

Pendleton Topples Tigers With Passing, Runs, 27-7

TWO LAST PERIOD SCORES STOP LA GRANDE RALLY

By NEIL ANDERSEN

PENDLETON (Special)—Pendleton's powerful Buckaroos rolled to a convincing 27-7 victory over La Grande last night at the Round-Up stadium before 2,000 partisan fans.

The contest was fairly even until the fourth period when the Bucks exploded for two touchdowns, the last coming with only 16 seconds to play, after La Grande had crumpled to 14-7 as the quarter opened.

Pendleton scored single touchdowns in the first and second periods to lead 14-0 at halftime before the Tiger offense got into gear. Pendleton dominated first half action on wide sweeps, screen passes and a strong defense that kept the Tigers from mounting a serious threat.

The Buckaroos scored their first touchdown on a 72 yard march with Jerry Blevisz scooting into the end zone from 10 yards out for the tally. Chuck Eliason booted the extra point. Pendleton capitalized on an intercepted pass in the second quarter to make it 14-0.

Ron Coleman recovered a Pendleton fumble on the La Grande 27-yard stripe and Jim Cornett and Dave Carman alternated for five yards. Ray Westenskow went back to pass on third down and John McDonald picked off the toss at the La Grande 39 and returned it to the 21.

Ray Sharrah lost a yard at tackle and on the next play went down and out to grab a pass from quarterback Dennis Tyler for the score.

Eliason's kick was again good.

and the Bucks lead 14-0. La Grande came back after the half-time break and began to move the ball on option plays from Westenskow to Don Smith and Carman. The Tigers mounted their first serious threat in the third period, moving to the Buck 43-yard line before being held for downs.

The two teams exchanged punts twice in the third period before La Grande had an opportunity to score. Dale Peterson returned a Jerry Cronin kick from the 11 to the 22 where the Tigers began a 72 yards drive.

Westenskow lost three yards on the first play but Carman galloped 18 yards to the 43 to get the drive going. Smith picked up 11 at right end on the next play. Carman plowed off tackle, bumped heads with a Pendleton tackler, spun off and raced 39 yards down the sideline to the eight where he was forced out of bounds.

Smith gained five to the three-yard line and Carman moved the ball to the one. Cornett failed to gain and on fourth down, Westenskow moved off tackle on a keeper for the score. Buck Corey's kick split the uprights and La Grande fans began to hope.

Their visions of a comeback were shattered three plays after the kickoff. Cronin had galloped 30 yards to the Tiger 40 on the first play from scrimmage. On the next play he was stopped cold and then Blevisz burst through the line and went straight down the middle for the TD. Eliason made his kick good and the score was 21-7 with only 6:44 left.

The Bucks added the fourth touchdown with only 16 seconds to go. La Grande was held for downs on the Buck 17 after the kickoff. A razzle-dazzle pass from Peterson to Carman good for 25 yards was the big gain.

Pendleton moved to the Tiger 48 in five plays, lost a yard, then Tyler stood up and tossed a look-in pass to end Bill Cook who grabbed the ball across the middle on the 40 and raced untouched into the end zone. Eliason's kick was blocked and it stopped the Buck's consecutive PAT string at 11.

Pendleton had 16 first downs to 12 for the Tigers and gained 425 yards to 351 for La Grande.

Running yardage favored Pendleton 232 to 159 and passing yardage was 128 to 70.

Tyler completed five of 11 tosses while a trio of Tiger passers completed only three of eight.

Peterson who completed one pass for 25 yards was on the receiving end of a Cornett toss as the gun sounded. Peterson out-jumped two Buck defenders to take the ball on the 39 as the last ditch effort failed to go for a TD.

In other league contests Baker upset Hermiston 21-13; Prineville measured Bend 34-13; and Redmond shutout The Dalles, 13-0.

Oregon's hunting toll continues to mount as the 1959 general deer season moves into its second week. Ten hunters have died so far, four from gunshot wounds and six from heart seizures. The final count will go even higher before the curtain rolls down on fall hunting.

