Wallowa Man In Hospital

Dr. Hockett, accompanied by Verdo Baird who administered oxygen, took William Barklow to the Wallowa Hospital Tuesday evening. His condition was extremely serious. His daughter, Mrs. Darrell Scott, is staying with him. Little Johnnie Scott will stay with his sister, Mrs. John Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burns and son have moved into the building which was formerly the bakery and is now owned by the Christian Church.

Jim Fisher was badly stung by yellow jackets on the face and shoulders Monday. He spent Tuesday in bed with cold packs and is some better. He is employed by Dixon and Bennett Logging Co.

First Wheat In

The first wheat brought into the warehouse in Wallowa was by Tom Willett and Darrell Gilsinger, with Bob Peterson next. The yield is average, about 35 bushels per acre. The prospects are for an average crop in wheat. The first barley was brought in by Holmes Bros. It was winter barley and the yield was about average, but the prospects are for a below average crop this year.

Mrs. Ray Vance and son Kenton left Wednesday for her home in Burns, after a week here visiting her mother, Mrs. Trell Coleman.

Mrs. Bert Kronmiller and three sons and Mrs. Louis Larm and two sons spent Tuesday at Wallowa lake picnicking and the boys played in the lake.

Rev. Jones and daughter, Mrs. Beryl Brown, and three nieces were in the water and picnicking at Wallowa Lake on Tuesday.

Swimmers Go To State Test

Led by Bonnie Scott, Steve Fedor, Stewart Lundgren, Art Samson and Laury Dodson—undoubtedly in their specialty events this season La Grande Swim Club members face their stiffest competition of the season tomorrow and Saturday at The Dalles in the Oregon AAU Swimming and Diving Championships.

Last year's La Grande outfit placed seventh in team standings, racking up 69 points in the big two-day meet.

This year marks Bonnie's third assault on the state diving crown and the smooth board specialist, winner of the Washington State AAU Open and Spokane titles this year, as well as the district crown, is given a good chance of taking top honors. She has placed third on two previous appearances at The Dalles.

Swimmers making the trip in cars driven by Mrs. J. D. Dodson, Ken Goss, Larry Seachris, Lew Fedor and George Challis, are, by divisions:

10 and under—Laury Dodson, Karen Goss and Barbara Gray, 11-12 division—Stewart Lundgren, Leslie Kline, Ken Chrusp-skie and Katie Shorb.

13-14 division—Margaret Gregory, Judy Kain, Susan Fisk, Lynn Challis, Steve Fedor, Art Samson, Mike Jones and Colette Niederer.

15-16 division—Mike Challis, Rolfe Pitts and Bonnie Scott.

Cars will leave from the Veterans Memorial pool at 7 a.m. tomorrow morning and return immediately following completion of events Sunday afternoon.

Six places count in competition at the meet, with the first three places receiving trophies.
