

Chicago Scouts SF As Giants Up Lead

United Press International
Those White Sox scouts sent out to get the "book" on Willie McCovey are sure to come back with an encyclopedia instead.

Only recently, Dodger "sleuth" Al Campanis came back with a bulging report on San Francisco's spectacular rookie, so you can imagine all the paper work before the White Sox, who expect to face McCovey in the World Series.

The Scouts assigned by the White Sox will report back that National League pitchers tried everything on McCovey. Inside and tight, low and away and even changing speeds.

Then, in small print at the bottom, there will probably be the notation: "Nothing worked."

Gets 10th Homer
That was pretty much the story Thursday when McCovey, hitting safely in his 10th straight game, hammered his 10th homer in an 8-5 victory over the Cubs that enabled the Giants to widen their National League lead to 2½ games.

While those White Sox scouts are at it, they'd better concentrate on that other Willie too, meaning Mays. He slammed his 25th homer with one on in the sixth. Ed Bressoud also homered.

for the Giants as did Alvin Dark for the Cubs.

The Cardinals beat the Dodgers, 5-3, in the only other NL game.

The Yankees trounced the Senators, 9-2, and the Orioles defeated the Red Sox, 5-4, in the only American League action.

Cards Whip Dodgers
Ken Boyer's 27th homer with two on in the third inning was the key blow for the Cards in their triumph over the Dodgers. It marked the 22nd straight game Boyer has hit safely. Joe Cunningham homered in the first inning and was hit by a Don Drysdale pitch in his next time up. The incident almost precipitated a fistfight between St. Louis Manager Solly Hemus and Drysdale, who had to be kept apart by the umpires after players from both teams came charging onto the field.

Roy Sievers broke up Dillmar's no-hitter when he hit his 18th homer with two out in the seventh and Clint Courtney belted a pinch homer in the eighth.

Bob Nieman clouted his 16th and 17th homers in pacing Baltimore to victory over Boston. Skinner Brown was credited with his ninth victory although he was knocked out in the ninth when the Red Sox scored two runs and had the tying run on base with two out.

Billy Loes relieved Brown and got Pumpsie Green to ground out, thereby recording his 14th "save" of the season. Frank Baumann was the loser.

Country Club Plans Holiday Golf Tourney

Members of the Country Club will be teeing off Saturday morning in 36 holes of play for the Sacajawea Trophy. More than 50 golfers are expected to compete for the trophy won last year by Frank DeVaney.

The trophy was first put up for grabs in 1931 by the Sacajawea Hotel. Any member who wins the trophy three times may retire it from active competition.

Only two men have won the trophy twice. Ed Wheaton and Bill Heryford will attempt to capture the trophy for the third, and final time.

The women will not be forgotten in the weekend play either. A special Sand Trap trophy for 18 holes of play will be awarded to the Labor Day weekend golfers.

Mrs. Jack Gregory was the winner of last year's trophy.

North Powder Has 21 At Practice

NORTH POWDER (Special) — Twenty-one players greeted Coach Jack McGoldrich as football drills opened at Powder Valley High School.

The North Powder team will play six-man football again this year.

First game on the North Powder schedule is against Imbler Sept. 11 at Imbler.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT WITH THE CHAMP

Jack Dempsey, center, simulates taking it on the chin at his Broadway restaurant when named "promotional director and advisor" for the Rosensohn Enterprises, which hope to put on a return match between Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson. Max Baer, left, and Jack Sharkey, also former heavy champions, made believe they were landing.

SLUGGING STARS ON WANE; NEXT YEAR BIG QUESTION

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ted Williams will play again in 1960 and Stan Musial will call it a career. Intimates of the two famous sluggers are betting today.

Neither man has made a final decision, according to those close to them. But the theory is that Williams, unfulfilled batting ambitions will drive him into one more campaign while Musial's aims have been accomplished and he won't stick around to be a mediocre has-been.

"I'd bet almost anything," said one who knows Williams well, "that Ted will play at least one more season."

One more would give him—in all probability—the two marks he now desires above all others. The first is moving into third place ahead of the late Mel Ott on the roster of all-time home run hitters. The second is taking sole possession of fifth place in the all-time averages.

