

COLTS' KEEPER

Colorful Nickname Inspires Syracuse Gridders To Win

By OSCAR FRALEY UPI Staff Writer NEW YORK (UPI)—Syracuse is out today to ride a nickname up the gridiron glory road in the manner successful from the days of the "Four Horsemen" to the "Chinese Bandits."

There is a theory that the modern college athlete is a blasé young man who refuses to be driven to inspired heights by the "corny" melodramatics of the "pep talk." Yet, somehow, an appealing nickname gets them to "put out" on their own.

The "Four Horsemen" of Notre Dame are even greater in memory, instead of remembered merely as another fine Irish team, because of the tag which the late Grantland Rice hung on them. And down at LSU, Paul Dietzel transformed an ordinary defensive unit into a battling band which fought with the ferocity of their namesakes by labeling them the "Chinese Bandits."

Athletics Deny Move To Coast

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A financial adviser to Washington Senators owner Calvin Griffith has suggested that another American League club president will try to move his team to the West Coast in 1961.

Attorney C. Leo Deorsey, a former director of the Washington club and Griffith's adviser, made it clear that he was talking about Arnold Johnson, owner of the Kansas City Athletics.

Deorsey made his statement in charging that American League club owners "buckled" under the threat of baseball anti-trust legislation and blocked Griffith's attempt to move the Senators to Minneapolis.

Johnson, contacted in New York City, immediately tried to knock down Deorsey's intimation that he wanted to take the Athletics to the Pacific Coast.

"I'd have to pay rent in two stadiums," he said. "We've agreed to a renewal of our lease in Kansas City through 1964. I certainly couldn't pay rent for two ballparks."

"As baseball expands, it will have to be to large cities like New York and Los Angeles which can support two clubs. But I'm not one of them."

Maybe the designation isn't as poetic or colorful, but Syracuse is shooting for the football heights with a massive and muscular line which has become known as the "Sizeable Seven."

They are sizeable, averaging 6 feet, 3 inches and 216 pounds—as average dissipated considerably by one "midget" of a mere 191 pounds. But through the tackle - to - tackle middle the weights read like this: 228, 202, 230, 230 and 228.

"It is," says line coach Dick Beyer, "the best line we've ever had at Syracuse—and one of the best I've ever seen."

Beyer is a man accustomed to dealing in beef on the hoof. He does it himself four or five times a week as a professional "rasser" while trying to earn enough money "to be able to afford to teach."

If this seems a bit incongruous, considering that he deals during football hours with college students, it must be accepted that the 230-pound Beyer is a "good guy" on the rassing circuit. It wouldn't do to pulverize a mat opponent with foul and dastardly tricks and then attempt to teach undergrads the tenets of fair play and sportsmanship.

Can Handle "Babies"

So it is that his "babies," fellows like 228-pound guard Roger (Hound Dog) Davis, can look up to him, and he can handle 6-foot, 4-inch Jack Bemiller, the center who hopes to be a morticain and currently is inferring rival ball carriers.

Lake Mead Cup Race Starts For Hydros

LAS VEGAS (UPI)—Unlimited hydroplanes took to the calm surface penned up behind Hoover Dam today in the first annual Lake Mead Cup Race.

Capable of straightaway speeds approaching 200 miles an hour, 10 of the fastest propeller driven boats in the world will be out to make their final showing of 1959 in nationally recognized competition.

Despite an accident Monday when a crane dropped her into the water too quickly and damaged an oil tank and rudder, the Lake Mead-base, Maverick was the favorite. Maverick holds the prized Gold Cup Trophy and the national championship in point standing.

Trojans Lead Big 5 Statistical Race

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Stanford and Washington The Southern California Trojans hold the statistical lead in five out of six departments in Big Five competition, according to official statistics released today.

Only in passing offense do the Trojans fail, ranking third behind

Vikings Add Two On Injured List

PORTLAND (UPI)—Portland State, which meets Eastern Oregon at La Grande Saturday, put two more players on the injured list today.

The two, hurt in the Lewis and Clark game, are freshmen reserves Gary Curtis and Phil Vaughn. Vaughn plays reserve flanker for the Vikings.

BALTIMORE FAVORED TO WHIP PACKERS: SF OVER NEW YORK

United Press International The Baltimore Colts, San Francisco Forty-Niners and New York Giants are favored to retain their grips on first place in three of Sunday's National Football League features.

The Colts are heavy, 13-point choices to whip the Green Bay Packers at Baltimore although they share the Western Division lead with the Packers and Forty-Niners. The Forty-Niners entertain the Chicago Bears (1-3) and are slim, one-point favorites. The Western leaders have 3-1 records.

The odds-makers also made New York (3-1) a one-point choice to retain its one-game Eastern Division lead by defeating the Steelers at Pittsburgh. The Steelers, Cleveland Browns, Washington Redskins and Philadelphia Eagles (each 2-2) are tied for second behind the Giants.

Browns Over Redskins Cleveland plays host to the crippled Redskins and is a 9 1/2 point favorite. Philadelphia is favored over the Chicago Cardinals (1-3) at Minneapolis. The Cardinals scheduled two of their six home games at Minneapolis this year. They will play the Giants there Nov. 22.

The Rams (2-2) are two-point choices to defeat the Detroit Lions (0-4) at Los Angeles in Sunday's other game.

