

Mountaineers Explode For 28-7 Victory In Loop Opener

Big Upsets Mark Pro Grid Tilts

United Press International
Talk about 12-horse parlay, who would have picked the San Francisco Forty-Niners and the Green Bay Packers to wind up as the only unbeaten teams in the National Football League after the first two weeks of head-scratching?

However, that was the situation today after one of the greatest waves of upsets in the 40-year history of the NFL.

It all started Saturday night when the Chicago Bears (6-0) point underdogs, rolled to a 26-21 victory over the Baltimore Colts, defending world champions.

But that was only the beginning. Four of Sunday's five games also produced upsets. The Philadelphia Eagles (3-0) point underdogs, ripped the 1958 Eastern Division champion New York Giants, 49-21; the Washington Redskins (7-0) point underdogs, turned back the Pittsburgh Steelers, 23-17; the Cleveland Browns (4-0) point underdogs, rolled to a 41-7 triumph over the Chicago Cardinals; and the Forty-Niners (4-0) point underdogs, handed the Los Angeles Rams their first shutout since 1953, 34-0.

The oddsmakers didn't even come close on the Green Bay-Detroit game. The Packers were favored by one point on the basis of their 9-0 opening victory over the Bears but they were going away, 26-10.

While the form-followers shook their heads in dismay, the Packers and Forty-Niners found themselves sharing first place in the Western Division with 2-0 records. In the Eastern Division, all six teams were tied for the lead with identical 1-1 marks.

Richmond Hands Cove 36-13 Loss

COVE (Special)—Cove's Leopards took a 36-13 loss at the hands of Richmond last Friday as Richmond tallied three times with less than three minutes to go in the game.

Richmond was leading 16-13 when intercepted passes accounted for a TD and set up two others as the Leopards took to the air to pull the game out of the fire.

Richmond scored single touchdowns in the first and second quarters to lead 16-0. The Leopards came back to score six points on a 25-yard pass from Rich Robinson to John Chase in the third period. Cove narrowed the gap to two points on a 30-yard TD pass from Frank Conley to David Gassaway. John Haggerty scored the PAT on a pass from Conley.

Richmond then intercepted a Conley pass following the kickoff, and returned it 79 yards for the score to put Richmond safely in front. Two other passes were intercepted and both converted into touchdowns in the waning moments of the game.

Cove dominated play throughout the game and outlasted Richmond, picking up 346 yards offensively. Robinson gained 120 yards on the ground and 72 passing. Conley completed seven of 16 passes for 113 yards but it was the worst afternoon he has experienced passing.

Richmond's five touchdowns were all on long plays—all coming on plays of more than 40 yards.

Cove Coach Arch Lowry said he thought Cove had played their best game of the season and singled out Doug Carber and John

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Fred Haney today was a man of leisure — by choice — following his long-expected resignation as manager of the Milwaukee Braves.

The spunky little baseball brain called it quits Sunday night after a meeting with the Braves from office brass here for the World Series that the Milwaukee club almost made.

"There is no problem, I've just had enough of active baseball," the 61-year-old Haney said. "I have no future plans—other than a long rest."

Haney was reported to have been proffered a new one-year contract by Braves General Manager John McHale. Although Haney resigned here, the step was announced officially by the ball club in Milwaukee.

There was no immediate announcement from the Braves' management regarding a replacement. However, mentioned as prominent "choices" were Bobby Bragan, Leo Durocher and Red Schoendienst.

The championship winning skipper was not expected to remain idle long. He already is assured of one job. Like his fellow southern California, Casey Stengel, he was set to become a banker—vice president of the Studio City Bank of San Fernando Valley.

Then there were reports he would soon return to broadcasting baseball, either as a voice for the Los Angeles Dodgers or as the replacement for Leo Durocher who recently gave up the job of calling the National Broadcasting Company's "Game of the Day." Haney once had a devoted audience as the sportscaster of the Hollywood Stars baseball team.

Haney, a Los Angeles resident, has always said he wished to "retire" here.

His 90-year-old mother lives here. He also has children and grandchildren residing in southern California.

