SHRINERS ARE HOLDING
LOS ANGELES CONCLAVE

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — An estimated 50,000 Shriners were here for tonight's opening of the three-day Western Shrine Association Convention. Delegates came from 14 temples in eight western states including Honolulu. About 5,000 of the group will parade tonight to the Coliseum where they will see a two-hour international ceremonial marking the official opening of the convention. New officers will be elected during business sessions Friday.
