

Ike Gets Wish On Air Trip

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower accomplished one of his long-cherished aims by talking Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev into taking an unscheduled helicopter whirl around the capital.

The 33-minute flight in a Marine helicopter late Tuesday afternoon was not part of Khrushchev's official itinerary. Eisenhower suggested it during the limousine ride to the city from Andrews Air Force Base and the Russian leader agreed.

The President told a news conference in month ago that he would like Khrushchev to fly along in a chopper and just make a circuit of the district of Columbia and to see the uncountable homes that have been built all around, modest but decent fine, comfortable homes.

The flight, which came while the cars of thousands of home-bound government workers jammed Washington's streets and highways, also should have removed Khrushchev's doubts about the number of automobiles in America.

Khrushchev had indicated he was skeptical of Vice President Richard M. Nixon's statement in Russia that there are 60 million cars in the United States. It was one of the Soviet leader's misconceptions about this country that Eisenhower wanted to clear up.

In addition to the crush of cars on the streets, Khrushchev got a birds-eye view of homes that ranged from sprawling estates near country clubs—some with two cars, and a swimming pool—to a rather rundown neighborhood in nearby Alexandria, Va.

Khrushchev sat in the seat normally occupied by Eisenhower, alongside a broad window. Also in the helicopter were Capt. E. P. Aurand, naval aide to the President, two interpreters, a U.S. Secret Service man and a Soviet security officer.

Smargasbord Is Held At Wallowa Lake By Women

'Warpaint' Ridden At Pendleton

PENDLETON (UPI) — Warpaint, one of the toughest broncs in the business according to rodeo riders, was ridden Wednesday night by Jim Rosser, Weiser, Ida, because the turf was wet and slippery.

Riders agreed that the big horse would not have been ridden on dry ground, although the judges allowed Rosser the riding time.

About 7500 people watched the Roundup events Wednesday night.

Over 60 Children Made Court Wards

PORTLAND (UPI) — More than 60 children were made wards of the Juvenile Court here Tuesday in action instituted by the State Welfare Department's recovery division.

In one instance, Circuit Judge Virgil H. Langtry took away two children of one woman.

Twenty-two women appeared before the judge. They all were recipients of aid to dependent children from state welfare. The women had been cited before him by an assistant attorney general assigned to the welfare recovery division.

The judge in nearly all the cases ruled the children could continue to live with their mothers under supervision of welfare.
