AAUW Units To Hold Meet At Ontario

Representatives of seven branches of the American Association of University Women will meet in Ontario Sunday for the first of three fall workshops, planned by the Oregon division. Those attending from the La Grande branch are President, Alene Gossage, Eva Wear, and Mrs. Fred Tuveson.

Workshops are designed to correlate state and branch activities for the year. Special emphasis this year will be given to the AAUW survey on Oregon school district financing. Mrs. J. M. Bedford, Pendleton, elementary and secondary education chairman and Mrs. R. J. Wiener, Portland, legislative chairman, are in charge of the project and time has been scheduled for discussion of their plans.

Mrs. Gerald Whitney, Athena, state vice-president, is head of Workshop programming and has selected "Road of Wisdom" as the theme. Luncheon speaker at Ontario will be Mrs. Carl Brandenfelds, St. Helens, state president of AAUW.

The Oregon division chairmen and all of the state officers will attend the Ontario workshop.

Sites were chosen so that all of Oregon's 29 AAUW branches can be represented at one of the workshops. Approximately 50 association members are expected at Ontario. Eastern Idaho branches have also been invited, according to Mrs. Brandenfelds.

McKee will play records. There will be a small nominal charge.

The VFW will meet at 8 p.m. Friday, in the VFW hall.

Celebrating birthdays today are Erna Greenough, Perry; Ardena Fihn, Mrs. R. J. Martin; W. E. McClure and Fred A. Balmes of La Grande.
