Dodgers 6 Tigers 1

Hiway Cafe smashed the Hand Ford team 22-2 while Trotter's was edging Glass Drug 9-7 and the Dodgers moved back into sole possession of first in the Elk's league with a 6-1 conquest of the Tigers.

Hand Ford scored single runs in the first and second innings before the roof fell in on them. Beckel advanced to third on a base on balls in the first. Beckel advanced to third on a ground ball and scored when Lilly was out pitcher to first.

Hand scored its second and last run when Berry was safe on an error. Tziatsos walked and Worrel singled to drive in Berry.

Hi-Way went ahead in the bottom of the second. Charles Croghan was safe on an error to open the inning. Walks to Alam, Johnson, Ron Feik and Russ Feik produced two runs.

Huntsman singled to drive in a pair of runners before Laughlin walked to fill 'em up again. Oas came through with a single to drive two more runs in and but the Chow-Hounds ahead 6-2. The Chow-Hounds pushed across 16 runs in the third inning to end the game.

Home runs by Neimer, Huntsman and Alexander were the big hits. Neimer and Huntsman also singled along with Oas and Alam to help the cause.

The lead changed hands like a bounding tennis ball before Trotter's edged by Glass Drug 9-7. Glass got a one run lead in the first when Lewis tripped after two were out and scored when McClay was safe on an error.

Trotter's tied it with walks to Jim Zeigler, John Knight, Randolph, and Williams.

Trotter's scored twice in the top of the third on walks to Mike Hayden and a single by Ron Emmons and John Knight's double.

Glass grabbed a 4-3 lead in the bottom of the inning. Shaw walked and scored on Lewis' triple. Lewis scored when McClay was safe on an error. McClay advanced to third and scored on a ground out.

Two more runs in the fourth put Trotter's back in the lead. Pointer doubled and scored on Mike Hayden's single. Hayden scored after moving to third when his brother was safe on an error.

Glass scored three times in the bottom of the fourth to make it 7-5. McKay singled, advanced to second when the third baseman bobbled Fuller's ground ball and scored on Shaw's single. Lewis walked and both men scored on the ground ball by McClay that the shortstop booted.

Trotter's picked up the final four and winnings runs in the top of the fifth. Blum was safe on an error and Dave Hiatt drew a walk. Back to back singles by Dick Hiatt and Pointer accounted for two runs. Mike Hayden was safe on the pitcher's error to lead the bases and Gary Hayden singled to send two runs

College All-Stars Pass First Test; Beat Bears 7-6

EVANSTON, Ill. (UPI) — The College All-Stars who passed their first test against a National Football League foe by beating the Chicago Bears 7-6, resumed training today for their Aug. 14 clash with the Baltimore Colts.

The collegians used almost every player on Coach Otto Graham's 46-man squad in Tuesday's contest but failed to show any spark until the fourth period when quarterback Lee Grosscup tossed a 33-yard pass to Buddy Dial of Rice for a touchdown and Sam Williams of Michigan State kicked the winning point.

The all-out scrimmage was conducted under game conditions with the exceptions of kickoffs which were not used.

Owner-coach George Halas whose Bears finished with a marked statistical edge over the collegians, complimented Graham's squad as a "team that played better football and deserved to win."

The 1959 All-Stars did not appear as strong a unit as their 1958 counterparts who lost to the Bears in a similar scrimmage but went on to beat the Cleveland Browns in one of the rare victories for the college players.

scampering across the plate. Knight was the winner and Fuller got the loss.

The Dodgers and the Tigers swapped single runs in the first inning before the Dodgers got warmed up. Dalton walked and scored on a bad throw to account for the Dodger run.

The Tigers scored when Huntsman walked, advanced to second and scored on Holmes' single to left. The Tigers got only one other hit in the game. Rick Gerry doubled in the final inning.

The Dodgers got three in the third to grab the well played contest. Hought doubled and scored on Dalton's single. Smith singled sending Dalton to third. Thomas walked to fill the bases. Stanley walked to force Dalton across with a run.

Smith got the win striking out six men and Holmes was the loser with 10 K's.

Milwaukee is back in first place and Warren Spahn is back on the track toward winning 20 for the 10th time, so what else is new? Spahn and the Braves threw cold water on a lot of pennant talk around San Francisco when they beat the Giants, 6-1, Tuesday night and knocked them out of first place by one percentage point.