Injuries Shackle Williams
Williams has been shackled this season by a long series of frustrating injuries. As of the moment, it has dropped his all-time average from .349 to .345 because of a season in which he currently is hitting a painful .239. Ted feels that he still is a far better hitter than that and must believe that one final good year at bat would move him up again just as rapidly as he fell.

That's reason number one to give one more try. The second is even more compelling.

Williams at the moment has a lifetime total of 492 home runs even though he has struck only 10 this season. One more will tie him with Lou Gehrig for fourth place on the all-time list and leave him only seven short of the "500 club." There are only three members in this exclusive organization—Ruth with his fantastic 714 round trippers, Jimmy Fox with 534 and Ott with 511.

Impressive Totals
Musial on the other hand has just about "had it."

"Stan the Man" has run up impressive totals in every department and his record is enough to satisfy any man. While he is only 39, the one-time king of the National League hitters has no new record within close proximity and baseball has become a chore.

"It is easy to hit .300," he said once while sitting in the sunshine during spring training.

But this season he is batting only .259 and it has dropped his lifetime average from .340 to .337. Another year could only make it worse and, meanwhile, Stan no longer is the wheelhorse of the Cardinals.

There was a time when he could hope for one more National League batting title to tie Honus Wagner's league-leading eight championships. But now even this inspiration is gone for Stan—and the betting is that he soon will follow.

Bird Hunters, Archers Expect Good Results

Doves are abundant in Morrow, Wheeler and Gilliam counties near grain fields and water. Many doves can be found in most northwestern portions of Baker and Union counties. Birds will leave when nights become frosty.

Blue Grouse may be found in timberline on Dixie, Aldrich, Vinegar and Indian Rock in Grant county. Ruffed grouse may be found on any of the side tributaries of the Middle Fork of the John Day river and Desolation creek.

The best grouse hunting in Morrow county will be on the breaks of the John Day river near water.

Blue grouse shooting should be fair on open ridges near Timber, Dooly Mountain, east end of the Elkhorn Mountains, Eagle Creek Mountains and Lookout Mountain, all near Baker.

In Union county blue grouse shooting should be fair on Mt. Emily, Telocaset, Ladd creek and the breaks of the Minum river. Good to excellent blue grouse hunting should be found in the Hat Point area, Chessimus, Indian Village, and a Buckhorn Springs areas in Wallawa County.

The Wallawa pack area should be very good for deer.

There are many deer in the Canyon Creek refuge but are scattered. Bow hunters should encounter some big bucks in this area.

Archers can expect to find best Elk hunting in the Starkey and Mt. Emily areas. The best deer hunting will be in the Baker and Keating areas. Dry leaves and twigs are going to make stalking difficult. Some of the Better Deer hunting will be in the foothill areas adjacent to cultivated land, in Baker and Union counties.

Point Stingy Colts To Meet Pittsburg

United Press International
Florida fans get their first look at the Baltimore Colts tonight when the National Football League champions meet the Pittsburgh Steelers in an exhibition game in the Orange Bowl at Miami.

The Colts have given up just one touchdown in running up pre-season victories over the College All-Stars, the New York Giants and the Washington Redskins.

However, the champs may run into trouble against the Steelers, who have never lost to the Colts. They beat Baltimore, 13-10, in an exhibition last summer and also hold victories over the Colts in two regular-season games.

Floridians will get another look at the NFL behemoths Saturday night when the Chicago Bears meet the Washington Redskins at Jacksonville.

In other Saturday night exhibitions, the San Francisco Forty-Niners play the Chicago Cardinals at Seattle, Wash., the Giants take on the Green Bay Packers at Bangor, Me., and the Los Angeles Rams entertain the Cleveland Browns.

The Detroit Lions spotted Philadelphia a 14-0 first period lead and then rallied to down the Eagles, 35-24, Thursday night in a tuneup at Toledo, Ohio.

The Eagles gained their early bulge when Norm Van Brocklin tossed two touchdown passes but Detroit scored four times in the second quarter to gain its second victory of the exhibition season. It was Philadelphia's third setback in four tuneups.

