200 Parents Attend Central PTA Meet

An excess of 200 parents and teachers turned out for the "Back to School" event which was held in the Central School building Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served as the people entered the Multi-purpose room by the mothers of the rooms of Avery Milling, Robert Spencer, and William De Mastus. With the teacher as host or hostess, the parents gathered at the tables designated for each room.

Mrs. Edwin Craig, president, called the meeting to order and asked Mrs. Robert Clark to give the PTA prayer. This was followed by the reading of the minutes and the treasurer's report.

The chairmen of the various committees were called upon to make their reports. Mrs. John Turner stated that PTA membership were due and being collected. Mrs. Dock Baker reported the PTA Carnival would be held Saturday evening, Nov. 14, at 5:30. A copy of the yearly program was given out to each parent by Mrs. Emerson Smock. Mrs. Ted

Union Rainbow Installs New Officers

UNION (Special) — On Sunday afternoon, recently, the Union Rainbow Assembly 59 held a public installation. The Masonic hall was gaily decorated to the theme of "Tell Me Why" with these words written on a wall and clusters of balloons placed at the different stations.

The officers being installed were: Worthy Advisor, Peggy Jacob; Worthy Associate Advisor, Linda Adkins; Charity, Minnie Barton; Hope, Leese Taylor; Faith, Carolyn Viekers; Recorder, Claudia Herman; Treasurer, Wilma Titus; Drill Leader, Jackie Goodson; Chaplain, Judy Jacob; Love, Donna Richards; Religion, Cheryl Spain; Nature, Barbara Hutchinson; Immortality, Kathy Baum; Fidelity, Sharon Lores; Patriotism, Alice Smith; Service, Judy Hall; Confidential Observer, Sara White; Outer Observer, Diane White; Musician, Hazel Sudbrook; Choir Director, Sharon Stanford; Flag Bearer, Peggy Johnson.

The installing officers were: Installing Worthy Advisor, Marianne Ferguson; Installing Marshal, Nancy Gilkison; Installing Chaplain, Janice Gipson; Installing Recorder, Janet West; and Installing Musician, Olga Smith.

After the installation of the officers, the proclamation and altar presentation of the flag were given by Nancy Gilkison.

Nate Jacob, brother of the new worthy advisor, escorted his sister to the altar where Wayne Ferguson performed the crowning ceremony. Miss Jacob then introduced her family and presented her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, with flowers. Mrs. Nele Morrison, worthy patron of the Grande Ronde Valley 49 of Eastern Star; Olga Smith, representative to the state of South Dakota; Leese Taylor, grand color bearer of Rainbow in Oregon; Janice Gipson, and Nancie Gilkison, past worthy advisors in Rainbow, were escorted and introduced.

Under good of the order, a clever addenda for the outgoing Worthy Advisor, Marianne Ferguson, was given. She then presented the mother advisor with a gift. Miss Jacob also presented her installing officers with gifts. Ferguson presented his daughter with her Past Worthy Advisor's pin. Mrs. Nele Morrison presented Peggy with a white Rainbow Bible a gift given to each worthy advisor, from the Masonic Lodge.

The Union County Fairmaids provided entertainment and everyone was served refreshments.

were presented to the outgoing officers by Lois Kenworthy.

Next meeting will be the first Monday in November with the new officers in charge.

Union Women Start Club Fall Meetings

UNION (Special) — The first fall meeting of the Women's Club was a 12:30 luncheon and business meeting at the Women's Club house Oct. 1.

The table was decorated in fall flowers and large horns of plenty for center pieces and small horns of plenty were used for nut cups. The meeting was conducted by the President, Mrs. Vance Phumpey. Mrs. George South led the group in the Lord's Prayer before being seated for lunch.

Two committees were appointed for the care of the Clubhouse. House committee: Mrs. Willard Hill, Mrs. Guy Goble, and Mrs. J. Q. Gilmore; grounds committee: Mrs. Carl Bechtold and Mrs. W. H. Hutchinson.

Mrs. Neal Morrison reported on the Oregon Federation Women's Club board meeting she attended at Portland. She announced there is to be a district board meeting in La Grande Oct. 26, and a District Convention in Vale, April 2.

New members welcomed were: Mrs. George Pulse, Mrs. Margaret Layton, and Mrs. Olga Smith. Guests were: Mrs. Bob Betts, Mrs. L. W. Sharps, Mrs. Emma Bell and Mrs. Mabel Hutchinson.

The past presidents are always honored at the first fall meeting. There were 12 present and each was presented a lovely corsage by the president.

Mrs. Carl Posey, outgoing president, was presented a large tray for her work for the past two years.

The committee for the day was Mrs. Willard Hill and the officers.

Mrs. W. Weise Elected Head Of Union Club

UNION (Special) Union Business Women's Club met at the Knotty Pine Cafe for their first fall meeting, Monday at 7:30, for a dinner and business meeting. Business of the evening was the election of officers. Mrs. Willard Weise was elected president; Mrs. Fred Cantrell, vice president; Mrs. Guy Goble, secretary treasurer.

Iola Harn, past president, installed the new officers. Corsages

Orientation Planned For Scout Leaders

An Orientation session for new leaders, assistant leaders and mothers interested in Girl Scouts, will be held in the small parlor on the mezzanine of the Sacajawea Hotel, Monday at 9:30 a.m.

Mrs. Clyde Jones is the volunteer trainer of leaders. The purpose of the meeting is to give new leaders information and materials necessary for starting their troops.

Mrs. Jones will also explain what is expected of leaders and their assistants, and what the girls are expected to get from their troop program.

Any mother interested in learning more about the Girl Scout program and how to help their daughters gain the most from scouting experiences, should also attend at this time.

Cherry Chapter Holds Meeting

Cherry Chapter 177, order of the Eastern Star, met recently with Edith Johnson, worthy matron and Lester Johnson, worthy patron, presiding.

Following the regular business meeting, refreshments were served by Josie Blake and Verda Gray. The table was decorated with an assortment of fall flowers and candles.

ATTENTION PARENTS
SWANWICK, England (UPI) — Social worker Hilary Maldin told a parents meeting Wednesday that "to deprive a girl of her boy friends, her earning ability and her pretty clothes is not good—it has tendency to bring about resentment."
