

Bird Seasons Similar To Last Year's

Upland game bird seasons for 1959 adopted by the game commission Friday saw few changes made from the liberal seasons of last year. Seasons on mourning dove and band-tailed pigeons will run from September 1 through September 30. Blue and ruffed grouse seasons will be from September 5 through 13 in eastern Oregon and October 3 through 11 in Western Oregon. Except for mountain quail in western Oregon where the season will run from October 3 through 11, the general state-wide season on pheasants, quail, and partridge will run from 8 a.m. on October 10 through November 15.

Pheasant hunters will have a one bird reduction in bag limit from four cocks last year to three cocks in the daily bag this year. Despite a high carry-over of adult birds this spring, brood counts this summer were below the average for the past two years which influenced the commission to adopt a reduced bag limit.

Eastern Oregon quail hunters received a break with an increased bag limit on valley quail from 10 last year to 15 for the coming season. Populations of valley quail, especially in the southeast section of the state were reported the highest in years.

Sage grouse hunters were again allowed a short season in southeast Oregon from September 5 through 13, with a bag limit of 2 per day, 4 in possession. Bag limits on other upland game birds remained the same as last year.

Except for opening a few small watersheds, the 1959-60 trapping regulations adopted by the commission approximated those of last year.

Drain Loses First Game In Tourney

WICHITA, Kan. (UPI)—Defending National Champion Drain lost its first game in the National Non-Pro baseball tournament Tuesday night by a 2-0 score to Greensboro, N.C.

Catcher Ellis Olson banged out a long double in the fifth inning for Drain. That was the only hit the Black Sox got off right-hander

Jess Davis of the southern team. Greensboro got the winning run in the ninth inning after two were out. Davis singled, Virgil Rainey hit a scratch single and outfielder Howard Raines singled to score Davis. An infield single by Jim Mendenall scored Rainey with the second run. Elwood Hahn had scattered six Greensboro hits through the first eight innings of play.

Senator Wants To Add Baseball To New Law

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.) said that he would seek to include baseball in a new bill to grant exemptions from certain antitrust laws to professional football, basketball, and hockey.

The new measure was introduced in the Senate Monday. It would ignore baseball.

Keating said the new bill fails to protect "the sport (baseball) which must needs to be protected." The New York Republican said he would offer an amendment in the Senate Judiciary Committee to include baseball in the measure.

Introduction of the new bill by sponsors of two rival Senate sports bills was viewed as indicating that a strong attempt may be made to secure passage before Congress adjourns. Keating said, however, that there would be opposition unless baseball is included.

"The bill will have my opposition," Keating declared, "and I will try to enlist the opposition of all lovers of the game (of baseball)."

Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), chairman of a Senate antitrust subcommittee which has held hearings on the subject, introduced the new legislation for himself and Sens. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) and Thomas C. Hennings Jr. (D-Mo.).

Kefauver said it became apparent in the hearings that "there were not only differences in the legal status but that there were fundamental differences in the operations of the game of baseball from the games of football, basketball and hockey."

"The operation difference stems from the fact that in the game of professional baseball a minor league problem exists which does not exist in the other sports."

The subcommittee has been unable to arrive at an overall bill dealing with all professional team sports, including baseball, Kefauver said.

Branch Rickey Will Head New League

NEW YORK (UPI)—Branch Rickey, 77, "father" of baseball's farm system has been named president of the Continental League, baseball's proposed third major league, at a salary of $50,000 per year.

William Shea, chairman of the founders group of the Continental League, announced Rickey's appointment today and then introduced the baseball pioneer who has spent 57 years in the game.

Rickey, puffing on a cigar and appearing hale and hearty, said "I am confident our league will start operating in 1961. It is possible even to operate in 1960 but it is not probable."

SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED GREENSBORO, N.C. (UPI)—Eastern Hockey League officials have announced a 1959-60 schedule for the eight-club circuit. The Oct. 24 opening will find Washington at New York, Philadelphia at Charlotte, N.C., Greensboro, N.C. at Clinton, N.Y., and Johnstown, Pa., at New Haven.