That one point ordinarily might not mean too much but the way both Milwaukee and the 38-year-old Spahn have been going lately, it could turn out to be the turning point in the tight National League race.

The Braves, apparently over a near-disastrous mid-July slump, have won six of their last seven while Spahn has won four in a row and 15 for the season. He held the Giants to three singles and shut them out until the ninth.

The Braves, apparently over a near-disastrous mid-July slump, have won six of their last seven while Spahn has won four in a row and 15 for the season. He held the Giants to three singles and shut them out until the ninth.

Five Giant Errors
Losing pitcher Mike McCormick made two errors in setting the stage for his own downfall and his teammates chipped in with three more. Del Crandall added a two-run homer for the Braves.

Cincinnati defeated Los Angeles, 4-1; Pittsburgh downed St. Louis, 7-3, and Philadelphia shamed Chicago, 2-1, in other NL games.

The Cleveland Indians moved within two games of first place in the American League, and handed the Washington Senators their 17th straight defeat, 8-2; the Baltimore Orioles came from behind to nip the league-leading Chicago White Sox, 3-2; Detroit topped New York, 4-3, and Kansas City won the nightcap of a two-night twin-bill 8-6, after Boston won the opener, 4-1.

Southpaw Joe Nuxhall pitched a three-hitter in leading the Reds to their fourth straight victory and dropping the Dodgers into third place. Nuxhall struck out 10 men and got all the margin he needed when Vada Pinson socked his 15th homer with one on in a three-run third.

Vern Law won his 12th game for the Pirates with a seven-hit effort over the Cardinals. It was only the third victory in 18 games for Pittsburgh. Law also having won the other two.

Roberts Evens Chart
Robin Roberts of the Phillies evened his season record at 10-10 when he pitched a five-hitter to hand the Cubs their sixth straight loss. Loser Bob Anderson blanked Philadelphia until the eighth when Harry Anderson doubled home the two runs that won the game.

Tito Francona drove in four runs with a triple and a homer in Cleveland's win over Washington. Rookie Jim Perry pitched a six-hitter for his eighth victory.

The 17 straight losses by the Senators are only three shy of the all-time major league record of 20 consecutive defeats, shared by three clubs.

Billy Kinsau's infield hit with the bases loaded in the eighth inning enabled the Orioles to snap a seven-game White Sox winning streak. Left-hander Billy Hoelt pitched the first eight innings for Baltimore and earned his first victory since April 18.

Frank Lary of the Tigers boosted his lifetime record against the Yankees to 21-5 in stopping them on six hits for his 14th victory of the season. It was the fifth

Gold Cup Race Shapes Up As Torrid Affair

SEATTLE (UPI) — Sunday's 52nd running of the Gold Cup, the speedboat classic, shaped up today as a torrid affair after some sizzling qualifying runs.

Ten boats attempted qualifying runs over the three-mile course on Lake Washington Tuesday and seven made it at speeds of better than 100 miles per hour. The unlimiteds must cruise three laps of the course at a speed of at least 95 miles an hour.

Miss Pay 'n Save, Seattle, qualified at 108.216 m.p.h. in "sticky" water.

Then a breeze blew up that brought a brisk rain storm but left water conditions on the lake ideal. The boats poured onto the track almost as fast as they could be handled.

Gale V, Detroit, with Bill Centrell driving, qualified at 102.922 m.p.h. and her sister ship, Gale VI with Fred Alter at the helm, qualified at 107.928 m.p.h.

Wahoo of Seattle, driven by Miro Slovak, qualified at 112.971 m.p.h. and Breathless II of the Lake Tahoe Yacht Club made it in 104.922.

Hawaii Kai of Bellevue, Wash., turned it in 109.607 and Maverick of Lake Mead with Bill Stead driving did it in 111.493.

Still to qualify for Sunday's race are Kol-Roy, Miss Thriftway and Thriftway Teo, all Seattle, Coral Reef, Yuenma, Miss Spokane, Spokane; Notrogen, Washington, D.C.; U.S. I, Detroit, and Miss Tri-City, at Kennewick, Wash.

THREE ROOKIES CUT
WESTMINSTER, Md. (UPI) — Coach Weeb Ewbank released three rookie hopefuls Tuesday from the Baltimore Colt squad.

Scratched from the National Football League championship team were halfback Phil Parslow of UCLA, Tom Peters, a Wisconsin end and linebacker Arch Matsos of Michigan State.

