Crystal Rebekahs Plan Visit Of Oregon Assembly President

Plans for the visit of Ruth Vose, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, draping of the charter, and a salute to an aged member were the main highlights of the recent meeting of Crystal Rebekah lodge in the Odd Fellows temple.

Ellen MacGregor was elected to membership by initiation and was initiated during the Nov. 4, meeting.

The first nominations for 1960 officers will be held at the Oct. 21 meeting.

It was decided that the semi-annual birthday dinner will be held Nov. 18 at 6:30 preceding the regular meeting of the lodge. Members having birthdays from January to July are the serving committee for this dinner.

There were 48 members present. The attendance gift was awarded to Evaline Shafer. "Happy Birthday" was sung to Illa Dial, Maude Holman, Mable Anson, Ardena Fihn and Maude Johnson.

Helen Frizzell, president of the Three Links club, reminded members of the annual bazaars set for Nov. 6, and urged members to finish handwork and collect items for the grab bag. Handwork items are to be turned over to Gertrude Fisk when they are completed.

Two members, Gertrude Fisk and Lillian Bork, will be among the class to receive the Degree of Chivalry, highest award given a Rebekah, at the ceremony in Pendleton Oct. 24, at 8:30 p.m.

Many reports of sickness were given. Jean Boethman has her leg in a cast. Hermina Hamman was reported in the hospital and Rebecca Kochensparger, Lucille Lee and Edna Berglund were reported ill at home.

Plans for the president's visit Oct. 21 include a planned potluck dinner to be held in the Odd Fellows dining room at 6:30. Helen Frizzell will be assisted by Florence Workman in the details of this event.

Mrs. Courtney also reminded members of the district convention that will be held in Summerville, Oct. 28. The session will take up at 1:30 p.m. and all Rebekahs are welcome to attend. There will be a banquet after the session and Mrs. Vose will make her official visit to the Summerville Lodge in the evening.

Graveside Rites Held For Infant

ENTERPRISE (Special)—Graveside services for baby, Debra Lynn Howerton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Howerton, of Joseph, were conducted Monday at 2 p.m. in the Enterprise cemetery by the Rev. A. L. Kintner officiating. Survivors include the parents, Dan and Mary Howerton and one sister, Wanda Marie Howerton, all of Joseph; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey (Alma) Baker of Enterprise, and Mrs. Edith Brown of Lewiston, Ida.; and great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Warnock and Mr. and Mrs. Albin Rudgers, all of Joseph.

Jens Olson Will Lie In State Here

Jens Olson, who died in his home Tuesday, will lie in state at the Dempsey's Funeral Chapel until Friday at 9 p.m.

Services will be held at the Folsom's Funeral Chapel, Saturday at 2 p.m. Burial will be in the Helix cemetery. The Rev. Eller will officiate.

SINGER PIA RELEASED

PARIS (UPI)—French singer Edith Piaf was released Wednesday from the American Hospital of Paris where she underwent an operation for inflammation of the pancreas three weeks ago. Miss Piaf said she hoped to resume her singing career in February.

Womans Society To Hold Potluck

The Union County Methodist Women's Society will meet in the First Methodist Church, Oct. 22, at 10:30 a.m. for their annual potluck dinner and fellowship.

The theme will be centered on "The Modern Woman — The World Around." Each society will apply something of interest concerning the woman of the county assigned to them. Additional inspiration will be supplied by Mrs. Jessie Harine and a reading will be given by Mrs. Tom Rockman.

The meat dishes, rolls and coffee will be supplied by the local society. Others may bring additional food and each their own table service.

Rockwall Unit To Hold Meet

The Rockwell Extension Unit will meet Oct. 21 at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. George Crouser.

The subjects for demonstration will be: candle making in the afternoon, and Swedish Weaving in the afternoon. Those who wish to learn Swedish Weaving are asked to bring one yard of huck toweling, embroidery or pearl crocheted thread and tapestry needles. Potluck lunch at noon. Everyone is welcome.