Green Bay swept its games against the Bears, Lions and Forty-Niners but has been weakened by injuries and took a 45-6 whipping from the Rams last Sunday. The Colts appeared sluggish in their early games but showed the form that carried them to the 1958 championship during last Sunday's 21-7 triumph over the Bears, Ray Berry and Lenny Moore, two of Baltimore's top pass receivers, have recovered from injuries.

The Giants may spend a rugged afternoon at Forbes Field. The Steelers have been especially effective against the Giants at Pittsburgh. They were the only team that ran amok against the New York defense in 1958, hammering out a 31-10 victory in Pittsburgh.

49ers Well-Balanced San Francisco will throw a balanced club against the Bears. The Forty-Niners have scored 112 points, more than any other club. They have allowed 48, a defensive mark bettered only by the Browns, who have allowed 41.

The Redskins invade Cleveland with a club that fumbled seven times while dropping a 27-6 decision to Pittsburgh last Sunday. Coach Paul Brown appears to have developed another of the strong defensive units that have helped make his Browns so successful. But his offense has produced only 64 points in four games.

The Cardinals may have a quarterback problem when they face the Eagles, King Hill and M. C. Reynolds, the Cardinal signal-callers, were injured in last Sunday's 17-7 loss to the Browns. The Lions, only team without victory, face a formidable task at Los Angeles. The Rams always are hard to beat at home and scored road victories in their last Bears and Packers in their last two starts.

BUY DOTTERER'S CONTRACT CINCINNATI (UPI)—The Cincinnati Reds have purchased the contract of third baseman Tom Dotterer from Nashville of the Southern Association.

Dotterer, a brother of Reds catcher Dutch Dotterer, batted .260 with Nashville last season and hit eight home runs.

Wallowa WSC Hears Talk, Sees Slides By Missionary

WALLOWA (Special)—Miss Celia Cowan, Homedale, Ida., recently spoke to members and visitors of the Women's Society of Christian Service at the Wallowa Methodist Church. She told of missionary work in the Belgian Congo and showed slides of the people, their costumes, churches and homes, along with an art display of things the natives make.

several times, the first visit in 1926. Ladies from the WSCS of Joseph, Elgin, Alice and La Grande were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wolfe left Saturday for Portland to attend the Pacific-International Livestock Exposition. The Wolfe's grand champion Hereford at the Oregon State Fair will be on display along with three junior ball calves and one heifer calf. Bryan Wolfe's grand champion steer will be judged also.

Dick Clark Derives Rock 'N Roll Unit Caused Big Riot

NEW YORK (UPI)—Dick Clark denied Tuesday night that his rock 'n roll "Caravan of Stars" was responsible for a riot last Saturday night in Kansas City where 49 persons were arrested.

"The show was over when the incident took place," Clark said. "Clark, a 28-year-old idol of the nation's teen-agers, told reporters at a news conference that there were "three different versions of what happened" in Kansas City.

"What happened was certainly unfortunate, but it only reflects the attitude of very few of the thousands of people there," Clark said.

As a result of the riot, Minneapolis Police Chief Milton E. Winslow cancelled a scheduled Oct. 28 performance of the "Caravan of Stars" in the Minneapolis Auditorium. Winslow said he took the action "for the peace and well-being of the city."

Clark, who books the talent for the show but does not appear personally, would only say that "the police chief requested that the show not go to Minneapolis and we will honor his request."

Young Robinson Faces Drunk Charge Trial

WEST LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Edward G. Robinson Jr., 26, faces trial Nov. 29 on a misdemeanor drunk charge.

The son of the famed actor won reinstatement of $1 bail Tuesday in a legal move to avoid being sent to jail for violation of probation. He was arrested on the plain drunk charge Oct. 32.

Robinson forfeited the bail last Friday, but he had reinstated when he learned the forfeiture might be taken as an admission of guilt.

Stan Humy brought in two Mongolian pheasant cocks after a hunt recently, which is unusual. Planted by the game commission, their survival was not good. Chinese pheasants are much more common, and now Chukkas are showing up. Golden pheasants appear to have disappeared.

About 25 members of Jessica chapter, OES, attended a district meeting at Enterprise recently. The officers wore new gowns of white nylon lace over white taffeta, with wide pink sashes and large bows. A smorgasbord dinner preceded the meeting and was held at the Community church.

Attending from Wallowa were Mesdames Maude Marvin, C. A. Hunter, John Bratton, Jennie Conklin, Charles Fisher, J. R. Davidson, Jennie Ashby, James Lambert and J. R. Morton. Mrs. Celeste Dickenson, of Corvallis, worthy grand matron, and Ron Gilson of Lebanon, worthy grand patron, were present.

County Sues Firm On Rain Making

KELSO, Wash. (UPI)—Cowlitz county Tuesday filed suit in Superior Court here against Water Resource Development Company charging the firm with illegally making rain.

The unusual action, believed first of its kind, came after protests by farmers and other citizens that extra rainfall in the county swelled creeks and damaged crops.

Wayne Roethler, county prosecuting attorney, signed the complaint. The company is charged with cloud seeding on six occasions, each time without a permit required by a 1957 Washington state law.

Roethler said the company had secured a permit to operate until May 1, 1959 but continued to seed clouds at Ostrander and Kalama after that.
