

MOUTH TO MASK—Two men demonstrate a new artificial respiration device called the mouth-to-mask resuscitator in Dayton, Ohio. An extension of the medical-approved mouth-to-mouth method, the two-foot breathing tube is used to force oxygen-rich breath into the victim's lungs without objectionable contact. The two-pound device protects the victim's lungs from overinflation, also allows rescuer to breathe normally.

Chicago's Twin Win Kills Hitless Theory

United Press International
Start ducking partner, next time you call those White Sox hitless wonders.

They shot that theory plumb full of holes by blasting across 11 runs during one inning Wednesday night on route to a two-night sweep over the Tigers, 7-2 and 11-4.

All that heavy shootin' put the White Sox 3 1/2 games up and practically left the second-place Indians in hot hell as far as the outcome of the American League pennant race is concerned.

If the White Sox play only .500 ball from now on and win only 11 of their 22 remaining games, the Indians would have to win 18 of their last 23 to overtake them.

The aroused White Sox collected 10 hits while scoring their 11 runs in the fifth inning of the nightcap. Al Smith started the uprising with a home run. Lester Paul Foytack retired the next two batters but Luis Aparicio socked the first of eight singles during the frame and Nellie Fox climaxed the rally with a bases-loaded triple.

Stenka Gets Victory
Joe Stenka, just up from the minors, was credited with the victory although Gerry Staley, who also nailed down the opener, helped out in the eighth. Sherm Lollar drove in four runs with a pair of doubles in the first game. Cleveland beat Kansas City, 6-3; Baltimore blanked Boston, 4-0, and New York nipped Washington, 5-3, in other AL games.

San Francisco retained its 1 1/2 game lead in the National League race with a 4-3 decision over Chicago; Los Angeles stopped St. Louis, 9-6; Philadelphia whipped Milwaukee, 11-5, and Cincinnati put a crimp in Pittsburgh's pennant plans by sweeping a two-nighter, 6-3 and 2-1.

Gary Bell won his 15th game for the Indians when he checked the Athletics on one run and five hits after taking over for Herb Score in the first inning. Dick

Denny Moyer Tangles With Tony DeMarco

PORTLAND (UPI)—Young Denny Moyer, now the fourth ranking welterweight by Ring magazine, takes on one-time lightweight champion Tony DeMarco in a 10-round bout at the Auditorium here tonight.

It will be Moyer's first fight since he lost to champion Don Jordan here in July.

DeMarco, who is now 31, has been fighting for 15 years and will give Moyer a rugged test. Most experts figure the bout will go the distance.

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Matchmaker George Parnassus announced Tuesday that lightweights Frankie Ryff of New York and Raymond Torres of Mexico will meet in a 10-round bout at the Olympic Auditorium Sept. 17.

Top Shooters Expected For Gun Clubs Labor Day Event

More than 100 trap shooters from the Pacific Northwest will begin to gather in La Grande Friday for the 11th annual Labor Day Trap Shoot. The three-day program gets underway Saturday morning and continues through until Monday evening at the La Grande Gun Club.

Officials of the Gun Club expect some of the top shooters in the country to be on hand for the meet. Entries have been received from trap shooters in Washington, Idaho and Canada in addition to Oregon shooters.

Arnold Riegger of Castle Rock, Wash., who shattered three records in the American Trapshoot at Van dalia, Ohio earlier this year, has attended the meet in recent years and officials are hopeful that he will add his name to the list of growing entries.

Competition will begin at 8 a.m. daily and run through to 3 p.m. at the La Grande Gun Club, three miles east of La Grande on Highway 30.

Shooters will be firing for 21 trophies donated by various organizations in addition to the prize money.

The traps will be open for practice rounds Friday afternoon and S. B. Rasmussen, club president, has extended an invitation to anyone interested in participating in the meet to come out and fire practice rounds.

The public has been invited to watch the matches from the clubhouse which fronts the firing range.

