

David Hamilton Will Join Armed Service In Portland

WALLOWA (Special) — David Hamilton, after visiting his parents in Junction City, has proceeded to Portland where he will enter the Armed Services.

Mrs. Josephine Pugh returned to Wallowa Friday of last week after a visit with friends in Boise and Payette, Idaho.

Funeral services for William Barklow were held at the Wallowa Christian church Tuesday at 11 a.m. Mr. Barklow passed away, after a protracted illness, at Wallowa Memorial Hospital

Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Coleman and grandchildren, Louise and David, went to La Grande Saturday evening where they met their daughter, Mrs. Melton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Werst have returned from Seattle where they have spent their vacation with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Southwick and children returned Sunday evening after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Teel of Lewiston, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher drove to Lewiston, Idaho, Sunday, August 16, returning the same evening. They visited their granddaughter, Mrs. R. A. (Shirley) Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Dixon went to Portland last Monday to Thursday. The trip was partly on business, but they attended the Centennial Exposition and went to Jantzen Beach while there.

At the 4-H Fair at Enterprise on Monday Pat Emmions of Enterprise was Grand Champion in horsemanship and Linda Keeler of Wallowa was the Reserve Grand Champion.

In showmanship and grooming, Bill Butner of Enterprise was Grand Champion and Cathy Steen of Lostine was Reserve Grand Champion.

In their age groups Linda Keeler won championship in horsemanship; and Treva Cowan of Wallowa was reserve champion in grooming and showmanship.

The Johnson family reunion was held Sunday, Aug. 16, at the Wallowa Lake state park with approximately 190 members present. They were the direct descendants of Isaac and Tom Johnson and Sina Johnson Varner, and each branch of the family were represented. Pictures of each family group were taken, as well as pictures of the different generation groups. Grover Johnson of Wallowa acted as chairman and gave a short but interesting talk. Mrs. Nancy Coyle of Walla Walla was secretary and each member signed the register. A cousin of Mrs. Spencer Trump who is a divinity student gave the Thanks before the huge dinner. The younger members enjoyed swimming, baseball, bicycling while the older members did a lot of visiting and getting acquainted with members who had never been here before. This is the sixth reunion of the family and it is hoped it will be an annual affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Bartmess are spending their vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Trump. Zora Belle will teach the first grade at Howard school in Eugene this fall. Don is employed at a service station there. Rosemary Trump, who has been employed in Eugene this summer, came home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Arol Henry of Boise spent Sunday visiting friends in Wallowa. While here they attended the Church of Christ.

Rev. and Mrs. James Sinclair and two sons of Ashland are visiting friends here for a couple of weeks. They are making their headquarters at the Don Scott home. Rev. Sinclair was minister at the local Christian church for two years, before going to Ashland where he has a pastorate. He favored the congregation with a special song, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. John (Dorothy) George and son had special services Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zelke Jr. and four children of Hermiston came Saturday to the Heralch Scott home. They will visit there and at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zelke Sr. of Enterprise.

For the first time in eight years Mr. and Mrs. Grover Johnson had all eight of their children home at the same time. They came for the Johnson family reunion and visited for a week with relatives and friends. Those coming from distances were, Mr. and Mrs. Frank (Ellen) Alander of Prineville, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. John (Dorothy) George and son of Elmer City, Wash., Mrs. Merritt (Winona) Holloway and daughter of Lancaster, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson and two children of Pullman, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Tom Johnson and six children of Corvallis, Ore., Mrs. Walter (Maybeth) Wilson and three children of Marion, La., Mrs. Roy (Grace) Trump, both of Wallowa, Mrs. Wilson and children came the first of the month and have made a longer visit. They will leave soon for their home.

West Germany's population density is about 10 times that of the United States.

ANNOUNCING
ZENITH
The Royalty
of Television, Radio and Stereophonic High Fidelity.

FIRST 1960 TELEVISION SHOWING—MAIN FLOOR AT BOHNENKAMP'S

2 Factory Representatives will be here Friday & Saturday, August 21 & 22 to answer your questions.

D1811C
$209⁹⁵

"Sunshine Picture Tube"

D1810B
$199⁹⁵

D1812L
$209⁹⁵

"Sunshine Picture Tube"

D2301Y
$199⁹⁵

D3008R
$379⁹⁵

D2302R
$229⁹⁵

ZENITH
Quality & Value

ZENITH
Quality & Value

ALL-NEW — H-HORIZONTAL CHASSIS FOR SUPER PERFORMANCE

SLIM PORTABLE-TV

$249⁹⁵
D2010C

World's finest high fidelity

NEW! Zenith Radial Sound System

Greater Sound Separation

SINGLE CONSOLE AND TWIN-ENSEMBLE MODELS