Working Gal 'Places' In Beauty Event

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI)—An honor graduate who worked her way through college waiting on tables joined the beauties in the contest in holding top honors today in the second round of judging in the Miss America pageant.

Suzanne Ingeborg Johnson, 21, daughter of a widowed Oak Park, Ill., bank teller, gave Illinois a victory in the 32nd pageant by winning the preliminary talent award Thursday night.

The second-night bathing suit trophy went to Bonnie Jo Marquis, 19-year-old Ithaca College sophomore, of Huntington, N.Y., who is representing New York state in the contest.

The third and final preliminary rounds will be held tonight, with the selection of Miss America around midnight Saturday.

There is evening gown competition on all three preliminary nights of judging but the outcomes never are announced, even though they count heavily in the final result.

Miss Johnson, who lives with her mother, Mrs. Carl W. Johnson, in Chicago, won her trophy and a $1,000 scholarship by appearing in pantaloons, hoop skirt and bonnet to sing "Hello, Young Lovers" from "The King and I" in a well-trained mezzo soprano voice.

Miss New York state, who is known to her friends as "Bon Bon," measures 37-24-36 and stands 5 feet 9 inches tall. She weighs 128 pounds.

La Grande Officer Of Legion 'Fun' Unit Here Tuesday

Marcus L. Roesch, prominent local hotelman, will pay his first official visit as Grand Chef de Gare of the 40-8 of the American Legion to the La Grande post next Tuesday night.

Roesch, since his election at the Salem department convention of the American Legion and Forty and Eight, has been visiting various posts in western Oregon where he has been installing 40-8 officers for 1959-60.

The La Grande Forty and Eight is known as Local Vulture 413 of the 40-8. The Tuesday night meeting will be a homecoming affair for Roesch.
