Shoppers Will Continue To Find Bargains

WASHINGTON (UPI)—As cooler weather approaches, the nation's thrifty shoppers will continue to find pork, beef, and poultry, highlighting the best values in protein foods.

Other protein foods which continue to be popular are the smaller eggs, and many types of cheese. Vegetable bins, while varieties are narrowing, offer good supplies of potatoes and sweet potatoes, onions, carrots, several kinds of squash, cucumbers, cabbage and snap beans.

In fruits, apples continue to headline early fall offerings. But many markets are featuring excellent supplies of pears, grapes, oranges and lemons. Cranberries are beginning to show up now, along with new-crop grapefruit.

These are the week-end's best buys, nationally. Now, here's a closer look at plentiful foods in Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington, Wyoming.

Consumers will have to shop carefully to find the most attractive buys this week. Pork is in best supply among the red meats, and some cuts are slightly lower in price.

Egg supplies are lighter, and prices are increasing. Eggs are 3 to 4 cents a dozen higher this week in the Los Angeles area.

Best fish buys are rockfish, salmon and flounder.