Barry McKay Wins Coast Net Tourney

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI)—Dave is Cup star Barry McKay. Dayton, Ohio, had a pair of sore feet and the men's singles championship of the 79th annual Pacific Coast Tournament today.

McKay bested India's Ramanathan Krishnan, 7-5, 6-4, 1-6, 6-2 in Sunday's final. Dorothy Head Knobe, now of Panama and formerly of Alameda, Calif., won the women's title by polishing off Ann Haydon of England, 7-5, 6-4.

McKay said his sore feet were a souvenir of California's hard courts. But they did not appear to bother him today as he broke Krishnan's service in the fourth game of the fourth set to take a 3-1 lead and then ran out the match. Their battle lasted only a little more than an hour. McKay's smoking serve accounted for 16 aces.

Chase for outstanding defensive work.

Score Four Times In 7 Minutes

MONMOUTH (Special)—Eastern Oregon College exploded for four touchdowns in the second quarter against Oregon College as the Mountaineers grabbed a victory in the opening Oregon Collegiate Conference game for both teams Saturday night.

The Mountaineers scored four times in seven minutes after spotting the Wolves a 7-0 lead in the first quarter, then coasted to the win.

The Wolves jumped into a 7-0 lead in the first period when Bob Gates plunged three yards into the end zone for the score and Dick Routsen converted. The touchdown came at the end of a 47-yard march in 10 plays by the Wolves.

Trailing with 7:48 left to play in the half, the Mountaineers came to life. The roof began to sag on the Wolves when George Aliverti raced 38 yards to score and John Willmarth converted the first of four straight attempts.

An intercepted pass gave EOC their second scoring opportunity just minutes later. Willmarth cashed the drive in from two yards out and converted to put the Mountaineers out in front to stay.

Jerry Williams and Willmarth then added two more touchdowns in rapid-fire order. Williams raced 27 yards for the third EOC six pointer and before the crowd could get settled in their seats, Willmarth scooped a fumble out of mid-air and rambled 24 yards for the fourth and final score, as the horn sounded.

The Wolves recovered from the shock in the third period and threatened to score. Oregon College drove to the Mountaineer two-yard line before EOC's defense stiffened and took over on downs.

Aliverti gained 115 yards in 18 carries and Williams gained 111 in 14 tries with the ball. Art Kreuger was the workhorse for OCE with 60 yards in 12 carries.

Statistically, the Mountaineers had 16 first downs to 3 for the Wolves while rolling up 269 yards to 121. The Wolves gained 29 yards passing to only 13 for EOC. Both teams threw 11 times and EOC completed two and the Wolves three.

The Mountaineers intercepted two of the Wolves' tosses that figured in EOC scoring.

Oregon Tech defeated Portland State College 20-7 in the only other conference game.

Eastern Oregon—TD's: Aliverti (38 yard run), Willmarth (2 yard run), Williams (57 yard run), Willmarth (24 yards recovered fumble), PAT's: Willmarth (4 kicks).

Oregon College—TD's: Gates (3 yard run), PAT's: Routsen (kick).

PORTERFIELD RELEASED
PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Bob Porterfield, who won only one game this year, has been given his unconditional release by the Pittsburgh Pirates. The 35-year-old former New York Yankee and Washington Senator pitcher worked only 47 2-3 innings and had a 5.14 earned run average this year.

Centennial Won By Bill Casper

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—Billy Casper Jr. came back to the scene of his first money-winning effort as a professional golfer—a tiny $33—and walked off Sunday with a check for $2,800.

He shot four great rounds of sub-par golf in the $20,000 Portland Centennial Open tournament to finish three strokes ahead of the field and win his first event since the U.S. Open at Mamaroneck, N.Y., last June.

It was a demonstration of master putting by the 28-year-old pro from Apple Valley, Calif. He three-putted only one green in 72 holes and only had three bogeys. His putts over 72 holes totaled only 117.

Casper's main threats on the final day came from Bob Duden, Oswego, Ore., who had his finest pro round with four straight 63s, and Dave Ragan of Orlando, Fla. Ragan came in with a 67 Sunday, his third in three days after an opening round of 71. Ragan and Duden tied for second, two strokes ahead of Mason Rudolph of Knoxville, Tenn.

