Sinatra Chases ITS NEW Motorist After Convertible Hit

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) - Frank Sinatra chased a motorist at speeds up to 60 miles an hour Thursday night after his $11,000 foreign - make convertible was accident near the Beverly Hills

Kykendahl, of West Los Angeles old police he thought Sinatra was holdup man. Kykendahl, wildly blowing his car horn, drove up to the West Los Angeles police station with his passenger. Beverly Stunden, Santa Monica Sgt. R. D. Bowers of the Beverly Hills police department said Sinatra told him Kykendahl backed into his 1959 dual Ghia convertible and then, when the singer stepped out, nearly ran ov er him speeding away.

Sinatra took up the chase but decided it was best to go to the police. At first he demanded that Kykendahl be arrested, but later he said to "forget the whole thing," and no citation was issued.