'Cas'-Lane Feud Over Pitchers

NEW YORK (UPI) — Casey Stengel counted slowly to 10 today to hold his temper and then answered point-by-point Frank Lane's bitter charges that he had pulled "a damned dirty trick" the way he used his pitchers in Monday's All-Star game.

"I don't care what he says," said Stengel when advised of the verbal broadside launched at him by General Manager Lane of the Cleveland Indians.

But then, obviously caring quite a bit but refusing to lose his good humor, Stengel pitched into Lane's charge that there was something sinister in his use of three Baltimore Orioles pitchers and also in using tired Cal McLish of the Indians instead of tired Ryne Duren of the Yankees.

Stengel's answer, boiled down, is that everybody was tired.

"All the managers must have forgot to mark down the All-Star game on their calendars," said Stengel, "because they used six of the All-Star pitchers on Sunday. Why, in order to get a man to start the game I had to pick a guy who wasn't even on the squad."

Stengel was referring to his selection of rookie pitcher Jerry Walker on Sunday as replacement for injured catcher Gus Triandos of the Orioles on the All-Star squad. In the same breath Stengel picked Walker on the squad and named him to start the game in Los Angeles. Walker emerged the winning pitcher.

As for using McLish instead of Duren to relieve in the eighth inning, Stengel said, "Duren would have pitched if he had shown anything at all when he warmed up."

Lane denounced Stengel Tuesday in Chicago, saying, "I challenge Stengel to explain why he used a dog-tired Cal McLish and three Baltimore pitchers when his own Ryne Duren never left the ball pen."

Earlier Tuesday, manager Paul Richards of the Orioles stated that Stengel's use of three Oriole pitchers on Monday (Walker, Billy O'Dell, and Hoyt Wilhelm) had "messed up" his pitching plans for the week.

Stengel took notice of that, too, when he observed, "I couldn't have messed up the Orioles too much—I see by the scoreboard that somebody down there beat Chicago last night."

Stengel summed up his pitching problems in the All-Star game this way:

"They all warmed up, and if they didn't feel good they didn't have to play. They all wanted to pitch."

San Diego Blanks Beyos 2-0; Mounties, Solons Split Two

By United Press International
John Briggs hurled one-hit ball Tuesday night and the San Diego Padres evened their Pacific Coast League series with the Portland Beavers 2-0. The win split the series at one game apiece and left Portland in second place, 1 1/2 games behind Sacramento. The hurler also scored one of the San Diego runs.

Briggs chalked up his ninth victory against three losses. He never lost control and the Beavers never seriously threatened.

George Brunet, who started for Portland, was tagged the loser, his 10th versus four wins. The Padres picked up five hits from him before he was relieved in the ninth by Glen McMin.

The Padres scored single runs in the fourth and last innings. Dick Smith doubled in Briggs for the first tally and Steve Jankowski scored on an error by Clarence Moore.

Andre Rodgers —the perennial washout with the San Francisco Giants —is back home again.

Rodgers, who led the Pacific Coast League in hitting last year with a crackling .377 mark, smashed five for five Tuesday night as he paced the Phoenix Giants to a 5-3 win over Spokane.

The lanky shortstop from the Bahamas was recently sent to Phoenix from the big league Giants in a move that brought Willie McCovey to San Francisco.

Back And Forth
Rodgers has been given the Giants' shortstop post for the past three years and each time he has played his way back to the minors where he does quite well, thank you.

In other action Vancouver and Sacramento split a twin bill, the Mounties winning the opener, 1-0, and dropping the nightcaps, 4-3. San Diego nipped Portland, 2-0 and Salt Lake City defeated Seattle, 5-1.

Bud Watkins went the route on the mound for the Phoenix nine and Rodgers' offensive show made him a winner.

Earl Francis tossed a three hitter as Salt Lake put away last place Seattle. Francis is now 4-4 and he whiffed five. The Beavers tied the game with a four run outburst in the eighth with a two run single by Carlos Bernier, standing as the major blow of the frame.

Pinch-Hit Homer
A pinch-hit homer by catcher Bill Queen —his first time at bat in the PCL —enabled Sacramento to split its pair with Vancouver. Queen's blow came in the ninth with a man on.

Wes Stock tossed a one-hitter at the Solons in the first game and Carl Greene likewise limited the Mounties to one blow. But the one hit off Greene, a seventh inning single by Ray Barker, was enough to give the Mounties their 1-0 win in the abbreviated contest.