Win-Starved Bevos Drop Another, 7-6

CORVALLIS (UPI)—Oregon State College's win-starved Beavers today tightened their belts and looked hungrily for a win next weekend against Michigan, their third consecutive intercollegiate foe.

The Beavers dropped their third game of the season Saturday to the Nebraska Cornhusker, 7-6 on a one-point conversion off the toe of Nebraska sophomore Ron Meade.

Meade's boot followed a four-yard second-quarter scoring pass from Husker quarterback Harry Tolly to halfback Carroll Zaruba. The score capped a 57-yard scoring drive launched when guard Dick Kosier recovered his second Oregon State fumble in the first half.

Harbin Sparks Drive
Midway in the third period, sophomore tailback Earl Harbin sparked an 88-yard Beaver scoring thrust with some sparkling passing. Harbin, a southpaw, slipped a 35-yarder to wingback Ron Miller to move the ball to the Nebraska 19.

Moments later with a fourth-and-seven situation, Harbin again took to the air and hit end Jerry Doman on the one-yard line. Doman bulled his way into the end zone to make the score 7-6.

Try For Two Fails
Fullback Jim Stinnette rammed head-on into a massed Nebraska forward wall and was stopped two yards shy of the goal to seal OSC's doom.

"We play to win, not to tie, and unfortunately we didn't quite make it," Prothro explained in disappointment after the game. "Playing for a tie isn't in keeping with what any football coach teaches," the Beaver mentor added.

PALERMO FACES CHARGES

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Frank (Blinky) Palermo, 54, was held in $100,000 bail Friday on charges of trying to share in the earnings of welterweight boxing champion Don Jordan. U.S. Commissioner Edward W. Furia set the bail on an order from U.S. District Court Judge Pierson Hall of Los Angeles. Palermo will be taken to California to face charges along with four other boxing figures.

Big Game Hunters! BRING YOUR KILLS HERE!

Dodgers Edge Chicago, 3-1; Take Lead In World Series

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles Dodgers, leading two games to one, figured they faced their biggest obstacle today—Earl Wynn—in their hope of winning the World Series in five games.

Now 17-10 favorites to win the series, the Dodgers players believed if they could beat Wynn they would wrap the series up on Tuesday. But they agreed that beating Wynn, who shut them out 11-0, in the first game, was a big job.

"But we're rolling now," said Manager Walter Alston, after admitting the Dodgers were lucky to win Sunday's second game, 3-1, before the largest World Series crowd ever—92,294 fans who jammed Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

He named Roger Craig, who took that first game trouncing to oppose the White Sox ace who won 22 games and lost 10 during the regular season. Craig was a tower of strength for the Dodgers, after being recalled from Seattle, winning 11 games while losing five.

Ducks Win Third; Top Cougars

EUGENE (UPI)—Oregon's Webfoots, with three wins under their belts and booming fullback Dave Powell on the ailing list, today were looking forward to a Friday night clash with improved San Jose State at San Jose, Calif.

The Ducks, using Powell in the first half and reserve fullback Harry Needham in the final half battled their way to a 14-6 over Washington State here Saturday before 16,800 fans.

Powell crashed across the Cougar front wall from a yard out in the second period to give Oregon the lead. The drive was set up by a pass interception by Alden Kimbrough. Ron Daniels boot the conversion.

Aggie Sparks Drive
Second-string quarterback Mike Aggie, pitching four completed passes in four tries, sparked a 62-yard fourth-quarter Washington State drive that was stopped on the Oregon one-foot line.

After Oregon's brilliant junior quarterback Dave Groat punted to WSU, the Cougars started another drive from the Duck 44. Ten plays later, Mel Melin lobbed a fourth-down-and-goal-to-go pass to end Don Johnston. Oregon guard Dave Urell hauled down Chuck Lincoln on an attempted sweep around end for a two-point conversion try, leaving the Ducks in the lead, 7-6.

