

'World Religions' Theme Of Sorority

September has been a very busy month for the members of Delta Epsilon, Epsilon Sigma Alpha. The first meeting of the chapter was held in the home of Mrs. Connie Struck with 20 members present.

Programs for the year were passed out to the girls in keeping with the study program for the year, "World Religions."

Marg Knight reported on plans for the group's rummage sale.

President, Sharon Hickey reported on the International Convention held in June at Portland, which several of the girls attended. The district council meeting was held Sunday, Aug. 30 in Jone. Mary Ruth Carnes gave a report on the meeting which she and Nadine DeKalb, Kay Hilyard, Joan McGee, Joan King and Darlene Wagner attended. At this meeting it was decided to hold Spring District Council in La Grande, with Delta Epsilon as hostess chapter.

Hostesses for the evening were Jolita Hill, Jeannine Trotter and Ann Hau.

The educational meeting for the month was held at the home of Jo Sweet Sept. 16.

A report on plans for the Christmas formal was given by the chairman, Bernice Webster and several committees were appointed.

Janet Cochran and Bernice Webster and Louise Young were hostesses for the evening.

Cleta Kirkland and Marg Knight gave the program for the evening, giving the reasons why man needed a religion and how the church began, with a comparison of the eight basic religions, made.
