Side Glances

By VERNON SCOTT UPI Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)-Vincent Price, who surrounds himself with great works of art, is making a living acting in movies best decribed as great works of junk.

In the past few years Price has starred in such goodies as "The Fly," "The Return of the Fly," "House on Haunted Hill" and "The Bat." All were third-rate horror pictures.

"Too many producers make movies for one another saying. 'Isn't this a great, significant picture?' Maybe so, but they are the vent them from being funny. If you only ones who see them.

Entertaining Films "And the critics make me ang-not made to be great-just entertaining." Actually, Price leads a double life. Almost half his time is spent

"I earn more money making horror movies," he said. "My two yearly sours cover almost every state in the union. I leave this week for 55 dates in 60 days, leave the state of the said of the said. "Believe the said of the said of the said." I saw the body. It was not suicide, "Dr. Stanley Spector, professor of Oriental studies at Washington University, said.

Police and federal agents have questioned Mrs. Juanita Spector, who made the trin from the Far the Philippines.
