

MR. AND MRS. RUSSELL RHODIG
Married in La Grande

Local Couple Married In Pioneer Park Church

Phyllis Ruth Read, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Read of La Grande, and Russell Delmar Rhodig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell D. Rhodig also of La Grande, were married Aug. 14, in the Pioneer Park Church of God.

The Rev. Harold W. Neal officiated at the ceremony. Miss Marcia Miller was soloist; she sang "Because" and the "Lords Prayer," accompanied by Miss Leola Miller.

Decorations in the church included two baskets of pink and white gladioli, placed near the altar.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length, brocade satin gown, made by the bride's mother. She carried a white orchid on a white ribbon with streamers. A crown of white flowers held the elbow length veil.

Maid of honor was Miss Kathy Read, a sister of the bride. She wore a light pink brocade taffeta sheath dress and an artificial crown of pink roses. She carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. Her accessories were white gloves and shoes.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Nethe Rhodig, sister of the groom, and Sheila Statler. They were dressed in medium pink brocade taffeta sheath dresses. Their crowns were pink artificial roses and they carried bouquets of pink and white gladioli.

Miss Sara Workman and Miss Bettie Workman, cousins of the bride, were the candle lighters. They wore pink bouffant street length dresses.

Charles Rhodig, a brother of the groom was best man, and ushers were, Bill Carson, groom's brother-in-law, and Volkert H. K. Gobel.

Billy Carson, groom's nephew, was the ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a beige suit with beige and white accessories, and a corsage of pink and white roses. The groom's mother wore a black and white afternoon dress with white accessories, and a pink and white rose corsage.

A reception was held in the church basement, decorated with baskets of gladioli in a variety of colors, carrying out the pink and white color scheme.

Mrs. Louis C. Statler served the wedding cake, and Mrs. Ray-

Fall Rushing Activities Are Progressing

Fall rushing activities of Alpha Epsilon Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, are progressing for the season.

Chapter members and their guests recently traveled via a progressive dinner, through the "Wide Wide World," their educational program for the year. Each guest received their itinerary in a travel folder, with destination and arrival times listed for each dinner course.

The respective homes of Mrs. Tom Cook, Mrs. Keith Patten, Mrs. Robert Stuart and Mrs. Ray McFarland were hosts to the group.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Willard Carey, Mrs. Albert Zieg, Mrs. George Garoutte, Mrs. Jackie Kelley, Mrs. Geri Cummings and Mrs. Elmer McManus. Mrs. Lucile Lumsden, new social sponsor, was introduced and welcomed by the group.

Mrs. Peck Gives Devotional On Saints Born In September

The first fall meeting of St. Ann's Guild was held in the Parish hall Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Elmer Peck chose for her devotional study, a brief summary of the lives of the two Saints whose birthdays fall in September, St. Matthew and St. Michael. Following this, she read the collects for these two days, and the Lord's Prayer was recited by the group.

Mrs. Merritt Owen called the business meeting to order, and the minutes of the June meeting together with the treasurer's report read to the group.

It was reported that a refrigerator had been purchased with money earned by the two church guilds at a special project in June. A number of needs for the church were discussed. The motion was made that the Sunday School superintendent be instructed to investigate blackboards which could be used in the Sunday School classrooms.

A storage vessel for refreshments for the Sunday School youngsters will be purchased so that Mothers may bring their contributions of cookies, crackers and Kool-aid, thus assuring a supply on hand when needed.

Mrs. R. W. Tomerason reported on the area meeting which was held in Cove Sept. 11 and 12. The Rev. Charles Wood, Rector of St. Stephen's Church in Baker, gave a program on the work of the Parish Choir. He gave a brief history of the types of early music used in the church.

Refreshments were served by hostesses, Mrs. James Burr and Mrs. Robert Orr.
