

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Steve Sebo Honored As Coach

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Quiet, soft spoken and mild mannered was his trademark, even when the slings and arrows of disappointment dug deepest.

Quiet, soft spoken, mild mannered, with modesty added, is his trademark now, with his most successful season in six years rapidly growing.

He is Steve Sebo, who was named today the United Press International football Coach of the Week—the same likeable little guy who sweated out the disillusionment at the University of Pennsylvania in the dreary days when Penn stripped its football of any vestige of power bending backward to Ivy League demands.

He is the Coach of the Week because his road-back team, unbeaten, untied, unscored on, upset Princeton Saturday, 18-0, one short week after it topped defending Ivy champion Dartmouth.

The two victories over the co-favorites for the Ivy title followed a shutout triumph over Lafayette, the first season since 1945 that Penn won its first three games while blanking its opponents, and boomed the Quakers to the favored position in the championship race.

Characteristically, in the campus delirium at the flying start, a composed Sebo handed out the praise to everyone else. He ticked them off on his fingertips in the

CUSS AND KICK

GREENSBORO, N.C. (UPI)—Guilford County Agent Willard Kimbrey today said his expert advice for homeowners whose lawns are infested with toadstools is to "cuss and kick."

Kimbrey said the effect of the cussing is doubtful, but the only alternative until dry weather comes is to kick the toadstools loose.

WILDLIFE INVASION

JONESBORO, Ill. (UPI)—The Jonesboro area is expected to be overrun by love-smitten ducks, geese, crows and raccoons this weekend.

Not content with holding the state duck, goose and crow-calling contest here, wildlife officials also scheduled the first national coon-calling contest.

"give credit" department—the team, his assistant coaches, their assignments, their spirit.

"It's a combination of everyone—a stay-together effort to get the job done. There's a close feeling among ourselves. No one is trying to be the star," Sebo observed.

matter of FACT

In ancient Greece, cryptography—the art of writing messages that could be read only by persons knowing a certain secret—was very popular. The earliest forms of cryptograms used a strip of parchment wound around a staff in spiral form with the edges meeting. The message was written along the line formed by the joining of the spiral of parchment. It was then unwound and sent to another person who could read it only after rewinding it in a spiral on a like staff.

Only One Dodger Picked For National All-Stars

NEW YORK (UPI)—Wally Moon, who staged a fine comeback after a 1958 flop, was the only member of the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers named today to the United Press International's 1959 National League All-Star team.

The 24-man committee, made up of three baseball experts from each city, in the league, selected four members of the second-place Milwaukee Braves, two stars each from the San Francisco Giants and Cincinnati Reds and one Chicago Cub to round out a 10-man squad. The team boasts two 21-game winners and a .309 team batting average.

Selected from the Braves were catcher Del Crandall, slugging third-baseman Ed Mathews, batting champ Hank Aaron and pitcher Lew Burdette. Outfielder Willie Mays and 21-game winner Sam Jones were picked from the Giants, first-baseman Frank Robinson and second-baseman Johnny Temple were the Reds selected and shortstop Ernie Banks was the Cub honored.

Robinson and Orlando Cepeda of the Giants finished with 10 votes each in the balloting for first base but the tie was resolved in favor of Robinson because he also received five votes as an outfielder.

Jones and Burdette compiled identical 21-15 records and each pitched four shutouts. Each of the eight regulars played in at least 145 games, only one batted less than 300 and they totaled 248 homers—or an average of 31 apiece for the season.

The complete voting position-by-position:

Catcher: Del Crandall, Braves (21), Smokey Burgess, Pirates (2), Ed Bailey, Reds (1).

First-Baseman: Frank Robinson, Reds, and Orlando Cepeda, Giants (10 each), Joe Cunningham, Cardinals (2), Joe Adcock, Braves and Gil Hodges, Dodgers (1 each).

Second-Baseman: Johnny Temple, Reds (15), Charlie Neal, Dodgers (8), Don Blasingame, Cardinals (1).

Shortstop: Ernie Banks, Cubs (23), Johnny Logan, Braves (1).

Third-Baseman: Ed Mathews, Braves (18), Ken Boyer, Cardinals (6).

Outfielders: Hank Aaron, Braves and Willie Mays, Giants (23 each), Wally Moon, Dodgers (10), Robinson, Reds and Vada Pinson, (5 each), Joe Cunningham, Cardinals (4), Gus Bell, Reds and Duke Snider, Dodgers (1 each).

Pitchers: Sam Jones, Giants (21), Lew Burdette, Braves (12), Warren Spahn, Braves (9), Elroy Face, Pirates and Johnny Antonelli, Giants (3 each).

NY Readys Charges On Fight Mob

NEW YORK (UPI)—Counsel James P. Fuscias of the New York State Athletic Commission today began drawing up specific charges of misconduct aimed at revoking within two weeks the licenses of three principals in the mobster-financed Johansson-Patterson fight promotion.

Fuscias is acting upon orders contained in the commission's preliminary decision Tuesday against:

- Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., which promoted the June 26 fight wherein Ingemar Johansson of Sweden won the world heavyweight crown from Floyd Patterson, and which has a round-bout contract.
- Bill Rosensohn, former president of Rosensohn Enterprises, who admittedly borrowed $10,000 from mobster Tony Salerno and allegedly arranged for $75,000 credit, apparently from Salerno.
- Cus D'Amato, manager of Patterson, who allegedly tried to perpetuate control of the title by hand-picking managers for challengers, and who allegedly acted as an undercover promoter.

"The charges will be served as soon as possible," said Fuscias. "We want to clean up the whole thing within two weeks."