Grayson Intercepts
Later in the period, with WSU again in possession after an Oregon punt, halfback Dave Grayson intercepted a Melin pass on the Oregon 42. Grayson was flat on his back as he caught the juggled ball. The Ducks scored 14 plays later with Needham crashing over from the two. Daniels again kicked the point, with 21 seconds remaining.

The Cougars started once more on the offensive, but reserve quarterback Dick Arbuckle picked off a desperation heave by Melin to sew up the game for Oregon.

Today's game was a 11-10 pick-em affair with another record-breaking thrashing anticipated.

Lack Key Hits

In naming Wynn, Manager Al Loper of the White Sox bemoaned the lack of key hits in Sunday's game.

"I can't recall when we ever got to a pitcher for 11 hits and five walks in six innings like we did to Don Drysdale and not score," he declared. "That's the way it goes sometimes—you out-hit 'em, but they get 'em when they need 'em. That's the way it was."

Alston, who has been confident all along, would not go beyond his pitching plans after naming Craig to face Wynn again. Neither would Loper disclose whom he had in mind for Tuesday's fifth game.

Alston did say that his relief ace, Larry Sherry, a hero in the Dodgers' pennant playoff victory and in Sunday's game, would be back in the bullpen.

The game was scoreless going into the bottom of the seventh inning, although the White Sox had runners on base in every inning.

Allowed One Hit

Big Dick Donovan had allowed only one hit—a harmless second inning single by Gil Hodges—and hadn't walked a man going into the seventh. He got the first man in that inning and then came apart at the seams.

Charlie Neal, who with Furillo was one of the pennant playoff hitting stars for the Dodgers, began it with a single off that left field screen which the White Sox had been battering. On a hit-and-run play, Wally Moon grounded out, Neal going to second. It probably would have been a double play if Neal had gone off with the pitch.

Then Donovan's control deserted him. He walked Norm Larker and Hodges to fill the bases, and although he had yielded only two hits, Lopez took him out for relief ace Gerry Staley.

Alston sent up Carl Furillo, who won the second and final playoff game for the Dodgers, to hit for Don Demeter who had been playing center field.

PRINCETON, N.J. (UPI)—Don Sachs, Princeton's hard-running tailback, may be sidelined next Saturday when the Tigers play Pennsylvania in a key game of the Ivy League football season. Sachs is believed to have suffered a bone separation of a chip in Saturday's 22-0 victory over Columbia and may be out of the lineup four weeks.

Staley closed the door then, but it was too late.

Chicago came back in the eighth and finally routed Drysdale when Ted Kluszewski singled and Sherm Lollar got a gift single as right field Moon lost his fly ball in the sun.

That's where Sherry went in to pitch. He hit Billy Goodman on the right leg with a pitch to fill the bases and it looked as if the White Sox finally were rolling.

Sherry had different ideas, though. He got Al Smith to ground into a double play. Kluszewski scoring, and retired Jim Rivera on a pop.

The Dodgers made it 3-1 in the eighth when Maury Wills singled and scored on Neal's double.

Willamette Slips By Pacific U.

By United Press International
Willamette University's Beavers got a scare Saturday as they opened defense of their Northwest Conference football crown, but managed to hold on to a slim 14-12 win over Pacific University.

The stubborn Badgers spotted host Willamette a 14-0 halftime lead and then came roaring back to score in both the third and fourth periods to pull within two points of the Beavers.

Two more Pacific drives in the final minutes were stopped short and a desperation field goal attempt from the Willamette 39 fell short for Paul Stagg's Badgers.

In a high-scoring affair, quarterback Charley Alvaro sparked a come-from-behind College of Idaho attack to down Lewis and Clark in Portland, 32-31.

Alvaro scored two touchdowns, passed for another and kicked two conversions. He tallied 202 yards passing and chucked up another 65 yards in 10 carries on the ground.

Royce McDaniel led the L. & C. attack, passing for one score and tallying another on a one-yard plunge.

Linfield rolled to an easy 34-12 win over Southern Oregon College in McMinnville Saturday night in a non-league affair. It was the Wildcats' third straight win.

The other Northwest Conference club, Whitman, was idle.
