

MR. AND MRS. DALE CAMPBELL
Married in Elgin Church

Church Rites Unite Simmons, Campbell

Miss Marvalene Jean Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rolin C. Simmons of Elgin, and Dale W. Campbell, son of Alvin Campbell and Mrs. Joan Bright, both of La Grande, were united in marriage Aug. 23.

The Rev. Volney Johnson performed the ceremony in the Church of the Nazarene at Elgin. The church was decorated with bouquets of gladioli.

Mrs. Genevieve McCall was the organist, she also accompanied soloist, Mrs. Ethel Smith, who sang "God Gave Me You," and then kneeling at the altar, "Hear Our Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a princess style gown of white flannel over satin, with a floor length skirt. The neckline was sweetheart and the sleeves were long and pointed at the wrist. Her veil was finger-tip length. She carried an orchid on a white ribbon. The bride made her own wedding dress.

Miss Sandra White was the maid of honor. She wore an orchid dress, fashioned after the bride except it was sleeveless and street length. She carried a lavender rose nosegay.

The Misses Kathy Gollihar and Connie Spikes were bridesmaids. They were dressed in orchid dresses same as the maid of honor, and carried the same kind of nosegays.

Kim Taylor, a cousin of the groom, was the flower girl. Her dress was pink, nylon and she carried a basket of rose petals. Judith Simmons, sister of the bride, and Donna Lou White, were the candle lighters. They also wore orchid dresses.

Larry Campbell, brother of the groom, was the best man, and Leland Fager, David Harman and Bruce Beaman were ushers.

For the occasion the mother of the bride wore a pink brocade, two piece dress, lavender rose corsage and white accessories. The groom's mother wore a blue dress, white accessories and a lavender rose corsage.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the church. The four tiered wedding cake was made by Ethel Smith. It was topped with sugar bells and a lavender ribbon. Mrs. Judith Hunt and Patricia Rencke served the cake, and Marilyn Sherwood poured.

Janice Simmons, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Judith Campbell, sister of the groom, Jackie Kuykendall and Sharon Colclasure were in charge of gifts.

The newlyweds honeymooned to Seaside and Portland. For her traveling the bride wore a rust brown suit and the orchid from her Bible bouquet.

They are at home in the Eocene Courts of La Grande. The bride is a graduate of Elgin High School and the groom a graduate of La Grande High School. He is attending EOC and is employed by the U.S. Forest Service.

Local Hope Chapter 13 Holds OES School Of Instruction

Order of Eastern Star, Hope chapter 13, members recently held a dinner at The Wheel, prior to their meeting. Virginia Kubler, worthy matron and Dr. William Kubler, worthy patron, presided.

A school of instruction was held by Florence Jaeger, of Condon, associate grand conductor of the grand chapter of Oregon. Guests were present from Cherry Chapter of Cove and Blue Mountain Chapter of Elgin.

An addenda was given honoring the associate grand conductress, by officers and courtesy sisters. A gift of money was given to Mrs. Jaeger, for the worthy grand matrons project.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Johnson, worthy patron and matron of Cherry Chapter, were escorted to the East and welcomed. Past grand matrons also honored were Pearl McClay and Laurene Hibberd.

Refreshments were served from a table centered with a bouquet of red and white dahlias. Committee for the evening was Helen Cash and Juanita Olson, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Harrison, Jim Cash, Lila McDonald and Gertrude McVey, assisting.

Witnesses Will Hold Training Meet In Idaho

About 68 Jehovah's witnesses from the La Grande congregation are leaving this week to attend the three-day Bible training convention to be held in Caldwell, Idaho Oct. 9-11, M. Burling, president of the congregation, said today.

Approximately 900 ministers and guests are expected to attend during the peak of the sessions.

Assemblies of this type are held semi-annually to train the witnesses in their ministry work and to teach them how to more clearly adopt Bible principles to their daily living. In line with this, the convention program will be presented around the theme, "Do The Divine Will."

A special baptism service will be held Saturday afternoon, and the first showing in this vicinity of the Watchtower Society's new film, "Divine Will: International Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses" will be presented that evening.

The highlight of the convention will be the public talk Sunday afternoon. M. M. Kolar, convention chairman and district supervisor of the Witnesses, will speak on the subject, "When Is God's Will to Be Done on Earth?"

The meeting will be held at the Jefferson Junior High School. The public is invited to attend any of all sessions.

Knights, Sisters Hold Card Party

The Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters held their first card party of the season at the K.P. hall Saturday evening. In spite of the hunting season, a nice group attended for the evening.

Prizes went to the following: Margaret Hoover, ladies' first; Margie Schwebke, ladies' fourth; Alfred Hiatt, mens' first; Jack Nickschinske, mens' fourth. Bill Kirkman, 300 pinochle and Eva Dunham five nines. The door prize went to Rose Gettle.

Refreshments were served by Gladys Gardner and Martha Fowler. The next card party will be held at the K.P. hall at 8 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 17.

'Iris' Garden Club Subject

Iris was the flower subject for the October meeting of the Garden Club, when they met in the clubhouse Friday.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Gertrude Summers. A short business meeting followed the salute to the flag.

Mrs. Leta Bray and Mrs. Grace Thew, the committee in charge, then gave an informative talk and discussion on the iris. The many different species and how to cultivate and grow them in our location.

The tea table was centered with a centerpiece of autumn flowers, and other arrangements were placed about the room.

4-H Club News

The Mt. Glen Homemakers, 4-H club organized their 1960 group. Elected were the following oficers: Eloise Speckhart, president; Eloise McCoy, vice president; Ruth Hosie, secretary; Mary Virginia Speckhart, song leader; and Beverly Hoxie, reporter.

They held their first business meeting Sept. 29, and planned the year's work. They selected their goals to work toward, and read the 4-H Constitution.

The meeting was completed with a bread molding demonstration, given by Eloise McCoy.