The addition of waterfowl and upland game bird hunters to the increasing numbers that annually practice the hunter's skill can be expected to add to the total.

Some deaths are unavoidable. Hunting alone can not be blamed for all heart seizures but overexertion in the field is undoubtedly a big factor.

Carelessness in the woods accounts for the majority of accidents although Oregon's first week is just reversed. The eager hunter may forget where his companion is located when a big buck crashes into view. Or a hunter may become the victim of another hunting party who is unaware of his presence.

Accidents like these can be avoided if hunters will only remember to be sure of their target and take stock of where a bullet will go if it misses its mark.

There are people who refuse to go into the woods during hunting season for fear of being shot. Silly? They can hardly be blamed for their caution in view of the alarming number of persons killed or wounded in a season.

Some people should never be allowed in the woods with a rifle in the first place. At present there is no way of controlling who hunts or how. All a would-be hunter must do is purchase a license and a deer tag and have access to the necessary equipment. Some day, maybe, an examination will be devised for prospective hunters before a license to hunt is issued. Such a test would probably include written questions concerning safety in the woods and the proper care of firearms and in addition actual ability tests with a weapon.

Hunters will resent the necessity of having to take a test before being allowed to hunt. But something is going to have to be done to protect the hunter from careless and irresponsible gun-toters who make hunting a tragedy each year.

The Red Hat Days program has taken a big step in reducing friction between property owners and hunters but it is still falling short of the mark where safety is concerned.

Most hunters are careful and cautious; most of them pay attention to the rules of safe gun handling. But there are those who fail to be impressed with the deadly potential of the weapon they carry. This minority is ruining our hunting.

If a member of your hunting party is guilty of forgetting the rules of safety with firearms, deprive them of their guns. If they can't learn to pay attention to good sense they shouldn't be allowed to hunt.

The same should be true for strangers. You can't take their guns away but you can make it clear to them that they are endangering their own lives as well as the lives of others. And don't feel bad about noisy people who won't follow the rules. They don't deserve the same hunter's respect.

Oregonians must police their own hunting, at least for a time if each hunter will take the time to explain the rules of safety to their children on a hunt and then set an example for the youngsters to follow. It will be a big help in reducing fatalities. It will create a breed of sportsman that thinks not only of himself but of the welfare and safety of his comrades who annually roam the woods.

It's up to you, the hunter, to keep hunting safe and enjoyable.

Elgin Rolls To Win Over Union

ELGIN (Special)—Elgin pulled out the stops and roared to a 41-0 victory over Union on the Husky field last night.

Elgin scored two touchdowns in each of the last three periods with Bill and Bob Showers and Tommy Hunt doing all the scoring. Hunt scored three times on runs of 6, 30, and 25 yards. Bob Showers rambled 75 and 36 yards for scores and brother Bill turned in an 86 yard romp.

The Huskies rolled to 492 yards on the ground and never went to the air as they blanketed the Bobcats.

Hunt picked up 140 yards rushing; Bill Showers ran for 181 and Bob for 144 for all but 27 yards of the Husky total.

Union never seriously threatened the Elgin goal line as the defensive unit led by Bruce Reed, Tom Barnes and John Davis kept the Bobcats well contained throughout the game.

Cove Captures Two Valley League Title

COVE (Special)—Cove's Leopards walloped North Powder 45-39 to win the Two Valley League championship yesterday.

Rich Robinson and John Haggerty scored three touchdowns apiece for the victory but Haggerty also chucked up two PAT's to lead all scorers with 20 points. John Chase tallied six points on a 40 yard kickoff return and Jim Mansfield accounted for an extra point to end the Leopard scoring.

Jerry Geckler ran two kick off backs for touchdowns to keep North Powder in the game. The Leopards ran for 285 yards and Frank Conley completed 10 of 17 tosses for 99 yards for a total of 364 yards.

