ANN LANDERS

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: Did you ever hear of a father taking the word of a three-year-old baby over an 11-year-old lady? Well this is what happened, and I'd like your opinion.

I was in the living room watching TV. My brother Craig who is a show off and a pest kept running in front of the TV screen. Three times I asked him nicely to quit it. Finally I reached over and tapped him very lightly on the head.

At that moment my father came into the room. I just barely touched Craig but when he saw my father he screamed as if I had fractured his skull.

My father said "I saw that. No allowance for two weeks, young lady." When I tried to explain I had just tapped him, he asked Craig if I had hit him hard. Craig said "yes" just to get me in trouble.

Now I don't get any allowance for two weeks. Is this fair?—Hated girl.

Dear Hated Girl: Sorry, but you are the victim of circumstantial evidence (you were caught in the act). You should not have tapped Craig on the head, lightly or otherwise. Maybe two weeks of poverty will teach you to keep your hands to yourself.

at 3 p.m. Your views will be appreciated.—Nashville.

Dear Nashville: I agree your daughter should have the company of children her own age. Life is very difficult for preschool youngsters who live in a totally a dult atmosphere. You're a grown woman now and the rearing of your child is your responsibility. Don't argue with your mother. But tell her you must use your own judgment in these matters and any further discussion is pointless.
