Russians Hail U.S. Showing At Festival

MOSCOW (UPI) — A sellout audience of a thousand persons stuck it out at the Moscow Film Festival until 2 a.m. today to see America's "Diary of Anne Frank." It got the biggest applause yet in the three-day old showings.

"Diary" was the only American movie to be presented at the festival, and it was entered outside competition so that it was not eligible for an award.

It had the disadvantage of being screened after a full-length Polish epic about a submarine that ordinarily would have been more than enough picture-viewing for one night. There also was the drawback of having only one male interpreter to translate the dialogue into Russian over an earphone system.

Nevertheless, the audience, mostly Soviet film dignitaries and the including members of the foreign colony, gave the film an unusually enthusiastic reception.

Several times during the show, particularly in the scenes where Milly Perkins, as Anne Frank, experiences her first date and first kiss, the spectators spontaneously applauded and buzzed appreciatively.

The picture is the touching story of a Jewish family hiding in Amsterdam during the German occupation in World War II, as told through a 13-year-old girl's diary. Its anti-war, anti-fascist themes went over well with the Soviets, along with its excellent acting and directing.

Soviet audiences have been able to see relatively few American films, although Moscow is now seeing "War and Peace"

Fire Fighters Hold 80 Per Cent Of Blaze

SAN BERNADINO, Calif. (UPI) — Fire fighters today contained 80 per cent of the 35-mile perimeter of a giant forest fire in San Bernardino National Forest.

Full containment of the 11,200-acre blaze by 1,800 fire fighters was hoped for by tonight.

The blaze broke out Sunday in a stable and arson investigators said it definitely had been set by a man.

An investigation was underway to determine whether it was set accidentally or on purpose.

Six firemen received injuries battling the fire and one fire fighter died when he suffered a heart attack while on fire lines.

Actor Morton Stevens Heart Attack Victim

MARLBORO, Mass. (UPI) — Actor Morton Stevens, 69, who played in the movie "The Perils of Pauline" and in the Broadway production of "Finian's Rainbow," died at his home here Wednesday night of a heart seizure.

Stevens also played in the Broadway productions of "The Iceman Cometh" and "I married an Angel" and in a number of television dramas.

When you put away your summer cottons, don't put them away starched. But do put them away washed and ironed. If they're left wadded up and wrinkled all winter, the wrinkles tend to set and they're much harder to iron when you want them again.