Robinson scored on runs of 10 and 4 yards. Haggerty, who caught four passes, accounted for his points on a 10 yard run and passes of 15 and 20 yards from Conley. Haggerty's two extra points also came on passes from the Leopard quarterback.

The Leopards scored first after Robinson had blocked a punt on the first scrimmage play of the game and then ran for the TD on Cove's first try.

Coach Arch Lowry attributed the win to team work as the Leopards' ground attack kept them well in front of North Powder. Robinson was the workhorse again as he picked up crucial yardage to keep the Leopard offside rolling.

Green Bay, 49'er Clash Tops Pro Football Contests

United Press International—Green Bay's attempt to extend the National Football League's "miracle of 1959" and Cleveland's bid for revenge feature Sunday's six-game professional program.

The Packers, who won only one game in 1958, already have won two this season and are four-point choices to make it three at the expense of the San Francisco Forty-Niners, the league's only other unbeaten team. A capacity crowd of 32,150 will watch the Western Division leaders clash at Green Bay.

About 60,000 will swarm into Cleveland's lake-front stadium to watch coach Paul Brown's Browns tackle the New York Giants in a renewal of the Eastern Division's most bitter and most lucrative rivalry. Brown won't have to give any pep talks this week. The Giants cost each Brownie about $3,000 last December by blanketing Cleveland in a playoff for the Eastern Division crown.

Despite that 10-0 whitewashing and two other defeats suffered at the hands of the Giants in 1958, the Browns are 3½ point favorites.

The Baltimore Colts, defending league champions, are seven-point favorites to whip the Lions at Detroit. In the other games, the Bears are favored over the Los Angeles Rams by 7½ points at Chicago, the Redskins are one-point choices to beat the Chicago Cardinals at Washington, and the Eagles are picked over the Pittsburgh Steelers by two points at Philadelphia.

Green Bay and San Francisco are tied for the Western Division lead while all six Eastern Division clubs have 1-1 records.

Vince Lombardi, Green Bay's new coach, has directed his team to a 9-6 victory over the Bears and a 28-10 triumph over the Lions. Red Hickey, San Francisco's new coach, has directed his Huskies to a 24-14 victory over the Eagles and a 34-0 romp over the Rams.

Defense makes the difference in the NFL and the Packers and Forty-Niners have been strong in that department so far this season. San Francisco has allowed only 14 points in two games and Green Bay 16.

PLAY FINAL GAME

ORANGEBURG, S.C. (UPI)—Sophomore Bill Whaley passed for one touchdown and set up another Friday to lead the Citadel to a 40-8 triumph over Wofford in the final football meeting of the schools. The Citadel is severing athletic relations with the little three school because Wofford is not a member of the NCAA.

Gibson has been indicted along with four men, including Frankie Carbo, by a federal grand jury.

Ducks Tip San Jose State 35-12

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI)—The Oregon Webfoots unveiled a double wing attack to pile up a three-touchdown halftime margin last night, then coasted to an easy 35-12 victory over San Jose State.

The Ducks, who have now won four straight, went all the way the first two times they got the ball. Willie West went over from inside the five-yard line for the first touchdown. Cleveland Jones broke through from the seven for the second, and West scored again from inside the five to make it 21-0 at halftime.

Mistakes by the Spartans set up all three tallies, the first coming on a fumble by halfback Joe Paris.

The Spartans were never able to get in the game, scoring both their touchdowns against Oregon reserves in the second half. Ray Podesto passed for both scores.

Oregon scored in each of the last two quarters, the first being set up by a pass interception. The Ducks scored again in the fourth period when Emmet Lee elected to punt on fourth down and had it blocked by end Greg Altenhofen. The other wingman, Alden Kimbrough, scooped up the ball and ran it in for the score.

The one-sided contest was marked by frequent penalties. Oregon was penalized 120 yards, San Jose 100. The Spartans, resorting to percentage turned down 15-yard penalties in their favor four times when the down came up unfavorably for Oregon.

Hoger Daniels kicked all five Oregon points-after-touchdown, giving him 14 straight for the season.
