tled "Bud Plays It Safe."

Coast anyway. However, there was one rather solution to the problem of sum-cial Oct 11 — Danny Thomas mer repeats and I suggest other also will guest on the show. TV series might adopt it — if Richard Diamond, Private De Peter Gunn and Marshal Dillon tective, currently seen Sundays or with excitement from start to fin-ish." This, of course, was a kind of commercial and like most com-mer titleholders Carmen Basilio mercials was somewhat overly enthusiastic.

It was, as a matter of fact, a pretty dull game - a little less stimulating than a crocheting bee. There seems to be a kind of conspiracy of silence about baseball with nobody quite willing to admit that it's The Great American Bore. It may be the only sport in which fans derive their chief enjoyment not from the tedium of the game itself, but in wallowing in marginalia about past proceedings - bugging to themselves obscure statistics, collecting quirks of performers, engaging in uninformed discussions about the merits of players. On television, the game is less than satisfactory. TV offers sec-tional baseball — its canvas dis-plays only partial glimpses of its

Fox singled for the Americans. The camera showed the ball sithering toward the outfield, picked up Kubek as he planked the run and then switched back to Fox roosting on first

What was missing was the mer-ry-go-round itself: The complete

KREM

5:00 Joe Palooka 5:15 5:30 Mickey Mouse Club 5:45

The Channel Swim: "The Moon and Sixpence," an NBC-TV spe-cial which stars Laurence livier, with TV reruns, that NBC-TV has been shifted from Dec. 10 to should offer a repeat of the All-Star baseball game.

Monday, a group of gentlefolk from the National and American the National and American through a keyhole.

Monique Van Vooren and Hans Conried will star in "A Taste Of Champagne" on CBS-TV's U.S. tion was shifted from Pittsburgh Steel Hour Aug. 26. Lloyd Nolan will guest in a CBS-TV Father

Westinghouse will sponsor the However, there was one rather bemocratic and Republican politi-striking innovation in this repeat: cal conventions and election night A change in script. In the July 7 on CBS-TV in 1960 for the third original, the Nationals won. Mon-day, the Americans won. In a year. Lana Turner is ticketed in way, the idea seems like a dandy for the NBC-TV Milton Berle spe-and Wyatt Earp were to lose all CBS-TV, will switch to Monday their winter gunfights during the nights on NBC-TV starting Oct 5. summer, it might add some tang Richard Boone, star of CBS-TV's to the schedule. Richard Boone, star of CBS-TV's Have Gun, Will Travel, will direct As for the game itself, an-nouncer Mel Allen described it at the close as "a game fraught NBC-TV's Cavalcade of Sports and Gene Fullmer Aug. 28.

Rockefellers Are Preparing For Wedding

SOGNE, Norway (UPI)-Steven Rockefeller and Anne Marie Rasmussen announced today that they will be married here on Aug. 22 despite a teachers convention threatened to leave no rooms in local hotels for the Reckefeller family or other wedding guests.

The American "prince" and his one-time kitchen maid "Cinderella" made the announcement at a brief, informal news conference in the road outside the Rasmussen home.

He did all the talking at the tough in some cases it wasn't certain that they got the point.

one typical example: Monday in the seventh inning with Anthony Kubek on second and James Runnels on first, Nelson Stephen David, the press aide Agency Fox singled for the Americans. Rockefeller sent to give his son a hand with his unaccustomed publicity. David said the ban on movies was at Steven's request.

SHUNS SANITARY SEWAGE

picture of the ball being retrieved N. Drahgon quit after working home and thrown, the defense realign one week for the Bureau of Sani- The you're home early! We need somebody to settle , our argument about the Middle East!"

PETROVITCH' SULLIVAN OPENS HIS MOSCOW SHOW

By ALINE MOSBY UPI Staff Writer

'Good-

MOSCOW (UPI) - Ed "Petrovich" Sullivan, speaking haltingly Champion and a team billed as in Russian instead of English, opened a Soviet tour Monday night with a gala premiere of a variety show staged as part of the American Exhibition here
The show was approximately by walk, drew gasps of the mixture American Exhibition here the mixture Americans are accus-tomed to seeing on television—sian song "Dark Eyes." torned to seeing on televisionjugglers, pretty singers in tight, low-cut dresses, a contentionist Seismograph Records and a magician, among other complex actions like the hit and the complex actions like the hit and the deadle play, the base hit with men on.

Ballerina Nora Kaye and oper atic soprano Rise Stevens, singing "Getting To Know You" in Russian, provided a spice of culture to the bill.

The deadle play, the base hit with men on.

The turns they liked narticularly here, nor had any phone calls were called back repeatedly for the templor.

lored for Russian audiences, Gorky Park. He plans also to play TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) - Louis Odess and Tbilisi before returning

The TV master of ceremonies.

Vegas studying Russian roulette." was glad to see him 'called' by he quipped Monday night. an American."

Certain Sports

40 Food regime 41 Uncle Tom's favorite 42 Bird

49 Trey 51 Particle

52 Morays

53 Country

45 Group of eight

7 Suffix

In addition to the Misses Kaye and Stevens, hits of the show in cluded dancers Marge and Gower Janik and Arnaut featuring a girl contortionist who coiled around

The Barry Sisters, in dresses so tight they could hard-ly walk, drew gasps of delight

A Strong Earthquake BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI) - A strong earthquake believed to have been centered in western Nevada was recorded on the University of California seismograph An audience of intent, smiling here early today.

Russians applauded every act, alHowever, the Washoe County

felt the temblor

A critic for the official Tass agency said the audience "accepted the performance in a very warm, friendly manner."

Seismologist Don Tocher said that the earthquake's epicenter was about 240 miles from Berkeley He said that the temblor be-Sullivan's show, specially tailigan at 12:37 a.m. and lasted six is minutes. It registered an intensity scheduled to play two weeks in of 5.5 on the Richter scale, ac-the outdoor theater in Moscow's cording to Tocher.

HARRIMAN LAUDS NIXON

NEW YORK (UPI) - Former New York Gov. Averell Harriand thrown, the detense realign one week for the bureau of Sant-ing, the runners scooting. It lary Sewers His boss wrote on struck me then that looking at his brief employment record: baseball on TV is a little like try. "Tried, but just couldn't work ing to watch a tedious war with sewage."

The TV master of ceremonies, New York Gov. Avereit Harri-man oralsed Vice President Rich-adopted "Petrovich" Peterson as his middle name for the dura-tion of the tour. tion of the tour.

(A Russian's middle name customarily identifies him as his fa-ther's son.)
Sullivan delighted the audience ambassador to Moscow, said on by introducing the acts in halting a television program. Mr. Khru-Russian, a language he learned shehev has gone around the during a recent three-week stay world boasting about a lot of in_{ℓ} Las Vegas. in Las Vegas. things, saying a lot of "I was the only person in Las against the United States,

Answer to Previous Puzzle

being

This log is made up from information by Television Stations and its accuracy cannot be guaranteed by the La Grande Evening Observer.

Huntley-Brinkley