First event on the program Saturday morning will be the first half of the Blue Mountain Singles championship in classes A, B, C, D. Fifty pairs Double Targets will be the afternoon competition.

The second half of the Blue Mountain Singles championship will be run off Sunday morning and the La Grande Handicap, 100 targets from 18 to 27 yards will complete Sunday's competition.

The La Grande Handicap will continue through Monday morning.

Country Club Golfers Earn Ball Awards

La Grande Country Club women golfers had another busy week. Balls were awarded the ladies in three classes of competition.

Marge Keefer with 29 putts walked off with Class A honors and Mae Spauth with 26 putts won the class B title.

Mollie Mahoney grabbed the C class award with 27 putts.

Forest Service Warns Hunters Of Fire Risk

Bird hunters and archers were warned to be extremely careful of fire danger while hunting over the weekend. W. M. Curtis, district warden of the Oregon Forest Service, cautioned hunters that the woods are still extremely dry and dangerous.

Everyone using the woods should be extremely careful while hunting. Curtis announced. Men will be out patrolling the woods over the weekend to check hunters. The school of 14 men who returned to Oregon or teaching positions has cut into the Forest Service's manpower and placed a greater burden on those still working.

"I hope people will use a lot of good sense while in the woods," Curtis said.

Portland Slips Down To Sixth

By United Press International
The Portland Beavers were another notch down the ladder today in their slide toward seventh place in the Pacific Coast League.

Portland dropped a 9-5 decision to pennant-hopeful Vancouver Wednesday night in the Canadian city. The defeat dropped Portland to sixth place, half a game behind Sacramento and just two games ahead of seventh place Seattle.

Kenny Johnson, the Beaver ace, was the loser. It was his ninth defeat against 15 victories. A six-run seventh inning highlighted by Jim Fennegan's bases-loaded triple, and a homer by Ray Barker gave the Mounties the win. Erv Falica went the distance for his 13th victory.

Phoenix, which lost Willie McCovey to San Francisco and has been losing nearly all its games since, dropped a 14-1 decision to Salt Lake. Seattle won from Spokane 6-3 and Sacramento downed San Diego 12-6.

Since walloping Willie crashed the big league scene, the Giants of the desert town have been about as effective as a ping-pong player trying to slug a medicine ball. From a point of contention a month ago, the defending champs have tumbled to 15 1/2 games behind the leaders and they are unmistakable patsies of the circuit.

Salt Lake happily crushed the Giants Wednesday night, 14-1. The victory kept the Bees a full game ahead of second-place Vancouver, which also won, 9-5, over Portland.

The Bees crashed 13 hits, including homers by Dick Barone and Eddie Moore. George Perez held Phoenix to four hits and scored his 10th victory.

Sacramento, in an unusual display of hitting dexterity, smashed 16 hits while scoring its football type win over San Diego.

Mike Krasnic led the well-distributed Solon attack with a triple and a single and three RBIs. Winston Brown got the win though he had to be relieved. Bud Podbielniak, the Padres' starter, was charged with the loss.

Veteran righthander Mark Freeman hurled Seattle past Spokane. He was backed by a 13-hit attack. It was Freeman's 11th win against 9 losses.

Diller Hanover Grabs Richest Hambletonian

DU QUOIN, Ill. (UPI)—Diller Hanover, the heavy favorite from the start, lost a shoe but won the richest harness race in history in the 34th Hambletonian Stake for 3-year-old trotters Wednesday.

The bay colt gave his owners, Hal Stables of Watertown, N.Y., record-breaking first-place money of $73,654 of the total of $125,326 purse with his straight heat victory.

The 1953 Hambletonian, won by Helicoptor, paid $63,126 to the winner of a total purse of $117,117.

Frank Ervin, 53, of Pompano Beach, Fla., driver of the famed son of Star's Pride, who finished second in the 1954 "Hambo," as described Diller Hanover as "as good as any I've ever driven."

Diller Hanover started from the No. 2 post position in the first heat and held the lead after the half in 2:01 and 1:5, the seventh fastest heat in the classic's history.

