St. Peter's Guild Holds First Meet

The first meeting of the fall and winter season of the St. Peter's Guild was held in the Parish hall, on Sept. 2.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. J. R. Martin, president. Mrs. Guy Ellis lead the devotions, reading the Collect for the 11th Sunday after Trinity, and the entire group joined in reading the first Guild Prayer.

The Family Conference meeting held at the Cove Ascension grounds during the Labor Day weekend, began Friday as announced by Mrs. Martin. This was a district meeting, and sponsored by the Couples Club of St. Peter's Parish.

The Rev. C. A. Kopp requested all members of the Parish to attend the first fall parish potluck supper to be held Friday at 6:30 p.m. in the Parish hall. This is a fall planning meeting and projects and events for the coming winter season will be discussed. All members of the Parish are being urged to attend. Dessert will be furnished, but the balance of the meal will be strictly potluck.

The members voted to again make the St. Peter's Guild mince-meat, and Mrs. Louise Jewett and Mrs. Fred Sommer will head the committee. This will be made, and sold during November. Plans for a November Tea were also discussed.

Following the business meeting guests were introduced: Mrs. Carrie Riley, wife of the late Rev. Oliver Riley, a former rector of St. Peter's Parish, Mrs. Lipscomb from Vancouver Island, B.C., and Mrs. Mary Heasler.

Mrs. Norval Olson, hostess for the afternoon, served refreshments in keeping with the fall season. Her table was centered with a large bowl of orchid and purple asters on a lace cloth, flanked by white tapers. Mrs. E. C. Bray, and Miss Fanny Cupid poured.

Next meeting of the Guild will be held Sept. 16 in the Parish hall.

Central PTA To Hold Tea

Central School PTA will hold a reception honoring teachers, on Friday, at 2:30 p.m.

This tea will be held in the Multi-purpose room, and will give an opportunity for parents to get acquainted with teachers and each other. A special mixer program is being planned.

A nursery will be provided for the pre-school children and special provisions are made to care for first and second graders during the meeting.

All parents are being urged to attend this reception.

Dance Studio Open For Fall

Niles Navarre has returned to La Grande and again opened his dance studio in the Sacajawea. Navarre has spent the summer months in San Francisco, taking a refresher course in Ballet.

The studio will open Tuesday through Saturday. Dick Page will be associated with Navarre, and will be teaching art and crafts. He is a graduate of the University of Nebraska, where he taught arts and crafts in addition to his professional work in show business.

House Guests Over Holiday

UNION (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. Porter Payne had house guests this weekend. Her sister, Mrs. McGennis of Vancouver, Wash., was here over the weekend. Ed Payne from Hermiston was a visitor, and a daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rinehart and children from Wenatchee.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart and son, Warren of La Grande and Mrs. McCoy of Irrigon, were guests at the Frank Rickers' home this weekend, and Mrs. Ricker's sister Katie Stewart of Portland was a house guest.

The Union Assembly of God church shared in the dedication ceremony of the Assembly of God church in Enterprise, Monday evening. The Enterprise church has been completely remodeled.

Welo Family Sees Results Of Quake

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Welo and daughter, Karen, spent last week visiting in Helena, Mont. They returned by way of Yellowstone National Park and observed the after effects of the recent earthquake.

They report the Fountain Paint Pot and Silex geysers as increased in their velocity, since the quake, and view points to the public have been extended farther out by guards.

One guard informed them that some 40 new geysers have formed since the earthquake. In two instances they noted new geysers erupting through the black top pavement used in the parking area, near the Paint Pot geyser. Old Faithful geyser, however, did not appear affected as it erupted on schedule.
