a pre-dawn battle that lasted until after daybreak.

Cars parked near the blast site were nothing but pieces of twisted metal.

Chief Murdock said the blast heavily damaged a four-block area running from Douglas to Lane streets, north and south, and two blocks from Stephens to Parrott streets, running east and west.

"That area was pretty well leveled and what was left standing upon the demand of the accused.

The jury will be drawn from the tax roll and the last voters' registration.

The law which is effective on or after Aug. 5 requires the accused to provide a deposit up to $30 upon request for jury trial. If the defendant is acquitted the money is returned. The money, if the accused is found guilty, will be used to help pay the jurors.

The city will have to enact an ordinance establishing jury trial in the municipal court.

Commission President Gordon Clark directed the city attorney to draw up an ordinance to present to the commission at their next meeting.

Carl G. Helm Jr., city attorney, said he would check with the League of Oregon Cities and see if they have a model ordinance that can be used as the bases for La Grande.

Municipal Jury Trials Concern Commissioners

The right to trial by jury in municipal courts was a major item on the city commission's agenda Wednesday night.

The state legislature recently passed a law requiring cities to provide jury trials upon request of the charged person. Under the new law it will be necessary for the city to provide a jury for any prosecution in city courts upon the demand of the accused.

The jury will be drawn from the tax roll and the last voters' registration.

Blast Knocks Down Man Six Blocks Away

(Editors Note: Dave Cordon, news editor of radio station KRXL in Roseburg was knocked down six blocks away by the blast which heavily damaged that city of 13,000 early today. His account follows.

By DAVE CORDON
As Told to UPI

ROSEBURG (UPI) — I was asleep early this morning when I was awakened by the fire siren. I got out of bed to check with the fire department to see what had happened. When I got up the explosion went off and knocked me down.

I ran down to the area. There were people all over. I saw two persons lying in the street. Both were still alive but were bleeding badly.

Then I got out of there because there were two propane tanks in the area and firemen said they were in danger of going up. It's a good thing they didn't or I wouldn't be talking to you now.

I went up town and got on top of a building where I could see down on the fire. It looked like a big inferno. Smoke was heavy and burning particles were going through the air and landing all around.

There were hot wires lying all over the place.

On Jackson street, which is the main street here, almost every window in every store was knocked out.

That truck was sitting in front of the Grretsen Supply Company. That building was leveled. There was a soft drink plant across the street. When I went down there this morning that was gone except for one corner.

In the industrial department among the issues used to calculate the average, changes were small for the most part. Exceptions included Allied Chemical which made a new high on a rise of more than a point. Eastman Kodak was off more than 2, and Owens Illinois Glass up more than a point.