The winner started slowly in the second dash, but zoomed down the stretch to overtake Lord Cutney, who faded, and won by 2 1/2 lengths over second-place Circo.

Second-place money of $30,688 went to Tie Silk, owned by Two Galts Farm of Indianapolis, Ind., and piloted by Ralph Baldwin. Circo, with 5-2 finishes, claimed third money of $12,275.

Shoe Scores Triple

NEW YORK (UPI)—Jockey Willie Shoemaker made it seven victories in two days when he scored a triple at Belmont Park Wednesday while winning the pole position for the Labor Day Southern 500-mile stock car race. Roberts averaged 123.754 miles per hour.

Radio-TV Reps. To Appear Before Subcommittee

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Representatives of radio and television stations went before a congressional subcommittee today to testify on legislation which would curb major league telecasts.

A House anti-trust subcommittee is holding hearings on a bill to exempt from the anti-trust law certain practices of organized baseball, football, basketball and hockey. The telecasting provision is part of the measure.

Baseball Commissioner Ford C. Frick told the subcommittee Wednesday the alternative to permitting "reasonable" blackout of televised major league games would be fewer minor league games.

Frick supported a blackout of

Cougar Coach Shoots For Revenge On Cal

United Press International
PULLMAN, Wash. (UPI)—Washington State University's Cougars are shooting for their Sept. 19 season opener against California with a vengeance.

"Cal scored 34 points on us last year," Coach Jim Sutherland said. "You can't win when you give 'em that much—offense or no offense." Sutherland's crew worked four hours Wednesday, with defensive units working against versions of the split-T attack expected from the Bears.

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI)—Tommy Prohallis, Oregon State Beaver, has another light scrimmage and contact workout scheduled for today, with the squad still numbering approximately 50.

The Beavers went through similar workouts Wednesday, concentrating chiefly on offense and backfield maneuvers. Fullback Jim Sinner worked lightly because of an ankle sprain.

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI)—Coach Len Casanova was pleased with his Oregon Webfoots Wednesday following a hard workout climaxed by a 30-minute scrimmage session.

"They looked real sharp for the second day of practice," said Casanova. He switched 222-pound Bill Betcher, a center, to guard on the second unit. His first string line is set and the end positions

Dick Tiger Whips Ace Armstrong

CAMDEN, N.J. (UPI)—Dick Tiger, a stolid strongboy who holds the British Empire middleweight title, set his sights on a bout with Joey Giardello today after shattering previously unbeaten Gene (Ace) Armstrong's 17-bout winning streak in a stunning upset.

Jersey Jones American representative of the invader from Annaboo, Nigeria, said no sooner was the fight over Wednesday night when Ben Bentley, National Boxing Enterprises matchmaker, telephoned him: "Do nothing until you hear from me."

Jones said Bentley did not name any specific opponent for the 30-year-old Tiger, who floored the Elizabeth, N.J., in the third round and went on to gain an easy decision in the nationally-televised 10-rounder.

Jones added he would like his challenger to take on Giardello in Chicago, probably on World Series time, especially if the White Sox win the pennant.

Tiger gained his first triumph in three tries since invading American rings on the card of Referee Joey Harrison, sole official under New Jersey boxing rules. Harrison saw it 6-4 in favor of Tiger. United Press International scored it 6-2-2 for the Tiger.

Armstrong blamed ring rustiness and Tiger's five-pound edge (162-157) for his defeat.

Blue Mountain Masterminds Meet Tuesday

The Blue Mountain Masterminds Gridiron club will hold their first fall meeting in Sacajawes Coffee shop next Tuesday morning.

The club which promotes La Grande high school and Eastern Oregon college football, holds an annual banquet at the end of the season in honor of the players and the coaching staff.

The meeting is open to the public and there is no charge for membership in the club. The Masterminds issue membership cards to anyone interested in joining.

Meetings begin at 7 in the morning and last for approximately 45 minutes.