Tigers Plan Scrimmage For Tonight

The Tigers will get a full scrimmage under the lights tonight as the second week of grid drills comes to a close. "Kickoff" time is set for 6:30 and the field will be open to the public.

The Tigers tapered off in their drills yesterday in preparation for tonight's big session. Coaches concentrated on sharpening the Tigers' punch as the squad ran through a light drill.

The Tigers meet the Union Bobcats one week from tonight and the scrimmage could very well determine who will get the call to open the game.

This afternoon the Tigers will get physical examinations and pose for photographers.

Wallowa Pack Area Opens For Tag Hunt

Big game hunters holding tags for the Wallowa pack area in northeast Oregon will open the first deer hunt of the young 1959 seasons scheduled for rifle hunting this coming Saturday, Sept. 5.

The controlled deer season in this remote pack area will run for four days, Sept. 5 through 8.

Nimrods are reminded that only those hunters who possess the Wallowa pack controlled season tags are eligible to participate in this early season hunt.

Participants may legally take two deer during the hunt, one on the controlled tag and one on the general season deer tag. The controlled tag authorizes one antlerless deer. The controlled tag also validates the general deer tag during this period on which the hunter may take one deer of either sex within the area boundaries.

On Sept. 12 the Hart Mountain controlled deer season will open and extend for nine days through Sept. 20. An addition weekend, Sept. 26 and 27, will give hunters another two days to try for the Hart Mountain deer.

As with the Wallowa Pack, only those hunters, rifle or archery, who possess the Hart Mountain controlled deer tags are eligible to participate. The Hart Mountain tag authorizes one antlerless deer to be taken within the prescribed area.

APPOINT ASSISTANT COACH
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI) — Ken Cooper, former Baltimore Colt player, has been appointed an assistant coach at Trinity University.

Peruvian Seeks 4th Net Title

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (UPI) — Slumping Alex Olmedo of Peru, disappointed by his Davis Cup losses, opens a 10-day drive today for his fourth major tennis title in less than a year in the first round of the U. S. Grass Courts championship.

Holder of the Australian, U. S. indoor and Wimbledon crowns, the moody Peruvian who never has flashed his best game before American galleries, takes on Don Russell, a third-string Australian paying his own way on the tennis circuit.

"I have a good chance to win this tournament," said Olmedo, whose visions of a $100,000 pro contract for next year were clouded when he blew one Davis Cup singles match with sub-par play and figured in the cup doubles defeat. "The pressure may not be so great now."

But before the tournament is over he'll get plenty of opposition, including another shot at Neale Fraser, Australia's cup strongman, if both reach the finals as expected on Sept. 13.

Fourth-seeded Rod Laver of Australia, seventh-seeded Earl (Butch) Buchholz of St. Louis and eighth-seeded Roy Emerson of Australia also were scheduled for opening day competition. The four other seeds—including Fraser and third-seeded Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio — will play their first matches Saturday.

24 Gridders Open Drills For Bobcats

UNION (Special) — The Union Bobcats opened football practice last Monday under the direction of Coaches Bud Lewis and Andy Anderson.

Twenty-four gridders turned out for the first day of practice. The sophomore class with eight representatives on the field supplied most of the manpower. Six juniors and six freshmen and only four seniors reported for the first day of practice.

Nine of the first day players were returning lettermen. Lewis expected additions to the squad after school started.

The squad:

Seniors: Henry Miller, Tom Cox, Alan Livingston and Buck Cockrell.

Juniors: Jim Bateman, Bill Ricker, Stan Wilde, Farel Barter, Dale Tyler and Pat Edvalson.

Sophs: John LaVerdure, Eddie Miller, Bob Cockrell, John Phillips, Dave Rampton, Wayne Crampton, Don Baxter and Doug McConkie.

Frosh: Jay Potter, King Spain, Howie Wilde, Duane Tyler, Tim Rennie and Larry Elliot.

Imbler Gridders Start Two-A-Day Practices

IMBLER (Special) — Football practice for Imbler gridders was announced by Coach Carle Cone. Two-a-day practices will get under way on the high school field at 9:30 and 3:30 daily.
