Curley Lee Underdog On TV Fight

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI) — Curley Lee, the brash newcomer from Los Angeles, puts his fast-moving drive for a shot at the world heavyweight crown on the line tonight in a nationally televised match with dangerous Cleveland Williams.

The 210-pound Williams was a slight favorite going into tonight's 10-round (ABC-TV) battle starting at 10 p.m. e.d.t., but some observers said this was only because the "big cat" was better known here than Lee.

Reports from the West Coast indicate the 22-year-old Lee is considered by some as the best sleeper bet to clout his way to a world heavyweight challenge.

TO TEST CAR

SEBRING, Fla. (UPI) — Strling Moss of England, one of the world's top racing car drivers, says he plans to test a "revolutionary new car" when he comes here for the first Grand Prix of the United States, Dec. 12.

Moss, who will be seeking the world's driving championship in the Sebring Race, will test drive the new Formula-1 car now being built in England on the twisting Sebring course. In the race itself, however, he will drive the same Cooper-Climax in which he won the last two Grand Prix races in Europe.

New Grid Loop Seeks Fritz Crisler As Boss

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UPI) — The new professional American Football League today was considering Michigan athletic director and retired coach Herbert O. "Fritz" Crisler as a candidate for its league commissioner.

Crisler flew home to Ann Arbor, Mich., today after having spent most of Tuesday conferring with the committee that will pick the new pro league's commissioner.

The meeting was supposed to be highly secret but when United Press International contacted Crisler prior to his departure he readily admitted he flew here Monday night to meet with the committee.

"I have been approached regarding my interest in being considered for this position," he said.

Huntington, Cove Set 8 Man Game

COVE (Special) — Cove and Huntington, scheduled to meet in a Baker B league contest Friday, will switch from six-man to eight-man football. Game time is scheduled for 1:30.

The teams agreed to make the change as an experimental step toward changing the league from six to eight man teams next year, according to Cove coach Arch Lowry. The teams in the league are Cove, Imbler, North Powder, Huntington, Hereford and Richland.

Imbler and Huntington took the first step toward the switch when they tangled at Imbler last week. Imbler took a 34-33 victory in the revised game.

The main difference in the game is that two guards on the line will not be eligible for a pass and the quarterback doesn't have to make a clear hand-off. Quarterbacks will be eligible to run with the ball from their original position.

Rich Robinson and Frank Conley are hampered by injuries and their status as starters in Friday's game is doubtful.

Robinson, out with a bruised foot, is not expected to play at all, according to Lowry. Conley is still nursing a bruised knee he suffered in the Imbler game two weeks ago but is expected to be ready for Friday's contest.

A'S BUY TROWBRIDGE

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — Bob Trowbridge, a 29-year-old hard luck righthander who couldn't quite "cut the mustard" with the Milwaukee Braves, will start a new career with the Kansas City Athletics in 1960.

Trowbridge, who had a 1-0 won-lost record while working in only 30 innings with the Braves last season, was purchased by the Athletics Monday.

Odds makers Give Los Angeles Nod To Smash Packer String

United Press International
The Los Angeles Rams are three-point favorites to smash the National Football League's only remaining perfect record Sunday when they tackle the Green Bay Packers at Milwaukee.

Los Angeles is favored although it dropped two of its first three games while Green Bay, surprise team of the campaign, swept its first three starts.

In another key Western Division game, the champion Baltimore Colts (2-1) are slim, one-point choices for their game with the Bears (1-2) at Chicago. The Lions (6-3) are favored over the San Francisco Forty-Niners (2-1) by two points at Detroit in the other Western Division clash.

The New York Giants are Sunday's heaviest favorites. They are 6½ point choices to whip the Eagles at New York although they took a 49-21 walling from the Eagles two weeks ago at Philadelphia.

Steelers-Redskins Even
New York, Philadelphia and the Washington Redskins are tied for the Eastern Division lead with 2-1 records. The Redskins and Pittsburgh Steelers (1-2) are rated even for their game at Washington. In the other Eastern Division pairing, the Browns (1-2) are 4½ point choices to beat the Chicago Cardinals (1-2) at Cleveland.

Green Bay has been winning with a good defense that has allowed only 36 points, an average of 12 a game, in defeating the Bears, Lions and Forty-Niners.

The Rams, who feature long-range offensive power, are favored over Green Bay although Bill Wade, their No. 1 quarterback, has a knee injury which may hamper him. Wade likes to fire long passes to Jim Phillips and Del Shofner, Jon Arnett, his other top target, is injured. The Packers also must stop Ollie Matson, who cracked the Bear line for 199 yards during a 29-21 Ram triumph last Sunday.

John Unitas, Baltimore's passer, has been off target with some of his throws this season Ray Berry and Lenny Moore, two of his key receivers, have been hampered by injuries but should be in better shape for the clash with the Bears.

Philadelphia and New York are in good physical condition for their Yankee Stadium game. Tommy McDonald of the Eagles, top target for Norm Van Brocklin's passes and the league's leading passer this season with 39 points.
