1959-60 TV Season Should Be Normal, No 'Spectacs'

By FRED DANZIG
UPI Staff Writer

NEW YORK (UPI)—The scoreboard, based on five new shows that turned up on the TV tube during the week end, indicates this highly touted 1959-60 season will not distinguish itself through its filmed series.

Sunday night, the one hour adventure series, Riverboat, came around the bend on NBC TV and hove into view with her decks jammed with old plots and jetsam.

Maverick began its third season on ABC TV last night — partly opposite Riverboat, there were signs that the effort to maintain freshness, with deft satirical tough is starting to wear it down.

Jack Garner and Jack Kelly played dual and dual roles in an episode filled with tired, irrelevant gags and ludicrous situations.

On Saturday, NBC TV brought in Bonanza, another full-hour Western. This one is complete assembly line product, right down to the acting, story line and direction.

Another NBC TV Western that arrived Saturday came up with an interesting premise, Henry Fonda, the star of Deputy, plays the role of an unshaven, roughish chief marshal, in the words of his co-star, Allen Case, he "thinks like a crook". This personality quirk made for some wild scenes. While it was generally entertaining, I felt the gags should cease when the killings commence. Killing ain't that funny, Hank.

The Man And The Challenge, another NBC TV show that began life on Saturday, stars George Nader in a commercialized pseudo scientific setting (complete with girl).

On Friday, the Keenan Wynn-Bob Mathias series, Troubleshot, rolled onto NBC-TV. Despite a contrived story about a sweaty bunch of construction workers fighting Indians in Venezuela, the unpretentious look of the show had a disarming effect.

Saturday night, CBS TV offered a two hour look at Miss America pageant, a tasteless "interview" with the winner by Marilyn Van Debur struck a blatantly commercial note, otherwise the show was undistinguished during its first 110 minutes. I understand that if Mississippian makes it three wins in a row next year they will permanent possession of Bert Parks.

The Channel Swim: "Harry S. Truman — The Prophecies of Woodrow Wilson," is the title of an ABC-TV special scheduled for Sunday, Sept. 20, from 9:30 to 10 p.m. Mr. Truman will discuss Wilson's beliefs as part of the 40th anniversary observance of Wilson's national tour for the League of Nations. Gov. Robert Meyer of New Jersey will be the host on the New York-originating program.

Joan Crawford will be Dinah Shore's special guest on Sunday, Oct. 11. Dinah's NBC-TV hour, which returns on Oct. 4, has scheduled an all-Asian revue for Oct. 25 and is preparing all-French and all-Italian revues for later on in the season.

Bob Crosby's new NBC-TV series, world championship golf, has shoved back its NBC-TV starting date from Sunday, Oct. 11 to Oct. 18. Betty Hutton and Sam Levenson join Jack E. Leonard on the panel of Dick Clark's ABC-TV show, World of Talent, on Sunday, Oct. 4.

The Jack Paar Show returns to a five-week scheduled for two weeks, starting Sept. 28, while Paar vacations in Europe. Arlene Francis and Hugh Downs, subbing for Paar, will do "live" shows on Thursdays and Fridays. At present, the show is taped four nights a week and the Friday program is a repeat.

QUOTES FROM THE NEWS

United Press International

NEW YORK — Vice President Richard M. Nixon, commenting on the possibility that Russia might make territorial claims on the moon because its rocket, bearing Soviet pennants and emblems, was the first man-made object to reach it:

"I'm not too concerned about that at the moment. In view of the climate of the moon, very few of us care who occupies it at the moment."

CHICAGO — James T. Mangan, who claims he owns space on the basis of a deed obtained from the Cook County (Chicago) recorder's office in 1949, protesting the Soviet moon shot:

"They're entirely out of order in shooting a rocket to the moon. I put the moon, as well as Mars, under my protection in my proclamation of July 25, 1958."

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Evangelist Billy Graham, describing the men accused of setting off Labor Day explosions after meeting and praying with them in their cells:

"They were very humble and, I would say, repentant."

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — Former President Harry S. Truman, warning that the "enemies" of the United States are trying to create prejudice between groups and faiths:

"The beliefs on which we founded our form of government, and our hope for a better world, are under attack."

DAUGHTER FOR ROONEYS
SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI)—Actress Barbara Thomas, 22, fifth wife of film star Mickey Rooney, gave birth Sunday to a six-pound, 10-ounce baby girl.

Side Glances

"Have Uncle Dugan's picture hung somewhere else. Business is high-pressed enough these days without him breathing down my neck!"

Pert Dixie Beauty New Miss America

NEW YORK (UPI)—A nervous, green-eyed southern belle today began to work at being Miss America of 1960 scared that she would be a flop as a beauty queen.

Lynda Lee Mead, of Natchez, who captured the second consecutive Miss America crown for Mississippi Saturday night as a dark horse contender in the home stretch, confided her qualms to her college roommate.

Lynda, 20-year-old daughter of an automobile dealer, talked to her college roommate and closest friend, Martha Lovelace, on the telephone after she defeated 53 other beauties for the $100,000 Miss America crown.

"I'm so scared I won't be a good Miss America," Miss Lovelace quoted Lynda in Jackson, Miss. She said Lynda was in tears.

Beauty's Secret Revealed

Miss Lovelace also divulged Lynda's best kept secret — the name of her football hero boy friend who sent her a gold heart good luck piece in the contest.

The young man is none other than Martha's brother, Kent, 23, voted the most popular man on campus at the University of Mississippi, where he and Lynda met.

The second most coveted award in the pageant went to the representative of the newest state, Hawaii. Gordan Leihua Lee, 20, of Honolulu, was voted Miss Congeniality by her fellow contestants. The award was accompanied by a $1,000 scholarship for Miss Lee, who has been working her way through college as a hula dancer.

Lynda held her first official news conference as Miss America at Atlantic City Sunday.

She said she would like to meet Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev this week in the interest of world peace.

Succeeds Sorority Sister

The University of Mississippi junior, who succeeds her Chi Omega sorority sister Mary Ann Mobley as Miss America, said such a meeting would further President Eisenhower's "people-to-people" program.

The new Miss America weighs 120 pounds and is 5 feet, 7 inches tall. She measures 36-24-36.

Lynda came to New York from Atlantic City with a police escort Sunday. She spent today being fitted for her wardrobe for her year-long tour, which will cover some 150,000 miles in every state and western Europe.

The others in the top 10 were Arizona's Patricia A. Allebrand, 18, of Yuma; California's Susan D. Bronson, 19, of San Lorenzo; Illinois Suzanne Johnson, 21, of Chicago; New York's Bonnie Joe Marquis, 19, of Huntington; Pennsylvania's Lois J. Piercy, 21, of Springfield; Tennessee's Marion Wayland, 18, of Knoxville; Washington's Sharon Vaughn, 21, of Seattle, and Wisconsin's Mary Fox, 20, of Sheboygan.

GIRLS FOR MOM, DAUGHTER

NORWALK, Calif. (UPI) — A mother and daughter gave birth to baby girls the same day in the same hospital, it was announced today. Carol Ann DeBauer, 16, and her mother, Aletha Vandenberg, both gave birth to daughters Sept. 6 at Studebaker Hospital here.
