Cherokee Indian Repents In Church

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (UP) -A Cherokee Indian from Oklanome walked down the aisle of a Redwood City church Sunday, knelt with a group of parishioners and then told a stranger at his side that he wanted to "confess a bank robbery," The Indian, 29-year-old Gaweskey Smith, repeated his confession 30 minutes later in the San Mateo County Sheriff's office.

Smith said he hid his car in the foothills near his home in Okmul-gee, Okla., last Feb. 3. He hitchhiked into Webber Falls, where he said he robbed the Webber Falls State Bank of $2,694. The Indian said he forced a physician to drive him back to his own car —and later spent the money on medical bills and whiskey.

"Ever since, I have had no peace of mind," Smith said, "It worried me and I couldn't sleep." He told sheriff's deputies he entered the church Sunday because 'Now I want to make my peace
