A-BEGINNING—The first nuclear power plant in West Germany is already a landmark at Kahl, where construction goes on next to the domed, windowless reactor tower. Overlooking the Main Valley, the plant will use Uranium 235 to turn steam turbines for electricity.

Pravda Launches Program Against Religious Action

MOSCOW (UPI) - The Communist Party newspaper Pravda Friday launched a campaign against a revival of "religious prejudices" in the Soviet Union. Pravda said clergymen have hrewdly adopted new tactics for keeping religion alive in the Soviet Union. It said they are attempt-ing to reconcile religion with science and trying to convince the people that Communist philosophy can co-exist with religion."

Pravda accused the clergy of exploiting holy shrines commer cially, scaring parents and chil dren into observing religious rites and organizing religious instrucfor children.

Pravda said, however, that a revitalized campaign of atheism must be conducted legally and must be conducted legally and 28; some mixed good-choice to through educational means so as 28.50; cutter-utility Hoistein down not to offend religious believers or infringe on worship.
